What were you doing last night? Are you trying to get me kicked out?

Tony D.

To the new piano prof:
You look too cool in your little car.

I think you have the best University paper in Charlottetown..... and probably the best University paper on PEI. (Hi Karen.) Keep up the great work!

J.C.

Last night was the best - for you! Why didn't you invite me to participate. You were having so much fun.

Mr. Leftout

SWF, 22, tall, brown hair, blue eyes, seeks intelligent mature gentleman for romance evenings and stimulating conversation. If you are a SWM or SBM in university and capable of having a wonderful relationship that isn't sexually active call me.

To the guy who is supposed to be unbiased:

Keep your nose out of other people's business, unless they ask for your help. You have made more enemys amongst your friends than you will ever know.

A friend not in need of your help.

To D. Bradley

We recieved your letter but are unable to print it because you did not sign it or leave your phone number.

Senior Class Survey

The next SENIOR CLASS MEETING will be held on Tuesday October 15, 1996 at the Robertson Library in Room 105 at 6:00pm. All are welcome to attend. Anyone who is unable to attend can e-mail Lisa Profit at LProfit@UPEI.ca and give suggestions on fundraising and events or just get an update on what's going on. We will put a senior class suggestion box in the library for anyone who wants to, that's right suggest something.

Here are some of the suggestions other have made. Please check off those you like and put it in the senior class drop off box.
