

Poor Little Joe.

Prop your eyes wide open, Joey,
Fur I've brought you sumpin' great.
Apples! No, a great sight better!

I was skippin' past a winder,
Where a bang up lady shot.
All amongst a lot of bushes—

Well, I thought of you poor feller,
Lym' here so sick and weak.
Never knowin' any comfort,

Then I told her all about you—
How I bringed you up—poor Joe!
(Lackin' women folks to do it.)

How that tumble crippled you,
So's you couldn't hyper much—
Joe, it hurted when I seen you

Say! It seems to me, ole feller,
You is quite yourself to-night;
Kind o' chirp—it's been a fortnit

Never see the country, did you?
Flowers growin' everywhere!
Sometime when your better, Joey,

But I've heard it hinted somewheres
That in Heaven's golden gates Things is everlastin' cheerful—

Thought they looked a little sing'ler,
Oh, no! Don't you have no fear;
Heaven was made for such as you is—

White Lies.

Some slipshod mortals insist that it is permissible, and indeed commendable, to tell lies in cases where the utterance of the plain truth might give offence or pain.

The Greatest Medical Discovery since the Creation of Man, or since the Commencement of the Christian Era.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present.

DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS are acknowledged by all who have used them, to act quicker than any other plaster they ever before tried, and that one of these plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind.

Physicians in all ages have thoroughly tested and well know the effect of Capsicum; and it has always been more or less used as a medical agent for an outward application; but it is only of very recent date that its advantages in a porous plaster have been discovered.
