KIDNEY PAD.
Indubitable Evidence,
(Condensed)
From Doctors, Druggists, Merchants Farmers.

Some of the additional home testimony received since publication of last pamphlet.
GIVING ENTIRE SATISFACTION.
Picton, April 20.
Gentlemen,—I find that your Pads are giving entire satisfaction, and wish you increased sales for so valuable a remedy for disease of the kidneys
J. B. MOULDEN, M. D.

OF SERVICE TO PATIENTS.
Lime Lake, April 23.
Gentlemen,—Your Pad has been of great service to some of my patients already.
JNO. MAXWELL, M. D.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE CONQUERED.
Enterprise, April 13.
Gentlemen,—Five years ago I felt with a bag of grain, which caused weakness in my back, and also brought on an attack of Bright's disease, and which caused me to lose considerable in weight. After wearing your Pad for six weeks, I gained 13 pounds. All pain and weakness has left me. I would have been yet in the doctor's hands, had it not been for my using your Kidney Pad.
Signed, W. FENWICK, Miller.

THE ONLY PERMANENT CURE.
Tamworth, April 13.
Gentlemen,—I was troubled with painful back, and could not retain my urinary secretion, from painful inflammation of the bladder. I have been treated by a dozen physicians to no purpose, but have worn your Special Pad six weeks. The pain, swelling and inflammation are gone and I am well.
Your Pad is the only cure for kidney diseases.
J. A. FRASER, Manf. of Wooden Wares.

ALL PRAISE THEM HIGHLY.
Tamworth, April 13.
Gentlemen,—An accident 12 years ago wrenched my back. I could hardly walk, and never lifted anything. The Pad purchased from Mr. Jas. Ayleworth has nearly made me as strong as I ever was. I know of several being used, and all praise them highly.
JAS. SUMMERS,
Enterprise, April 13.
Gentlemen,—Your Pad is helping me wonderfully. My complaint is inflammation of the kidneys.

Prof. Friese's Concert.
A goodly audience attended the Concert given by Prof. Friese, assisted by his pupils, in Y. M. C. A. Hall. The programme was well arranged, and, though longer than usual, was carried out in splendid style.
The choruses were admirable in selection and rendition. They showed that the professor and his pupils had given marked attention to the sentiment as well as the melody of their selections. The vocal solos were generally well rendered and received. "Tell me my Heart," was sung by Mrs. Strickland with much feeling, and in splendid voice, while the solo of "Husch!
Husch!" by Miss McLeod, was cheerful and beautiful in every particular. We have much pleasure in welcoming Miss Annie Findley to the vocal arena. She exhibited good talent, and a pleasing voice in singing "Rose of Haeclean." Mrs. W.
W. Longworth was fortunate in selecting "Who can Tell." She sang it exquisitely, and gave her hearers the full benefit of the beautiful sentiments contained in her song.
"Oh, Fair Dove! Oh, Fond Dove!" was sung by Miss Barr in excellent style. Miss Barr has a good voice, and she displayed much power in rendering her solos. The most difficult solo on the programme was the "Favorite" by Donizetti. It was well sung by Miss K. Hensley and was well received by the audience. Miss Wright, on first appearance, created a good impression by singing "L'Audite" by Verdi. Messrs.
Ings and Scott's solos were fairly well rendered. Both these young gentlemen have excellent voices, and will, ere long, rank among our best basses. The Instrumental solos were capital. Miss Butt who appeared for the first time before a Charlottetown audience played "Theme from Martha" in true artistic style, and proved herself to be a most skilful pianist.
We hope to hear her on future occasions.
Miss Hensley as usual delighted the audience with a selection from Mendelssohn, while the violin and cornet solos of Messrs.
Vinnicombe and Fletcher respectively, were well played and heartily applauded. A Duet, "Earth Gleams with Beauty" was sung by Mrs. George McLeod and Mrs. W. Longworth with splendid taste and in good time, and another duet—"Hark! the Goat Bells Ringing"—by Miss Ings and Miss Hensley, was very well rendered indeed. Altogether the concert was quite successful and pleasing to those who attended. Professor Friese deserves credit for his efforts in bringing out the musical talent of our city.
His concert on Wednesday evening shows that, with a little training, Charlottetown will soon possess a number of vocalists of whom it may be proud.

Summerside Notes.
The weather is beautiful. The winter highway still holds good. The sun dances on the ice, and even Dutchmen rejoice. It "whas goot," they say.
By the way, it is really high time that the Railway Station here be shifted some where or other from its present position.
Where it is now, makes it a hot-bed of accidents.
Father Dan gave his lecture here recently on Irish Sobriety. Ludlow hall contained the elite of Summerside on the occasion.
There is a halo of blessing around the good old priest. He is loved. His silver locks are a crown of glory.
If somebody with brains and capital, and a few "printer's devils" would come here, a good Liberal Conservative newspaper could be made pay. We are at the mercy of misrepresentatives just now, and a double dose of it at that.
There is some talk of an asylum being erected in Summerside. Falconwood is too far away, for the folks who have gone mad over a recent election.
The temperance question is the all absorbing topic of the day. Men recognize the blasting evil of intemperance. Just how to deal with it, seems to be a puzzle. The Scott Act is a failure for lack of public sympathy. Some of the most respectable members of the community are engaged—so says rumor—in the liquor traffic, and so long as the vast majority of the people patronize them, just so long will the advocates of the Scott Act meet with disappointment and defeat. Few pity them. The people are not necessarily intemperate. The Act has a touch of coercion about it, which people cannot swallow, in fact some of the very best people on the Island look upon it as an insult, in gentle terms. As a whole, the Island is praiseworthy remarkable for sobriety, and many can be found, honest staunch old teetotalers, who prefer to win the intemperate by the hand of love, rather than the arm of force. In matters of this sort human nature very often refuses to be driven however easily it may be led.
Better to reclaim the drunkard by love, than by law. The whole affair is ar-open and a vexed question, about which men differ, and I suppose will differ for all time.
We are greatly exercised about the proposed Cape Traverse Railway, and public opinion advocates the County Line route.
The swing of the mawl, the thud of the axe, and the music of the saw, is heard all around. Half a dozen vessels will be launched here this year. One feels inclined to praise the National Policy for the hum, but the Grits would get mad.
Our popular Stipendiary has his hands full of Scott Act. In recent prosecutions the Act scored a victory, and sustained a defeat, and yet the Court House stands in the same old spot.
Business is beginning to be lively all round, oats and potatoes are coming in.
There is a hum in mud. We ought to have an inspector of sidewalks here, some of the planks have left the horizontal, and knock people off their perpendicular. There will be a marriage here shortly—if reports be true—between the Summerside Journal and the Texas Siftings. May they be happy.
—Com.
April 11th 1883.

Entertainment
PROGRAMME.
The Musical and Literary Entertainment held on the 3d inst., in honor of the Twentieth Anniversary of New Glasgow Division, was quite a success, financially and otherwise. It is estimated that there were about three hundred persons present, and as one of the speakers truthfully observed, "a finer looking audience, it would be difficult to find." Stirring addresses were made by Messrs. W. Laird, G. Smith, H. H. Folland and others. The singing by the choir, under the able leadership of Mr. A. B. Dickieson, was remarkably good, and contributed much to the success of the entertainment. All who took part in the following well-selected dialogues, recitations, etc., did well, reflecting much credit on themselves, and displaying a degree of dramatic talent that would be no discredit to professionals:
ARTHUR IRVING.

Cape Traverse Notes.
The Opposition are in great grief about the one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars the Island is to receive from the General Government, and the expense of the wharves in future. They were in ecstasies of joy (until of late) that the Government would have to return to that old monster the "Assessment Act" with a two-fold vengeance. It is gratifying to a Grit even to smart under the lash, when he knows his neighbor Tory is getting it with equal severity.

The Straits here are clear of ice, excepting some loose soft ice that does not amount to anything. A steamer could have been crossing here regularly since the 9th of March, and the country is suffering fearfully in consequence of this route not being effectually opened up. Our potatoes, oats, fat cattle, horses and everything we have to dispose of, might have been having the advantage of the best markets for the last month. Cape Traverse to-day is the only open harbor on the Island. Souris, perhaps, excepted.

Mr. Alexander Strang has his schooner loaded with potatoes for some time, but fears to send her out, hearing of large bodies of ice down the Straits.
Mr. Shaffer has a number of hands at work about his lobster factory. He expects to do a large business this summer. We wish him every success.

I don't recollect of the crossing ever having stopped so early as it has this spring.
The Straits so comparatively clear of ice is owing to the continuous N. W. winds all winter, which was driving the ice out to sea as fast as it was making. We had the ice unusually light the greater part of the crossing season; strange to say—and the frost so intense.
Mr. Penman Allan of Cape Tormentine, has bought Mr. Cornelius Campbell's Abdallah Stud, and is paying a fine price for him, viz., $200.00. Mr. John Cogh-lan, Crapaud, is also buying a number of horses on commission.
Mr. Avard has been here for some time buying fat cattle, all waiting shipment.

Our country is teeming with productions, only wanting proper facility of export. It is unpardonable that the Cape route has not been opened up for transport of the farmers produce for years past. There is no other route from the Island could give the same advantages of early and late shipment.

A Colorado farmer has invented a duck-hunting outfit which discounts the California man's cow. He stripped the hide from a bullock and mounted it on a wire skeleton which looked as natural as a living animal. He cut a hole in his wire bullock for his body and made two more through the shoulders to take sight through. When he wants a duck-shoot he drops his skeleton over his head and starts out for the tules. He can walk right into a flock of ducks without startling them, and has, on one or two occasions, returned home with his hiding place full of teal caught with his hands. He never fails to kill all he wants.

Mr. W. H. Vanderbilt is said to make some people hold their breath when they see him drive. A man worth $200,000,000 and nearly 65 years old, driving himself at weight of 230 pounds, in a wagon weighing 184 pounds, at a rate of a mile in two minutes and a half, on a road crowded with fast teams, is thought to be a pretty healthy, ruddy specimen of the richest citizen in the world.
The Elmira Gazette tells of a woman who applied for the position of street car driver.
She was asked, "Can you manage mules?" and replied, "Of course I can. I've had two husbands."
