Table with weather forecasts for Toronto and other locations, including temperature ranges and conditions.

HALIFAX (CP) — The weather office here says a high pressure area moving eastward from south of the Great Lakes will bring the weather to all regions today.

Forecast: Northern Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, New Brunswick, sunny and warm light winds. Low-high at New Glasgow, Charlottetown, Moncton, Fredericton and Saint John 70 and 75. Edmundston and Campbellton 45 and 75.

High tide today at Charlottetown 9.50 a.m. and 10.40 p.m. at Batic at 4.06 a.m. and 5.19 p.m. Summerside tides eighteen minutes later than Charlottetown. Sun rises today at 5.39 a.m. and sets at 6.45 p.m.

Among the resolutions passed by the teachers group was one urging the Board of Governors of St. Dunstan's to establish a two-year diploma course in agriculture and the establishing of a Faculty of Education. They also resolved to lend their support to the P. E. I. Teachers Federation in urging the government to set up a Royal Commission to study the whole question of education in this Province. The teachers suggested that the Family Life Conference be made an annual event with one day set aside as a special Catholic teachers' day and asked that Mr. Chisholm be brought back to address a series of meetings at key points in the Province.

The resolutions were moved by Mrs. MacDonald, seconded by Mrs. Helen MacIsaac, and passed unanimously.

Wartime Padre Addresses West Nova Regt. Veterans

"Veterans through the Canadian Legion and other service clubs and organizations should do something about getting a Canadian flag," Rev. A. D. Butts, speaking at the 7th annual re-union of the West Nova Scotia Regimental Association, in Charlottetown on Sunday. He deplored the fact that this great country possessed no emblem of recognition. "There is no country like our own Canada," he said, "and this is her century."

Rev. Father Butts of Bridge-water, N. S., the R. C. Chaplain who served with the W. N. S. R. through Italy and North-west Europe, remarked on the way in which so many citizens failed to exercise their franchise properly when it came to voting to decide who would run the country. "Too many" he said, "are too easily swayed by what was offered in a bottle rather than rely on their own beliefs and convictions." He also urged all to take a greater interest in the education of the younger generation, especially those of us who have not been able to have the benefit of a good formal education. Those more than any should try to make certain that their children are not handicapped in the same way.

Leut. Col. A. W. Rogers, C. D., the retiring president who introduced the guest speaker, expressed thanks to all those who had worked to make this re-union such an outstanding success. He remarked that the more than 150 who had registered represented the largest gathering ever to attend. President of the Charlottetown Branch, Canadian Legion welcomed the delegates on behalf of the legion. Earlier in the afternoon the veterans held a short business session which included the election of new officers. Those elected were: Ray Beck, president and Victor Hall, secretary both of Lunenburg, N. S. The 1957 re-union is scheduled to be held at that centre of Nova Scotia's fishing industry on the Labour Day week-end.

Rural Problems

(Continued from page 1) Forum which was presided over by Mr. P. Cletus Murphy heard Dr. Brendan O'Grady tell the teachers that education in rural schools is inspired too often by city standards and directed too much toward city living. "It is based largely upon city-selected textbooks and administered, too often, by city-minded teachers and because of this much that is good in rural culture is being slighted and many important rural problems left unsolved."

Dr. O'Grady said that rural education should provide for two groups of young people, those who wish to remain in the rural community and those who will probably leave the countryside to seek their livelihood in the city. The afternoon session was presided over by Sister St. Margaret of Paray, C. N. D., and the teachers heard a panel discussion on "Basic problems of the land school and home." Taking part were Sister Isabelle Clare, C. S. M., Sister St. Peter, C. N. D., Jerry Burge, Eleanor MacDonald, Clara Pineau and Fred Driscoll.

Sanatorium Day Observed By The C.W.L.

The annual Sanatorium day was held on Wednesday, August 29th when a committee of ladies from St. Dunstan's Sub-Division C.W.L. visited the institution and distributed home made candy, fruit, flowers, and reading material to each patient in the San. as well as those in the polio centre, thus bringing a small measure of happiness to the patients at this time of the year.

This worthy effort has been carried out over a period of years by the Basilia Sub-Division and needless to say is much appreciated by patients and staff.

Mrs. J. J. Trainor, Convener of Institutions, was assisted by the following: Mrs. J. Lee, president, Mrs. Frey Coyle, Mrs. Fred MacMillan and Mrs. J.E. Fleming.

Co-operative Marketing Seen Needed For Small Farmers

If the farmer specializing in one principal line of production is to survive he must either become a big farmer to meet the demands of the large-volume market or buy by seeking to maintain the family size farm and therefore co-operative marketing schemes are absolutely necessary. He added free the farmer from the economic squeeze of decreasing prices for his products and increasing costs for his needs.

"If rural life is essentially good then it is our obligation to do all we can to preserve and develop all the agencies and institutions that help to survive. We must do this not by criticizing technology but by seeking scientific answers to rural problems."

CHRISTIAN FAMILY In speaking on the Christian Family Movement Rev. Allan F. MacDonald said the family does not exist in a vacuum, it exists in relation to the community and other families and for this reason it is necessary to restore the neighborhood as well as the individual family.

The speaker said the laity will effect the Christian restoration of family life or it will not be effected at all. "Matrimony is the sacrament of the laity; the family is their vocation. The restoration of family life is therefore the laity's first obligation in Catholic Action. Husband and wife must have

Change In Character Of Labor Day Seen Evident

In Quebec and Ontario the big events were baseball and football, with Toronto's Canadian National Exhibition an added attraction. In Montreal sports enthusiasts had their choice of International League baseball or Big Four football, while the Laurentians called outdoors enthusiasts. The weather was the big news on the Prairies. NO SERIOUS ACCIDENTS

The R. C. M. P. last night reported the holiday week-end was entirely free of serious traffic accidents, with no deaths or injuries. The only thing that occurred was the usual run of scraped fenders. The Charlottetown police reported a week-end that was completely free of any kind of traffic accident. For the City it was the quietest week-end the police have experienced for some time.
