Children In Reform Schools Got Cigarettes

SASKATON (CP) — Two ministers in the former CCF Saskatchewan government have confirmed that the welfare department under the CCF gave cigarettes to children under 16 in reform schools.

group that the larger unit of Hon. A. B. MacRae advised the operation for farming could be successful and something must be done to assure labor. Also in the picture is Mrs. Russell.

Mr. Lloyd, now opposition leader, said the department regarded itself as a parent in issuing cigarettes to children under 16 in reform schools. Mr. Nicholson said the children were all confirmed smokers. "The experts advised us that we couldn't stop their smoking. We issued cigarettes so that they wouldn't be tempted to try other means to get them."

He said the experts were psychiatrists and social workers and the practice of issuing cigarettes when requests were made was "all above board."

Woodrow S. Lloyd, former premier, and A. M. Nicholson, former welfare minister, both confirmed this at a press conference Thursday.
