

This Canada of Ours. BY J. D. EDGAR, M. P. Let other tongues in older lands Loud vaunt their claims to glory. And chant in triumph of the past, Content to live in story. Though boasting no baronial halls, Nor ivy-crested tower, What past can match thy glorious youth— This Canada of ours!

THE FAIR GOD. BOOK THREE. CHAPTER III. THE PORTRAIT.

Next day, after the removal of the noon countures, and when the princess Tula had gone to the hammock for the usual siesta, Nenetzin rushed into her apartment unusually excited. "O, I have something so strange to tell you—something so strange!" she cried, throwing herself upon the hammock. Her face was bright and very beautiful. Tula looked at her a moment, then put her lips lovingly to the smooth forehead. "By the Sun! as our royal father sometimes swears, my sister seems in earnest." "Indeed I am; and you will go with me, will you not?" "Ah! you want to take me to the garden to see the dead tiger, or, perhaps, the warrior who slew it, or—now I have it—you have seen another minstrel."

AUCTION. I AM INSTRUCTED BY WM. G. WRIGHT to sell by Auction, On Wednesday, 16th January, 1889, AT ELEVEN O'CLOCK, Near Eldon, Belfast, opposite St. John's Church, 45 Acres of large growth Hard Wood, Timber, Scantling, R. H. Sheepers and Poles, in acre lots eyes and fair face, and hair and beard like the silk of the ripening maize. I told you I loved him, and would have none but him; and you laughed at me and said he was the god Quetzal. O Tula, the dream has come back to me many times since; so often that it seems, when I am awake, to have been a reality. I am childish, you think, and very weak. I may even pity me; but I have grown to look upon the blue-eyed Nenetzin, that I do not know when you are serious. I love you; now tell me what has happened."

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges flowing from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, itching or burning in the throat, excitation of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians. By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrh of the Head. Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents. "Untold Agony" from Catarrh. Prof. W. HAYDEN, the famous mesmerist, of Haverhill, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My eye was such a bad one that every day, for months, my voice would become so hoarse I could scarcely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and sneezing would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent." "Constantly Sneezing and Spitting." THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 202 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from nasal catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly sneezing and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only true remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure." Three Bottles Cure Catarrh. ELI ROBINSON, Runden P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now a grown-up young lady and is well."
