THE appearance of a team of oxen on our public streets to-day attracted much attention. They were yoked in a very heavy sloven, and guided by the stinging charms of a heavy birch stick in the hands of an ancient yeoman.

DEATH OF ONE OF REV. HOWARD SPRAGUE'S CHILDREN.—Rev. Howard Sprague is called to Charlottetown by the death of his son, which took place there yesterday afternoon. The bereaved parents have the sympathies of the community in their affliction. Mr. Sprague has left the management of the lectures, to be delivered on this and to-morrow evenings, in behalf of Centenary Church, in competent hands, and his absence will not, he wishes us to say, interfere with them in any respect.—St. John Tel. 13th.

THE members of the St. Patrick's T. A. Society will hold their annual picnic at St. Dunstan's College to-morrow. The committee appointed by the society have spared no pains nor expense to make this the best picnic of the season. The programme of games and amusements is large and interesting, and will no doubt be carried through in a manner which will reflect much credit on the society. At ten o'clock a.m. the members will form in procession at St. Patrick's Hall, where they will be joined by the St. Joseph's T. A. Society, the Grand Division of Sons of Temperance and a number of temperance societies from the country districts in regalia. They will then march to the pleasant grounds of St. Dunstan's College, headed by the Rustico Brass Band, where they will, we hope, spend a most enjoyable time.

THE shooting match between Mr. Ronald Crawford and Mr. James Dover, both of No. 6 Company, came off yesterday at Kensington range, and resulted in a well earned victory for the former.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

A Conspiracy at Stamboul.

RIOTING IN IRELAND

All Quiet in Montreal.—No Procession to-day.

Special despatch to Examiner:

LONDON, July 15.

Earl Beaconsfield is expected to reach London on Tuesday afternoon. A great popular demonstration is expected at Charing Cross Station on his arrival.

A Constantinople special says: A great conspiracy against the Sultan has been discovered at Stamboul, and fifty arrests have been made. There is considerable excitement, and may high dignitaries are reported involved.

A despatch from Belfast says that a serious riot occurred in Portedown, Ulster, between Orangemen and Catholics, and the disturbance still continues.

VIENNA, July 15.

Political correspondence says the Porte has instructed the authorities of Benjaluka to notify the population that the Austrian army will enter Bosnia with the most friendly intentions, and that the relations between Austria and the Porte continue amicable.

MONTREAL, July 15.

The dedication of Hackett's monument will not take place to-morrow. The matter has been referred to the Orangemen of Ontario, and if it is decided for a procession to be held, it will come off before the end of the present week.

A match between the two champion oarsmen—Hanlan and Courtenay—has been arranged to take place at Owasco Lake on the 20th of September next for $5,000. The distance will be five miles.

TRADE in Montreal has been reduced to a very small volume indeed. There is never much business done at this season of the year, but during the past week the Orange agitation has added to the lethargy in wholesale and retail trades.

A SAD boating accident occurred at Halifax on Sunday last. As three young men, named William Townsend, son of Silas Townsend, and John Holloway, son of Thos. Holloway, and John Lomas, were pleasure sailing in the harbor, the boat upset, and Messrs. Townsend and Holloway were immediately drowned. Lomas was saved by holding on to the boat until rescued by the schooner Hero. Lomas has since died from exhaustion.

DR. MACDONALD writes to a London paper:—"The heat is so intense that great care should be taken to prevent sunstroke. We have already had early warnings. If outdoor laborers would put fern or cabbage leaves inside their hats, or wind bands of rushes, vetches, or green herbage of some sort around them, there would be no cases of sunstroke. By this means the heat is stunned through herbaceous substances, and is much less oppressive."

RAVAGES OF DIPHTHERIA.—The family of Philo Lyon, at Long Reach, King's County, was visited with a sad affliction last week by that terrible scourge, diphtheria. Within one week four children fell victims, beginning with the youngest and taking the next eldest in turn. The dates and ages were as follows:—3d inst., Ada May, four years and four months; 4th inst., Charles Leonard, six years and six months; 5th inst., Arthur Wellesley, nine years and five months; 12th inst., Deborah Davis, eleven years and five months. Mr. Lyon is thus bereft of his entire family of children.—St. John Freeman.
