Red Sox Win Opener But Lose 16-7 to N. Y. Yankees In Nightcap

Darkness didn't fall early enough for the Red Sox at Fenway Park Wednesday, for after the Bostonians had played in fine style to achieve a 6-3 decision over the New York Yankees in the first game, they unraveled and suffered a 16-7 humiliation in the nightcap.

The latter game was mercifully called after eight innings — and three hours and 10 minutes — because of darkness.

The second game, played before a virtual sell-out crowd of 32,800, was similar to yesterday's clamor when the Sox shocked an opening-day throng by blowing a 9-0 lead and losing 15-10 to these same world champions.

In the morning game, 25,425 fans had a chance to cheer as Joe Dobson pitched a six-hit victory and Ted Williams poked his first home run of the American League's 50th season.

As they did yesterday the Sox hustled to a quick lead in the afternoon and then the Yanks forged ahead to win, routing right-hander Ellis Kinder in the process.

The Bombers had a 9-7 lead after seven innings and then came the eighth, which beggars description.

The Yankees sent a dozen men to bat. Five of them walked and four hit for seven runs. In all the Yanks clouted 15 hits and received 13 passes from four Boston pitchers.

At Chicago the surprising St. Louis Browns backed up Dick Starr's five-hit pitching against Chicago White Sox with three home runs for a 6-1 victory.

Round-trippers by Dick Kokos, Sherm Lollar and Rookie Don Lenhardt, who also crashed a single and double for three hits, accounted for five of the Browns' six runs in their second straight victory over the White Sox.

St. Louis slashed away at four Chicago pitchers for 11 hits as Bob Kuzava drew the loss — the home team's 10th straight, eight of them exhibitions.

At Washington Philadelphia Athletics made the most of their eight hits off Sid Hudson and Dick Welk to defeat Washington, 6-1, as Eddie Joost contributed a home run and a double.

Korean School Boy Wins Boston Marathon

By BILL KING
BOSTON, April 19 — (AP) — Korea's amazing Marathon team of Kee Yong Ham, Kil Yoon Song and the more-experienced Yun Chil Choi ran one-two-three today in the Boston A. A.'s 54th 26-mile, 385-yard test from Hopkinton to Boston.

Winner Ham, a 19-year-old schoolboy from Seoul, had a wide-open chance to break the course record of two hours, 25 minutes 39 seconds set three years ago by Un Bok Suh, his countryman, until he hit the long series of hills that extend the last five miles.

But he slowed down to a walk at least a dozen times on and after the upgrades, and finished in the disappointing time of 2:32:39. As he took the first and easiest of the four hills, Ham led Choi by almost five minutes and the 20-year-old Song, another Seoul schoolboy, was far out of sight.

But Song, who evidently stayed back too long, made up considerable distance on the hills and finished only three minutes, 19 seconds behind the winner — the B.A.A. race's fifth straight foreign victory since 1945.

Choi, co-favorite with last year's winner, Karl Gosta Leanderson of Sweden, who dropped out after 22 miles, crossed the line in 2:39:47, only five seconds ahead of the fourth-place finisher, John Laferly of Boston.

Paul Collins, a Wolfville, N.S., runner, led the Canadians who were attempting to emulate the feat of Gerard Cote of St. Hyacinthe, Que., four-time winner of the Marathon who did not compete this year. Collins finished eighth in 2:50:13.

Francis P. D. Mulvihill of the Gladstone Athletic Club, Toronto, was 18th in 3:01:35 and George Gallant of Moncton was 20th in 3:01:58.

Far behind in the gruelling grind but still finishing were Gordon Norman of Bridgetown, N.S., Roland Bufford of Montreal and Harold Carter of Toronto. There were no times recorded for them but they placed 51st, 62nd and 67th respectively. Only 10 Canadians started.

Besides Collins, the others in the top 10 were Johnny Kelley of Boston, who won in 1935 and 1945; Tony Medeiros, the veteran from nearby Medford; Lloyd Bairstone of the Boston A.A.; Ed Romagnoli, New York policeman; and Kenneth O'Connell of Cleveland.

The only other former winner in the starting field of 134, the 62-year-old Clarence Demar who led the field home seven times since 1911, wound up in 41st place in 3:28:13 while making his 30th appearance.

Q. S. S. In Close Hoop Victory Over W. K. S.

The Queen Square School basketball team scored a close 32-30 victory over the West Kent School cagemen in an exhibition hoop game at the Prince of Wales College auditorium last night before a large crowd of fans.

The game was a well played encounter that came up with some smart passing and ball handling in a nip and tuck battle all the way. Queen Square leading by five points at the half, and W. K. S. showing ahead on the scoring in the final session to come within two points of overtaking the lead.

Ready was the big pointgetter in the game, chalking up 20 points for Q. S. S. while White and Mac-

George McGregor Wins Trophy In Big Four League

HALIFAX, April 19 — (CP) — George McGregor, Halifax St. Mary's forward, is the first winner of a trophy to be awarded annually to the Maritime Senior Hockey League player combining the "best type of sportsmanship and gentlemanly conduct" with a "high standard of playing ability."

Judge J. Elliott Hudson, league president, announced here today that a poll of eight sports editors and sportscasters had chosen McGregor, a native of Kingston, Ont. Each writer and broadcaster picked three players and three points went for a first, two for a second and one for a third. McGregor, playing his second season with the M.S.H.L. champions, received 19 of a possible 24 votes — three more than Moncton Hawks centre Rod MacKenzie of Fort William, Ont.

Both had identical penalty records of six minutes and tied for sixth place in the 1949-50 league scoring race with 85 points each. MacKenzie shared the alternate pivot spot with Dick Wray of Saint John Beavers on the annual Canadian Press all-star team.

Other players receiving votes were: Wray six; Vic Jackson and Roy (Buck) Whitlock of Saint John, two; Ralph Croucher and Maurice (Mouse) Dowling of Saint John, one; George (Porky) MacDougall of Amherst Ramblers, one.

The trophy is a perpetual one and each winner will hold it for one year besides having his name inscribed. He also receives a miniature replica of the trophy to be held permanently.

Patented after the Lady Byng Trophy of the National Hockey League, the award was made by a Halifax business firm.

Juvenile Vics Win Opener In Hoop Series

The Juvenile Vics of Charlottetown defeated the Summerside juveniles at the R.C.A.F. court last night by the score of 42 to 24, and will take a 16-point lead into the second game of a home-and-home basketball series to be played in Charlottetown Friday night. The teams played on fairly even terms during the first half, the Vics leading 17 to 13, but C. Hine of the winning quintet came to life with a bang in the second canto and sank five baskets after being held scoreless in the first half.

J. McAndrew led the Vic snipers, however, getting 13 points. Bill Stewart, was high scorer for Summerside with 10 points and Clive MacDonald had eight.

Chas. Simpson fouled out midway through the final half. The visitors showed a decided superiority under the basket, especially during the latter 20 minutes.

Heavy Tourist Year Anticipated

Requests for information on holidaying in Prince Edward Island are arriving at the rate of twenty-five to thirty a day at the Travel Bureau office, it was learned yesterday. Indications are that the tourist rush will be the heaviest on record.

A number of conventions have already made reservations at the Charlottetown Hotel, including a group of approximately 350 for the Agricultural Institute of Canada who will gather here from June 27th to 30th; 100 for the Maritime Fertilizer Council for the third week of July; 250 for the Dominion Assoc. of Chartered Accountants from August 23rd to 25th, and 100 for the Maritime Retail Lumber Dealer's Assoc., for September 1st and 2nd.

Many distinguished business men are also making reservations for their island vacations. Among those who will be taking advantage of the Province's attractions will be Mr. D. Leo Dolan of Ottawa, director of the Dominion Government Travel Bureau, who will arrive in May. In June, Mr. G. F. Towers, Governor of the Bank of Canada and a group of officials are expected, and reservations for the month of July have been made for Mr. Jackson Dodds, retired general manager of the Bank of Montreal, and Mrs. Dodds. Mr. Dodds was recently appointed Canada's first Deputy Chief Scout.

Three Ex-Giants Drive In 8 Runs as Braves Defeat N. Y. Giants 10-6

By The Canadian Press
The big National League winter trade exploded Wednesday in the face of Leo Durocher as Sid Gordon, Willard Marshall and Buddy Kerr, three ex-Giants, drove home eight runs in Boston's 10-6 romp over New York on their home grounds.

Gordon led the Braves wrecking crew with two homers, one with the bases loaded in the nine-run, sixth inning. Kerr contributed a triple and a two-run single. Johnny Sain, starting a comeback after a poor season in 1949, yielded 12 hits in a route-going job. The Giant runs came on homers by Hank Thompson, Clint Hartung and rookie Jack Harshman. Harshman's came with two on in the eighth.

The Braves drove Sheldon Jones to cover in the sixth. Up to then, the Braves held a 1-0 lead on Gordon's fifth-inning homer. Connie Ryan contributed a double and a single and Gordon his grand-slam homer during the big inning. Giants' unwanted defence suffered a relapse.

At Philadelphia Gil Hodges pounded a home run, two doubles and a single to lead Brooklyn Dodgers to a 7-5 triumph over Philadelphia Phils.

Rookie righthander Clarence Podbielan survived a rocky start and went the distance in posting the defending National League champions' first triumph of the 1950 season. He was helped considerably by the Dodgers' 14-hit offensive.

The Phils jumped on Podbielan for three in the first inning but after that the recruit showed plenty of moxie as he scattered seven hits the rest of the way.

Russ Meyer, a Dodger pest last year, opened for Phils but left during a rally in the sixth, trailing 6-4.

The Dodgers nicked Meyer for single runs in each of the first two innings before lowering the boom with a three-run blast in the fourth that Carl Furillo featured with a two-run homer. Hodges drove home Brooklyn's final two runs with a double in the sixth and a home run in the ninth.

In a night game at St. Louis Pittsburgh Pirates took advantage of a pair of fifth-inning errors by Eddie Kazak to hand the Cardinals a 4-3 defeat.

Cliff Chambers limited St. Louis to six hits. The Bucs in turn had just five safeties from the pitches of Red Munger and Ken Johnson. Danny Murtaugh walked to open the fifth. After Stan Musial made a diving catch of Stan Rokicki's line drive, Clyde McCullough grounded to Kazak who threw past first. Murtaugh went on around to score and when Steve Bilko threw to Kazak in an attempt to get McCullough, Kazak missed the ball, allowing the Pirate catcher to score.
