Obituary.

HON. JAMES DINGWELL.

"It were a double grief, if the departed, Being released from earth, should still retain A sense of earthly pain;
It were a double grief, if the true-hearted, Who loved us here, should on the farther shore Remember us no more."

The Hon. James Dingwell departed this life at his residence, Bay Fortune, on last Thursday evening, about eight o'clock. The deceased gentleman was a son of Joseph Dingwell and Margaret McKie. His life had been extended beyond the "three score years and ten," having been born on the 27th of July, 1805, making him almost 79 years old. On the 15th of January 1829—fifty-five years ago—he married Mrs. Sarah McEwen, who survives him. His family gives six sons and two daughters—all alive but one—and his youngest daughter is married to the Rev. Allen McLean, of Crapaud.

As a father, husband, neighbor and friend, his life had been an exemplary one.
Trusted and honored by his fellow-countrymen, he filled several important public offices, such as High Sheriff of the County, Commissioner of small debts, Justice of the Peace, etc.—giving general satisfaction in the discharge of his various duties, and winning well-merited credit for himself.

Our most gracious Sovereign, the Queen, called him to the Legislative Council of this Province, in the year 1852. The following is a copy of the Royal warrant, which is somewhat unique in its style and wording, and bears the autograph signature of Her Majesty:—

"VICTORIA, GREETING:—
Right Trusty and Right Wellbeloved Cousin, We greet you well. We being well satisfied of the loyalty, integrity and ability of Our Trusty and Wellbeloved James Dingwell, Esquire, have thought fit hereby to signify Our Will and pleasure that, forthwith upon the receipt of these—James Dingwell, Esquire, to be of the Legislative Council of Prince Edward Island—presents, you swear and admit him, the said James Dingwell, to be a Member of the Legislative Council of Our Island of Prince Edward. And for so doing this shall be your warrant. Given at our Court at Buckingham Palace this Twenty third day of April 1852, in the Fifteenth year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command," etc.

The above was registered at Charlottetown on the 15th day of May 1852, and had been forwarded by Her Majesty.

"To Our Right Trusty and Right Well-beloved Cousin, James, Earl of Elgin and Kincardine, Knight of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle, Our Captain General and Governor in Chief in and over our Island of Prince Edward, or in the absence of Our Lieutenant-Governor, or the Officer Administering the Government of Our said Island."

During his Parliamentary career he was connected with several important measures, the principle of which was in 1852, the Free Education Act, which has been such a blessing to our country; in 1853, the Franchise Act; and in 1854, the Reciprocity Treaty, the population of the Island being at that time 71,496. Early in 1863 the Legislative Council became elective, when he was elected to a seat in the House.

Besides the Acts enumerated and others of less importance, he took a prominent part in the Land Question, during which he identified himself with the interests of the tenants. The last great measure with which he had to do, was the Railway question; and no doubt Souris owes a branch to his vote in the Council. Altogether he represented this district for over twenty years.

His character as a Christian won and merited high esteem. Around his deathbed every living member of his family—with one exception, absent through sickness—was assembled to bid "farewell in time" to a much loved earthly friend, recollections of which will ever remain. He lived a good life, but believing that words from a dying man would have good effect, he sent for his neighbors, and with clear unclouded intellect, and heart inspired by the approach of eternal joys, he spoke to them of the importance of salvation, and the future before each one of them, in language never to be forgotten. He wished to impress upon their minds that they should value eternal interests above all else, and his actions in his dying hours brought forcibly to mind the sacred words "Remember the words which I spoke unto you, while I was yet with you." Peacefully he fell asleep to wake on the resurrection morn. Till then we can only say "Sleep! thou who wast weary of the march of life, Sleep on."

On Monday, the 19th inst., at ten o'clock, a large concourse of people gathered to pay the last sad tributes of respect to his remains. The Pastor of the Church to which he belonged—the Rev. J. G. Cameron—preached an impressive sermon in eloquent and appropriate language, from the text, "Father, I will that those whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am." He alluded in feeling words to the past life of the deceased, and urged upon all present the necessity of preparing for the great change from time to eternity. At the grave short services were held; the scene was full of solemn warning—this laying to rest the dear departed friend. By the mouth of the preacher, all present were thanked on behalf of the family for the respect and kindness they had shown to the deceased, and themselves, during his last illness.

To the partner of his life, left to linger a little longer on the road to eternity, the heartfelt sympathy of the community is tendered. In her widowhood, in the midst of her bereavement, He who feels all our sorrows, knows us best, and is our truest friend, our comfort and console her by His power of mortal tongue. The "husband to the widow" will mend the broken link again, and both widowed mother and fatherless children may "meet to part no more."

Their bodies in the ground, In silent hope may lie, Till the last trumpet's joyful sound Shall call them to the sky.

Triumphant in thy closing eye,
The hope of glory shone;
Joy breathed in thy expiring sigh,
To think the race was run."

LANCASTER.

Souris, May 20, 1884.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The Fishing Bounty.

SIR,—Your remarks in reference to Dr.
McIntyre's speech, delivered in the House of Commons last session, would appear to me to be more severe than the circumstances would warrant.

Dr. McIntyre was quite right in saying that there were "not many regular fishermen in his County." Probably the district between Souris and East Point produces more fish than any other district of equal extent on this Island, and I think you would find it difficult to find a dozen "regular fishermen" among the lot, where there are from two to three hundred boats employed.

What the Doctor said about the scarcity of blanks was perfectly just and to the point. The writer of this is slightly interested in fishing, and last season caught sufficient fish to entitle him to the Bounty, but, like several others whom I know, on making application for blanks, were informed by Mr. Foley that he had none, and could not get them. I know enough about the red-tapeism of Ottawa officials to teach me that applications made otherwise than on the proper forms would receive no attention; hence attach but little importance to the remarks made by Mr. A. C.
McDonald in reference to using written forms of application.

If myself and others in this locality were entitled to the Bounty, it is unjust that we should lose it through the negligence of the Agent of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries for this Island.

Yours truly,
JOS. MACVANE.

Bothwell, May 20, 1884.

The Taxation of the People.

Sir Leonard Tilley points out that the receipts from Customs, Excise and Bill Stamps—during the period between July 1879 and July 1884, based for the latter year on the Estimates, would be $124,990, 460. Deducting from this amount the five years' surpluses, $20,723,835, there remains the sum of $104,266,625. On an estimated average population, the same as that given in the census of 1881, viz., 4,324,810, this would give as the average taxation per head $4.82 per annum. The taxation, viz., receipts from Customs, Excise and Bill stamps, from July, 1874, to July, 1879, was, as per Public Accounts, $93,285,770.
Add to this the amount of the deficits during the Cartwright regime, $5,491,314, and we have the sum of $98,787,084 as the amount of the taxation required to meet the actual expenditure during that period.
This is a yearly average taxation of $19,757, 419 or $4.88 per head of the estimated average population of the country during the period. The estimated taxation for coming year 1884 is $25,500,000, out of which must be deducted the estimated surplus of $2,600,000, leaving as the net taxation requisite the sum of $23,500,000.

With the large immigration of the years since the spring of 1881 when the census was taken, and the known fact that fewer people have left the country since we "turned the corner" in that respect, it is fair to assume that the population will be 4,700,000. At that rate the taxation will be for that year $5 a head. This is twelve cents per head of the population more than the average taxation during the period of 1874-9. This additional taxation will go to the treasuries of the provinces under the arrangements regarding the Provincial Subsidies and giving Quebec the subsidy for the North Shore Railway. Notwithstanding that the Dominion Government had expended or will have expended between July 1879 and July 1885 the sum of $67, 000,000 on the Intercolonial, the Canadian Pacific Railway and Canals, the increase of taxation in 1885, as compared with 1874-79, will be but two cents per head of the population. The net interest paid last year was $271,717 less than in 1879-80; and as the saving of interest through the redemption of the five per cent. loan is estimated at $25,000, there is a net saving of $596,717 for which the country could borrow $15,000 without being under the necessity of increasing the taxation. The financial economies of the Finance Minister have been so successful that when completed it may safely be asserted that though the debt will be increased the net interest to be paid in the future will not exceed per head of the population the average amount paid in 1878-80.
