IN MEMORIAM

WESLEY WAGNER
A sad gloom was cast over Poplar Grove and surrounding districts on Tuesday, December 25th, when it became known that Wesley Wagner had passed away in the Frimst. Edward Island Hospital at Charlottetown.
Although the deceased had been in failing health for the past few years his death came unexpectedly.
Born at Freeland, Lot 11, September 16th, 1908. He was the son of James and the late Gertrude Wagner. He was a veteran of World War II.
Besides his widow the former Janie Adams of West Devon, he is survived by three daughters and five sons namely, Ruby, Mrs. Edw. Murphy, Broutie, Ontario; Dolly, Wyman, John and George Brantford, Ontario, Edgar, Charles and Pearl residing at home; also three brothers and five sisters, Mrs. Fred Baller, Mrs. Charles Koutman, Mrs. James Banks, Mrs. David Milligan, Poplar Grove, Mrs. Brewer McInnis, Weymouth, Mass., Russell William East Bideford and Edgar who is at present serving with the Armed Forces in Germany. Also surviving are eight grandchildren.
The funeral which was largely attended was held on Saturday, December 29th from his late residence to St. John's Episcopal Church, Ellerslie, where service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Ingraham of Kensington, followed by a short service at the grave by the Ellerslie Branch of the Canadian Legion. Hymns sung were: "Safe in the Arms of Jesus", "Breathe on Me Breath of God", "O God our Help in Age of Past."
The pall bearers all ex-servicemen were: Messrs. Edward Phillips, Lorance Milligan, Orvin MacDonald, Bayfield Murphy, Edgar Oatway and Kenneth Dawson.
The many floral tributes showed the high esteem in which the deceased was held.
