Supplementary Estimates Tabled At Ottawa

32 Million For Agricultural Support Board

OTTAWA, (CP) — Finance Minister Abbott Friday tabled in the Commons supplementary expenditure estimates of $77,690,383 for the fiscal year ending March 31. The amount included $32,346,000 to cover operating loss of the agricultural prices support board. The loss resulted from government meat purchases while Canadian meat exports were banned due to an outbreak of foot-and-mouth disease in Saskatchewan.

Freight Assistance

The agriculture department estimates also included $3,700,000 to continue payment of freight assistance on Western feed grain destined for farmers on the Pacific Coast and in Eastern Canada. The supplementary estimates also included a $1,000,000 grant to the Canadian national European flood relief fund. Prime Minister St. Laurent announced earlier in the week the grant would be made. A grant of $100,000 was listed for the United Nations refugee emergency fund. A total of $1,702,200 was for construction projects of the National Research Council and the Atomic Energy Control Board. Another $2,284,851 was listed in the Transport Department to cover deficits on railway and ferry operations in the Maritimes, including Newfoundland, and to provide for assistance under the Maritime Freight Rates Act.

Australia Plans Antarctic Station

CANBERRA, (Reuters) — An Australian expedition will leave late this year to set up the first permanent scientific station on the Antarctic continent, Richard Casey, minister of external affairs, said Friday. In making the disclosure, Casey painted a bright future for the ice-locked land mass and said it is imperative for strategic reasons that Australia retain control of its vast unexplored territory there. Australia already maintains what are considered the largest and best-equipped scientific stations in Antarctic regions. One is located on lonely MacQuarrie Island, midway between Australia and Antarctica, while the other, on snow-swept Heard Island, lies far to the south of the Indian ocean. Neither is permanent, however. Casey declared that Antarctica is rich in valuable minerals. Huge deposits of coal were known to exist in the territory claimed by Australia, and the region was geologically similar to sections of southern Australia where uranium has been found. Casey also noted that weather forecasting for southern Australia would be improved by collection of meteorological data from the Antarctic and added that the world's increasing food deficit might soon focus attention in the food resources of the Antarctic seas.

Three Months For Neglecting Children

SAULTE STE. MARIE, Ont., (AP) — Francis Reid, 34 and his wife, Christine, 33, were sentenced Friday to three months in reformatory on charges of neglecting their children. The 3-year-old couple left their eight children alone in a two-room cabin with practically no fuel or food while they came down to the Sault last Thursday. They did not return to their home, 31 miles north of here, until Saturday.

Deaf, Dumb Ass'n Plans Crackdown On Moochers

TORONTO, (CP) — The Canadian Association of the Deaf, Inc., said Friday a peddling racket involving some deaf mutes and some persons posing as deaf and dumb has sprung up again across Canada. The association is taking steps to stamp it out. The racket was checked in Western Canada several years ago. This week it has been reported in Toronto and elsewhere. Announcement of the drive against the peddlers came from David Peikoff of Toronto, president of the Ontario association of the deaf and secretary of the national organization. "These moochers trade on public sympathy by handing out printed cards saying they are deaf and cannot find employment, or else they peddle cheap merchandise," he said. "They can make up to $150 a week this way and it is believed there may be a gang behind the racket." The association plans to seek the help of the R.C.M.P., mayors, municipalities and restaurant associations, he said. Mr. Peikoff said five peddlers arrested in the U. S. were found to have $700 in 25-cent pieces. He said a teen-aged girl peddling adhesive bandages in a Toronto restaurant this week obtained at least $3 in about 15 minutes. The association takes an especially serious view of the situation when young deaf persons are involved, said Mr. Peikoff. His organization gives young deaf persons every possible opportunity for training and helps them find jobs.

Freed From His Duties As Sec'y-General

MOSCOW, (AP) — Moscow radio announced Friday that the central committee of the Communist party of the Soviet Union has freed Prime Minister Georgi Malenkov at his own request from duties as secretary of the central committee. The committee in plenary session simultaneously elected a five-man secretariat headed by 68-year-old Nikita S. Khrushchev. The other four members of the secretariat listed in order were identified as Mikhail Suslov, Peter Pospelov, Nikolai Shatalin and Semyon Ignatiev. Khrushchev was identified in Western circles as a fast-rising politician from the Ukraine. Moscow radio reported that the committee met in plenary session March 14 to accede to the request of the chairman of the U.S.S.R. council of ministers prime minister, G. M. Malenkov for his release from duties as secretary of the central committee of the Communist party of the Soviet Union. Khrushchev's name was mentioned next, indicating that he would be head man of the secretariat. He already is a member of the ruling presidium of the Supreme Soviet.

U. S. VIEW

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP News Analyst
Prime Minister Georgi Malenkov appears to have taken a step to buttress his power as new leader of the Soviet Union. If this interpretation proves correct, a new party clean-up is either on the way or already in progress. A plenary meeting of the Communist party central committee a week ago has placed in control of the party five men not directly connected with the government through the council of ministers and its inner cabinet. The five new secretaries of the party are career men largely of the Malenkov school. At their head is 58-year-old Nikita Khrushchev, former party boss of the Soviet Ukraine, who was political commissar of the Red Army of the south when Malenkov was at Stalin's side to hold the party ranks intact before wartime German blows.

Russia Offers To Aid Release Of British Group

LONDON, (Reuters) — Russia has offered to use her influence with the Communist government of North Korea to release nine British civilians and an Irish missionary captured when South Korea was overrun in 1950, the British foreign office said today. The decision, "in accordance with personal instructions from Vyacheslav Molotov," Russia's new foreign minister, replied to the latest of many British requests to Russia to have the nine released. The nine Britons include Vyvyan Holt, former British minister to South Korea, two members of the British legation staff at Seoul, and the Anglican bishop of Korea. The others are two priests, a nun, a writer and a Salvation Army worker.

Mossadegh Turns Down Latest Settlement Plan

TEHRAN, Iran, (AP) — Premier Mohammed Mossadegh, in a broadcast recorded from his bed, Friday rejected the latest British offer for a settlement of the Iranian oil dispute. In a triumphant vein, he declared Iran will win a "national victory" if she continues on her course. But he left the way open to further negotiations, and expressed hope that Britain would make possible the restoration of diplomatic relations by adjusting her policy to the rising nationalism of many nations of the world today. Iran ejected British diplomats last October. United States ambassador Loy Henderson presented Britain's latest proposals Feb. 20. The United States government had endorsed them as "reasonable and fair."
