

THE WESTERN GUARDIAN

PRINCE COUNTY OFFICE
3 Summer Street, Summerside. Phone 5051.
News, Subscriptions, Advertising Representatives
GEORGE CLOW and GEORGE WOTTON
House Phones: 5053 and 5055.

—BUY supplies for building, repairing, painting, etc. at Brace's.
—CARD PARTY Spring Valley Hall, Thursday, April 3rd.
—BEDQUE RINK tonight, Freetown Grads vs. Bradalbane Royals. Admission 25 cents to all.

—COMPETENT Complete Insurance Service. W. Boyd Bealrsto, Kensington.
—HAIRDRESSING BY APPOINTMENT. —sh., fw., 113 Milton, Summerside. Phone 2375.
—BINGO —Canadian Legion Home. Every Thursday at 8 p.m. usual good prizes. Proceeds charitable. Coffee and doughnuts will be served by the Ladies Auxiliary.

—FIRST GAME for Hon. C. C. Baker Trophy will be played in Bedque Rink Thursday, April 3. Freetown Royals, winners of South Shore League, vs. Kensington, winners of North Shore League. Admission 50 and 25 cents.

—EMERGENCY OPERATION —Mr. Vance Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allison D. Harris, Summerside, was rushed to the Prince County Hospital yesterday afternoon where an emergency appendectomy was performed. His condition was reported last night as fair.

—W. A. MEETING.—The March business meeting of the W. A. of the Summerside Trinity Church was held in Epworth Hall on Thursday evening with the vice-president, Mrs. Harold Lyle, in the chair. The opening hymn was followed by a meditation by Mrs. Ralph Boates and prayer by Mrs. Seaman Bell. After routine business plans were made to hold a rummage sale in April. A social hour followed with refreshments were served by Group "C" with Mrs. James Peach, Convenor.—S.

—CARD PARTY —Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Doughart entertained at their home at Long River on Friday evening, March 21st, at a card party, one of a series being held under the auspices of the W. I. Eight tables of auction were in play, and prize winners for highest scores for the evening were Mrs. Eustace Paynter for the ladies, and Mr. Eustace Paynter for the gentlemen. Miss Mae Pound and Mr. George Paynter received consolation awards.—Bur.

—MAKES GOOSE DECOYS —In anticipation of an excellent goose hunting season this fall, Mr. Marshall Rayner, of Greenmount spent the winter months building wild goose decoys and has 28 life size models all ready for painting. Carved from cedar and each mounted on a small board about six inches square, they are for use in the grain fields and are an excellent piece of work and attracted much interest in Alberton where one was on display at the post office. Mr. Rayner is known as a better than average hunter who usually bags his fair share of game of all kinds and with this fine collection of decoys added to his hunting equipment can look forward to a good season.—FW.

—Friends of Mr. Lloyd Hefzell, Borden, are glad to see him out again after his recent illness.

WEST CAPE OFFICIAL BOARD
—Representatives of the West Cape pastoral charge of the United Church met on Monday afternoon, March 24th, at the Parsonage in Springfield West, seven miles from O'Leary.

—The Official Board was composed of delegates from Bethel, Cape Wolfe and Greenwood. The Lay Minister, Mr. Heber H. Hardy, presided and the minutes were read by the Recording Steward, Cecil Gorrill, of Greenwood. Despite virtually impassable roads, which necessitated driving in second gear, the Interim Chairman of the charge, Rev. W. G. Dickson was present from O'Leary.

—Preliminary plans were made to call an ordained minister. The salary was increased and the fine services of Mr. Hardy were highly prized. Plans were discussed for the financial campaigns of the Training School for Women and Men and Mount Allison University. Mr. Allison Proffitt, Freetown, will be asked to address the charge in the interests of Mount Allison.

—After the benediction was pronounced, delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Hardy.—AZ.

—Miss Audrey Campbell of the Prince County Hospital staff spent the week-end of March 22nd with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Campbell of Carleton.

—Mr. John Quigley and Mr. Austin Campbell of Carleton motored to Amherst, N.S. on business on Wednesday, March 26th.

—Friends of Mrs. Edgar Hardy of Cape Traverse will regret to learn she is a patient in the P. E. I. Hospital in Charlottetown.

—Messrs Ray Howatt, Stanley Howatt, and Lloyd Inman, motored to Sydney and St. Peters, Cape Breton, on Sunday, March 23rd, on business, returning to their homes here on Tuesday, March 25th.

—A very enjoyable social evening was held on March 24th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harvey of Carleton in honour of their son, Henderson, of the R.C.N.-V.R., who is at present on leave. Henderson was presented with a leather travelling case and a sum of money.

—R.

—ATTENTION HORSEMEN —There will be a meeting of all horsemen Wednesday night at 8 o'clock above Andy's Sea Foods.

—IN HOSPITAL —Mr. Richard Sawlor of Smallmans Ltd., is a patient in the Prince County Hospital pending an operation. His mother, Mrs. Earl Sawlor, is at present visiting in Summerside. The guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Carruthers.

—RED CROSS RETURNS —Mr. Charles Linkletter, town chairman of the Red Cross financial drive in Summerside, said last night that returns to date tabulated amounted to over $3,000.00. Due to various reasons some canvassers have not yet completed their calls and it will be known in a day or two just what the final total will amount to.

—BIRTHDAY PARTY. —Mrs. Loran Spencer, Summerside, entertained at her home on Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Dolores, the occasion being the seventh anniversary of her birth, when twelve little girls were guests. A program of songs and recitations was followed by games, which were greatly enjoyed, until the supper hour when the candle-light birthday cake was the centre of attraction.—S.

—ATTEND W. I. COURSE —Among those attending the Women's Institute Course at the Vocational School at Charlottetown on March 27th and 28th, were Mrs. Harold Laird, Kelvin Grove, Provincial President, Mrs. Edward Laughlin, publicist, convenor, and Mrs. Charles Yeo, Sherbrooke; Mrs. Wallace Adams, Darnley; Mrs. E. Proffitt, Irishtown; Mrs. Reginald Haslam, Springfield; Mrs. F. W. Cutcliffe and Mrs. Hyatt Haslam, Fredericton; Mrs. J. E. Fleming and Mrs. Fyfe, S'antley Bridge.—Bur.

—SAYS INFLATION

Continued from page 1

control, but with one reservation," Mr. Howe said. "Organized labor can upset the apperart. There are one or two disturbing situations outside of Canada which may spread into Canada."

He was particularly concerned with the demands of United States steel workers for higher wages. This was the type of demand which could lead to another price jump.

Carleton and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cherverie and daughter of Cape Traverse motored to Charlottetown on Thursday, March 27th.

Mr. Major Inman of Summerside is busily engaged this week installing a bathroom in the home of Mr. Calvin Howatt of Carleton.

Mr. Stanley Linkletter of Summerside was a business visitor in Carleton on Tuesday, March 25th.

—Miss Audrey Campbell of the Prince County Hospital staff spent the week-end of March 22nd with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Campbell of Carleton.

—Mr. John Quigley and Mr. Austin Campbell of Carleton motored to Amherst, N.S. on business on Wednesday, March 26th.

—Friends of Mrs. Edgar Hardy of Cape Traverse will regret to learn she is a patient in the P. E. I. Hospital in Charlottetown.

—Messrs Ray Howatt, Stanley Howatt, and Lloyd Inman, motored to Sydney and St. Peters, Cape Breton, on Sunday, March 23rd, on business, returning to their homes here on Tuesday, March 25th.

—A very enjoyable social evening was held on March 24th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harvey of Carleton in honour of their son, Henderson, of the R.C.N.-V.R., who is at present on leave. Henderson was presented with a leather travelling case and a sum of money.

—R.

—HOME AND SCHOOL MEETING in Kensington School, Thursday, April 3rd, at 8 P. M. Interesting films will be shown.

—BUY Soya Bean Meal, oilcake meal, seapure fishmeal and Purina chow for all livestock and poultry, at Brace's.

—ATTENTION HORSEMEN —There will be a meeting of all horsemen Wednesday night at 8 o'clock above Andy's Sea Foods.

—IN HOSPITAL —Mr. Richard Sawlor of Smallmans Ltd., is a patient in the Prince County Hospital pending an operation. His mother, Mrs. Earl Sawlor, is at present visiting in Summerside. The guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Carruthers.

—RED CROSS RETURNS —Mr. Charles Linkletter, town chairman of the Red Cross financial drive in Summerside, said last night that returns to date tabulated amounted to over $3,000.00. Due to various reasons some canvassers have not yet completed their calls and it will be known in a day or two just what the final total will amount to.

—BIRTHDAY PARTY. —Mrs. Loran Spencer, Summerside, entertained at her home on Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Dolores, the occasion being the seventh anniversary of her birth, when twelve little girls were guests. A program of songs and recitations was followed by games, which were greatly enjoyed, until the supper hour when the candle-light birthday cake was the centre of attraction.—S.

—ATTEND W. I. COURSE —Among those attending the Women's Institute Course at the Vocational School at Charlottetown on March 27th and 28th, were Mrs. Harold Laird, Kelvin Grove, Provincial President, Mrs. Edward Laughlin, publicist, convenor, and Mrs. Charles Yeo, Sherbrooke; Mrs. Wallace Adams, Darnley; Mrs. E. Proffitt, Irishtown; Mrs. Reginald Haslam, Springfield; Mrs. F. W. Cutcliffe and Mrs. Hyatt Haslam, Fredericton; Mrs. J. E. Fleming and Mrs. Fyfe, S'antley Bridge.—Bur.

—SAYS INFLATION

Continued from page 1

control, but with one reservation," Mr. Howe said. "Organized labor can upset the apperart. There are one or two disturbing situations outside of Canada which may spread into Canada."

He was particularly concerned with the demands of United States steel workers for higher wages. This was the type of demand which could lead to another price jump.

Carleton and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cherverie and daughter of Cape Traverse motored to Charlottetown on Thursday, March 27th.

Mr. Major Inman of Summerside is busily engaged this week installing a bathroom in the home of Mr. Calvin Howatt of Carleton.

Mr. Stanley Linkletter of Summerside was a business visitor in Carleton on Tuesday, March 25th.

—Miss Audrey Campbell of the Prince County Hospital staff spent the week-end of March 22nd with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Campbell of Carleton.

—Mr. John Quigley and Mr. Austin Campbell of Carleton motored to Amherst, N.S. on business on Wednesday, March 26th.

—Friends of Mrs. Edgar Hardy of Cape Traverse will regret to learn she is a patient in the P. E. I. Hospital in Charlottetown.

—Messrs Ray Howatt, Stanley Howatt, and Lloyd Inman, motored to Sydney and St. Peters, Cape Breton, on Sunday, March 23rd, on business, returning to their homes here on Tuesday, March 25th.

—A very enjoyable social evening was held on March 24th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harvey of Carleton in honour of their son, Henderson, of the R.C.N.-V.R., who is at present on leave. Henderson was presented with a leather travelling case and a sum of money.

—R.

—HOME AND SCHOOL MEETING in Kensington School, Thursday, April 3rd, at 8 P. M. Interesting films will be shown.

—BUY Soya Bean Meal, oilcake meal, seapure fishmeal and Purina chow for all livestock and poultry, at Brace's.

—ATTENTION HORSEMEN —There will be a meeting of all horsemen Wednesday night at 8 o'clock above Andy's Sea Foods.

—IN HOSPITAL —Mr. Richard Sawlor of Smallmans Ltd., is a patient in the Prince County Hospital pending an operation. His mother, Mrs. Earl Sawlor, is at present visiting in Summerside. The guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Carruthers.

—RED CROSS RETURNS —Mr. Charles Linkletter, town chairman of the Red Cross financial drive in Summerside, said last night that returns to date tabulated amounted to over $3,000.00. Due to various reasons some canvassers have not yet completed their calls and it will be known in a day or two just what the final total will amount to.

—BIRTHDAY PARTY. —Mrs. Loran Spencer, Summerside, entertained at her home on Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Dolores, the occasion being the seventh anniversary of her birth, when twelve little girls were guests. A program of songs and recitations was followed by games, which were greatly enjoyed, until the supper hour when the candle-light birthday cake was the centre of attraction.—S.

—ATTEND W. I. COURSE —Among those attending the Women's Institute Course at the Vocational School at Charlottetown on March 27th and 28th, were Mrs. Harold Laird, Kelvin Grove, Provincial President, Mrs. Edward Laughlin, publicist, convenor, and Mrs. Charles Yeo, Sherbrooke; Mrs. Wallace Adams, Darnley; Mrs. E. Proffitt, Irishtown; Mrs. Reginald Haslam, Springfield; Mrs. F. W. Cutcliffe and Mrs. Hyatt Haslam, Fredericton; Mrs. J. E. Fleming and Mrs. Fyfe, S'antley Bridge.—Bur.

—SAYS INFLATION

Continued from page 1

control, but with one reservation," Mr. Howe said. "Organized labor can upset the apperart. There are one or two disturbing situations outside of Canada which may spread into Canada."

He was particularly concerned with the demands of United States steel workers for higher wages. This was the type of demand which could lead to another price jump.

Carleton and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cherverie and daughter of Cape Traverse motored to Charlottetown on Thursday, March 27th.

Mr. Major Inman of Summerside is busily engaged this week installing a bathroom in the home of Mr. Calvin Howatt of Carleton.

Mr. Stanley Linkletter of Summerside was a business visitor in Carleton on Tuesday, March 25th.

—Miss Audrey Campbell of the Prince County Hospital staff spent the week-end of March 22nd with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Campbell of Carleton.

—Mr. John Quigley and Mr. Austin Campbell of Carleton motored to Amherst, N.S. on business on Wednesday, March 26th.

—Friends of Mrs. Edgar Hardy of Cape Traverse will regret to learn she is a patient in the P. E. I. Hospital in Charlottetown.

—Messrs Ray Howatt, Stanley Howatt, and Lloyd Inman, motored to Sydney and St. Peters, Cape Breton, on Sunday, March 23rd, on business, returning to their homes here on Tuesday, March 25th.

—A very enjoyable social evening was held on March 24th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harvey of Carleton in honour of their son, Henderson, of the R.C.N.-V.R., who is at present on leave. Henderson was presented with a leather travelling case and a sum of money.

—R.

—HOME AND SCHOOL MEETING in Kensington School, Thursday, April 3rd, at 8 P. M. Interesting films will be shown.

—BUY Soya Bean Meal, oilcake meal, seapure fishmeal and Purina chow for all livestock and poultry, at Brace's.

—ATTENTION HORSEMEN —There will be a meeting of all horsemen Wednesday night at 8 o'clock above Andy's Sea Foods.

—IN HOSPITAL —Mr. Richard Sawlor of Smallmans Ltd., is a patient in the Prince County Hospital pending an operation. His mother, Mrs. Earl Sawlor, is at present visiting in Summerside. The guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Carruthers.

—RED CROSS RETURNS —Mr. Charles Linkletter, town chairman of the Red Cross financial drive in Summerside, said last night that returns to date tabulated amounted to over $3,000.00. Due to various reasons some canvassers have not yet completed their calls and it will be known in a day or two just what the final total will amount to.

—BIRTHDAY PARTY. —Mrs. Loran Spencer, Summerside, entertained at her home on Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Dolores, the occasion being the seventh anniversary of her birth, when twelve little girls were guests. A program of songs and recitations was followed by games, which were greatly enjoyed, until the supper hour when the candle-light birthday cake was the centre of attraction.—S.

—ATTEND W. I. COURSE —Among those attending the Women's Institute Course at the Vocational School at Charlottetown on March 27th and 28th, were Mrs. Harold Laird, Kelvin Grove, Provincial President, Mrs. Edward Laughlin, publicist, convenor, and Mrs. Charles Yeo, Sherbrooke; Mrs. Wallace Adams, Darnley; Mrs. E. Proffitt, Irishtown; Mrs. Reginald Haslam, Springfield; Mrs. F. W. Cutcliffe and Mrs. Hyatt Haslam, Fredericton; Mrs. J. E. Fleming and Mrs. Fyfe, S'antley Bridge.—Bur.

—SAYS INFLATION

Continued from page 1

control, but with one reservation," Mr. Howe said. "Organized labor can upset the apperart. There are one or two disturbing situations outside of Canada which may spread into Canada."

He was particularly concerned with the demands of United States steel workers for higher wages. This was the type of demand which could lead to another price jump.

Carleton and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cherverie and daughter of Cape Traverse motored to Charlottetown on Thursday, March 27th.

Mr. Major Inman of Summerside is busily engaged this week installing a bathroom in the home of Mr. Calvin Howatt of Carleton.

Mr. Stanley Linkletter of Summerside was a business visitor in Carleton on Tuesday, March 25th.

—Miss Audrey Campbell of the Prince County Hospital staff spent the week-end of March 22nd with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Campbell of Carleton.

—Mr. John Quigley and Mr. Austin Campbell of Carleton motored to Amherst, N.S. on business on Wednesday, March 26th.

—Friends of Mrs. Edgar Hardy of Cape Traverse will regret to learn she is a patient in the P. E. I. Hospital in Charlottetown.

—Messrs Ray Howatt, Stanley Howatt, and Lloyd Inman, motored to Sydney and St. Peters, Cape Breton, on Sunday, March 23rd, on business, returning to their homes here on Tuesday, March 25th.

—A very enjoyable social evening was held on March 24th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harvey of Carleton in honour of their son, Henderson, of the R.C.N.-V.R., who is at present on leave. Henderson was presented with a leather travelling case and a sum of money.

—R.

—HOME AND SCHOOL MEETING in Kensington School, Thursday, April 3rd, at 8 P. M. Interesting films will be shown.

—BUY Soya Bean Meal, oilcake meal, seapure fishmeal and Purina chow for all livestock and poultry, at Brace's.

—ATTENTION HORSEMEN —There will be a meeting of all horsemen Wednesday night at 8 o'clock above Andy's Sea Foods.

—IN HOSPITAL —Mr. Richard Sawlor of Smallmans Ltd., is a patient in the Prince County Hospital pending an operation. His mother, Mrs. Earl Sawlor, is at present visiting in Summerside. The guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Carruthers.

—RED CROSS RETURNS —Mr. Charles Linkletter, town chairman of the Red Cross financial drive in Summerside, said last night that returns to date tabulated amounted to over $3,000.00. Due to various reasons some canvassers have not yet completed their calls and it will be known in a day or two just what the final total will amount to.

—BIRTHDAY PARTY. —Mrs. Loran Spencer, Summerside, entertained at her home on Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Dolores, the occasion being the seventh anniversary of her birth, when twelve little girls were guests. A program of songs and recitations was followed by games, which were greatly enjoyed, until the supper hour when the candle-light birthday cake was the centre of attraction.—S.

—ATTEND W. I. COURSE —Among those attending the Women's Institute Course at the Vocational School at Charlottetown on March 27th and 28th, were Mrs. Harold Laird, Kelvin Grove, Provincial President, Mrs. Edward Laughlin, publicist, convenor, and Mrs. Charles Yeo, Sherbrooke; Mrs. Wallace Adams, Darnley; Mrs. E. Proffitt, Irishtown; Mrs. Reginald Haslam, Springfield; Mrs. F. W. Cutcliffe and Mrs. Hyatt Haslam, Fredericton; Mrs. J. E. Fleming and Mrs. Fyfe, S'antley Bridge.—Bur.

—SAYS INFLATION

Continued from page 1

control, but with one reservation," Mr. Howe said. "Organized labor can upset the apperart. There are one or two disturbing situations outside of Canada which may spread into Canada."

He was particularly concerned with the demands of United States steel workers for higher wages. This was the type of demand which could lead to another price jump.

Carleton and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cherverie and daughter of Cape Traverse motored to Charlottetown on Thursday, March 27th.

Mr. Major Inman of Summerside is busily engaged this week installing a bathroom in the home of Mr. Calvin Howatt of Carleton.

Mr. Stanley Linkletter of Summerside was a business visitor in Carleton on Tuesday, March 25th.

—Miss Audrey Campbell of the Prince County Hospital staff spent the week-end of March 22nd with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Campbell of Carleton.

—Mr. John Quigley and Mr. Austin Campbell of Carleton motored to Amherst, N.S. on business on Wednesday, March 26th.

—Friends of Mrs. Edgar Hardy of Cape Traverse will regret to learn she is a patient in the P. E. I. Hospital in Charlottetown.

—Messrs Ray Howatt, Stanley Howatt, and Lloyd Inman, motored to Sydney and St. Peters, Cape Breton, on Sunday, March 23rd, on business, returning to their homes here on Tuesday, March 25th.

—A very enjoyable social evening was held on March 24th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harvey of Carleton in honour of their son, Henderson, of the R.C.N.-V.R., who is at present on leave. Henderson was presented with a leather travelling case and a sum of money.

—R.

—HOME AND SCHOOL MEETING in Kensington School, Thursday, April 3rd, at 8 P. M. Interesting films will be shown.

—BUY Soya Bean Meal, oilcake meal, seapure fishmeal and Purina chow for all livestock and poultry, at Brace's.

—ATTENTION HORSEMEN —There will be a meeting of all horsemen Wednesday night at 8 o'clock above Andy's Sea Foods.

—IN HOSPITAL —Mr. Richard Sawlor of Smallmans Ltd., is a patient in the Prince County Hospital pending an operation. His mother, Mrs. Earl Sawlor, is at present visiting in Summerside. The guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Carruthers.

—RED CROSS RETURNS —Mr. Charles Linkletter, town chairman of the Red Cross financial drive in Summerside, said last night that returns to date tabulated amounted to over $3,000.00. Due to various reasons some canvassers have not yet completed their calls and it will be known in a day or two just what the final total will amount to.

—BIRTHDAY PARTY. —Mrs. Loran Spencer, Summerside, entertained at her home on Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Dolores, the occasion being the seventh anniversary of her birth, when twelve little girls were guests. A program of songs and recitations was followed by games, which were greatly enjoyed, until the supper hour when the candle-light birthday cake was the centre of attraction.—S.

—ATTEND W. I. COURSE —Among those attending the Women's Institute Course at the Vocational School at Charlottetown on March 27th and 28th, were Mrs. Harold Laird, Kelvin Grove, Provincial President, Mrs. Edward Laughlin, publicist, convenor, and Mrs. Charles Yeo, Sherbrooke; Mrs. Wallace Adams, Darnley; Mrs. E. Proffitt, Irishtown; Mrs. Reginald Haslam, Springfield; Mrs. F. W. Cutcliffe and Mrs. Hyatt Haslam, Fredericton; Mrs. J. E. Fleming and Mrs. Fyfe, S'antley Bridge.—Bur.

—SAYS INFLATION

Continued from page 1

control, but with one reservation," Mr. Howe said. "Organized labor can upset the apperart. There are one or two disturbing situations outside of Canada which may spread into Canada."

He was particularly concerned with the demands of United States steel workers for higher wages. This was the type of demand which could lead to another price jump.

Carleton and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cherverie and daughter of Cape Traverse motored to Charlottetown on Thursday, March 27th.

Mr. Major Inman of Summerside is busily engaged this week installing a bathroom in the home of Mr. Calvin Howatt of Carleton.

Mr. Stanley Linkletter of Summerside was a business visitor in Carleton on Tuesday, March 25th.

—Miss Audrey Campbell of the Prince County Hospital staff spent the week-end of March 22nd with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Campbell of Carleton.

—Mr. John Quigley and Mr. Austin Campbell of Carleton motored to Amherst, N.S. on business on Wednesday, March 26th.

—Friends of Mrs. Edgar Hardy of Cape Traverse will regret to learn she is a patient in the P. E. I. Hospital in Charlottetown.

—Messrs Ray Howatt, Stanley Howatt, and Lloyd Inman, motored to Sydney and St. Peters, Cape Breton, on Sunday, March 23rd, on business, returning to their homes here on Tuesday, March 25th.

—A very enjoyable social evening was held on March 24th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harvey of Carleton in honour of their son, Henderson, of the R.C.N.-V.R., who is at present on leave. Henderson was presented with a leather travelling case and a sum of money.

—R.

—HOME AND SCHOOL MEETING in Kensington School, Thursday, April 3rd, at 8 P. M. Interesting films will be shown.

—BUY Soya Bean Meal, oilcake meal, seapure fishmeal and Purina chow for all livestock and poultry, at Brace's.

—ATTENTION HORSEMEN —There will be a meeting of all horsemen Wednesday night at 8 o'clock above Andy's Sea Foods.

—IN HOSPITAL —Mr. Richard Sawlor of Smallmans Ltd., is a patient in the Prince County Hospital pending an operation. His mother, Mrs. Earl Sawlor, is at present visiting in Summerside. The guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Carruthers.

—RED CROSS RETURNS —Mr. Charles Linkletter, town chairman of the Red Cross financial drive in Summerside, said last night that returns to date tabulated amounted to over $3,000.00. Due to various reasons some canvassers have not yet completed their calls and it will be known in a day or two just what the final total will amount to.

—BIRTHDAY PARTY. —Mrs. Loran Spencer, Summerside, entertained at her home on Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Dolores, the occasion being the seventh anniversary of her birth, when twelve little girls were guests. A program of songs and recitations was followed by games, which were greatly enjoyed, until the supper hour when the candle-light birthday cake was the centre of attraction.—S.

—ATTEND W. I. COURSE —Among those attending the Women's Institute Course at the Vocational School at Charlottetown on March 27th and 28th, were Mrs. Harold Laird, Kelvin Grove, Provincial President, Mrs. Edward Laughlin, publicist, convenor, and Mrs. Charles Yeo, Sherbrooke; Mrs. Wallace Adams, Darnley; Mrs. E. Proffitt, Irishtown; Mrs. Reginald Haslam, Springfield; Mrs. F. W. Cutcliffe and Mrs. Hyatt Haslam, Fredericton; Mrs. J. E. Fleming and Mrs. Fyfe, S'antley Bridge.—Bur.

—SAYS INFLATION

Continued from page 1

control, but with one reservation," Mr. Howe said. "Organized labor can upset the apperart. There are one or two disturbing situations outside of Canada which may spread into Canada."

He was particularly concerned with the demands of United States steel workers for higher wages. This was the type of demand which could lead to another price jump.

Carleton and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cherverie and daughter of Cape Traverse motored to Charlottetown on Thursday, March 27th.

Mr. Major Inman of Summerside is busily engaged this week installing a bathroom in the home of Mr. Calvin Howatt of Carleton.

Mr. Stanley Link