PICTURES OF MEMORY.

By Alice Carey.

Among the beautiful pictures
 That hang on Memory's wall,
Is one of a dim old forest,
 That seemeth the best of all:
Not for its gnarled oaks olden,
 Dark with the misletoe;
Not for the violets golden
 That sprinkle the vale below;
Not for the milk-white lilies
 That lead from the fragrant hedge,
Coquetting all day with the sunbeams,
 And stealing their golden edge:
Not for the vines on the upland,
 Where the bright red berries rest,
Nor the pinks, nor the pale, sweet cowslip,
 It seemeth to me the best.

I once had a little brother,
 With eyes that were dark and deep—
In the lap of that old dim forest
 He lieth in peace asleep:
Light as the down of the thistle,
 Free as the winds that blow,
We roved there the beautiful summers,
 The summers of long ago:
But his feet on the hills grew weary,
 And, one of the autumn eves,
I made for my little brother
 A bed of the yellow leaves.

Sweetly his pale arm folded
 My neck in a meek embrace,
As the light of immortal beauty
 Silently covered his face:
And when the arrows of sunset
 Lodged in tree-tops bright,
He fell, in his saint-like beauty,
 Asleep by the gates of light:
Therefore of all the pictures
 That hang on Memory's wall,
The one of the dim old forest,
 Seemeth the best of all.

PITCHERS.

A PARODY ON THE ABOVE.

Of all the beautiful pitchers
 That hang on our cupboard wall,
Is one of dim old China,
 That seemeth the best of all:
Nor for the quaint old handle,
 Mended with twisted tow—
(Broken by Viola Goldern
 Who lived in the vale below)—
Not for the meek white lilies,
 Like down on a thorny hedge,
Waiting all day for the sunbeams
 To brighten their pale, prim edge:
Not for the vines raised quaintly,
 Where the flies are wont to rest,
Nor the nose set round with cowslips,
 It seemeth to me the best.

I once had a little lover,
 With eyes that were dark and deep—
How often at that old pitcher
 Together we used to peep,
Light as the down of the thistle
 His hair in the winds did blow,
As down to the well for water
 With the pitcher we used to go,
And once, when our feet grew weary,
 As the autumn eve drew near,
I made, for my little lover,
 In that pitcher, some ginger beer.

Sweetly his pale arms folded
 My neck in a meek embrace,
As a glow like the hue of a peony
 Silently covered his face,
And when the last beams of sunset
 Made the red house-tops bright,
He fell asleep in his beauty,
 And could'nt go home that night:
Therefore, of all the pitchers
 That hang on our cupboard wall,
That one of dim old China
 Seemeth the best of all.

A GENTLE BOY.

"Be very gentle with her, my son," said Mrs. B., as she tied on her little girl's bonnet, and sent her out to play with her elder brother.

They had not been out very long before a cry was heard, and presently J. came in, and threw down his hat, saying, "I hate playing with girls! there's no fun with them; they cry in a minute."

"What have you been doing to your sister! I see her lying there on the gravel walk; you have torn her frock, and pushed her down. I am afraid you forgot my caution to be gentle."

"Gentle! Boys can't be gentle, mother; it is their nature to be rough and hardy; they are the stuff soldiers and sailors are made of. It is very well to talk of a gentle girl, but a gentle boy—it sounds ridiculous!"

"And yet, J., a few years hence, you would be very angry if any one were to say you were not a gentle-man."

"A gentle-man! I had never thought of dividing the word that way before. Being gentle always seems to me like being weak and womanish."

"This is so far from being the case, my son, that you will always find the bravest men are the most gentle. The sprit of chivalry that you so much admire, was a spirit of the noblest courage and the utmost gentleness combined. Still, I dare say, you would rather be called a manly than a gentle boy!"

"Yes, indeed, mother."

"Well, then, my son, it is my great wish, that you should endeavor to unite the two. Show yourself manly wehn you are exposed to danger, or see others in peril; be manly when called on to speak the truth, though the speaking of it may bring reproach upon you; be manly when you are in sickness and pain. At the same time be gentle, whether you are with females or with men; be gentle towards all men. By putting the two spirits together, you will deserve a name which perhaps you will not so greatly object to."

"I see what you mean, dear mother; and I will endeavor to be what you wish,—a gentle-manly boy."

Character.—There is a glare about worldly success which is very apt to dazzle men's eyes. When we see a man rising in the world, thriving in business, successful in speculations—if he be a man out of our own line, who does not come into competition with us, so as to make us jealous of him we are too apt to form a foolishly high opinion of his merits. We are apt to say within ourselves, "What a wonderful man this must be to rise so rapidly!"—forgetting that dust and straw, and feathers, things with neither weight nor value in them, rise the soonest and the easiest. In like manner, it is not the truly great and good man, generally speaking, who rises the most rapidly into wealth and notice. A man may be sharp, active, quick, dexterous, cunning—he may be ever on the watch for opportunities to push his fortunes; a man of this kind can hardly fail of getting on in the world; yet, with all this, he may not have a grain of real greatness about him. He may be all we have described and yet have no greatness of mind, no greatness of soul. He may be utterly without sympathy and fellow-feeling for others; he may be utterly devoid of all true wisdom; he may be without piety and without charity—without love, that is either for God or man.

Some modern author says of gambling, that it is a "magical stream, into which, if a man once steps, and wets the sole of his foot, he must need keep until he is overwhelmed." Perhaps some readers of the "Drawer" may have heard of the officer, who, having lost all his money at play received assistance from a friend, on condition that he would never after touch a pack of cards. A few weeks after, however, he was found in out-house drawing shot and long straws with a brother-gamester for hundreds of pounds!

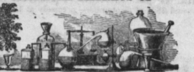
JUDSON'S
CHEMICAL EXTRACT OF



CHERRY AND LUNGWORT,

FOR THE CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Spitting of Blood, Night Sweats, Asthma, Liver Complaints, and CONSUMPTION.

DO NOT NEGLECT IT.

Consumption can be and has been cured,

in thousands of cases, by this only certain remedy,

JUDSON'S CHEMICAL EXTRACT OF CHERRY AND LUNGWORT, and no remedy has ever before been discovered that will certainly

Cure Consumption.

The most strongly marked and developed cases of Pulmonary Consumption, where the lungs have become diseased and ulcerated and the case so utterly hopeless, as to have been pronounced by Physicians and friends, to be past all possibility of recovery, and at times thought to be dying, have been cured by this wounderful remedy, and are now as well and hearty as ever. It is a compound of medications which are peculiarly adapted to and essentially necessary for the cure of

COUGHS AND CONSUMPTION.

Its operation is mild, yet efficacious; it loosens the phlegm which creates so much difficulty, relieves the cough and assists nature to expel from the system all diseased matter by expectoration, producing a delightful change in the breathing and chest, and this, after the prescriptions of the very best medical men and the inventions of kind and sorrowing friends and Nurses, have failed to give the smallest relief to the Consumptive sufferer.

THOUSANDS OF CONSUMPTIVE

persons have been deceived repeatedly in buying medicines which were said to be infallible cures, but which have proved only palliatives, but this medicine is not only a palliative but a cure for ulcerated lungs. It contains no deleterious Drugs and one trial will prove its astonishing efficacy better than any assertions or certificates in curing consumption and all diseases of the Lungs, such as Spitting of blood, Coughs, pain in the side and chest, night-sweats, &c. &c.

About 1000 certificates of almost miraculous cures, performed by this medicine, from some of the first Doctors, Clergymen and Merchants, have been sent us for this medicine, but the publication of them looks too much like Quackery, [we will show them to any person, calling at our office.] This medicine will speak for itself and enough in its own favour wherever it is tried.

Caution—This medicine is put up in a large bottle and you must find the name of Judson & Co., Proprietors, New York, on the splendid Wrapper around the bottle. All orders must be addressed to Comstock & Brother, No. 9 John St. New York.

To Owners of and Dealers in Horses.

CARLTON'S FOUNDER OINTMENT,

For the cure of Founder, Split Hoof, Hoof-bound Horses, and contracted and Feverish Feet, Wounds, Bruises in the Flesh, Galled Backs, Cracked Heels, Scratches, Cuts, Kicks, &c.. on horses.

CARLTON'S RING-BONE CURE.

For the cure of Ring-bone, Blood Spavin, Bone Spavin, Windgalls, and Splint—a certain remedy.

CARLTON'S CONDITION POWDERS FOR HORSES AND CATTLE.

The changes of weather and season, with the change of use and feed, have a very great effect upon the blood and sinuous fluids of horses. It is at these changes they require an assistant to nature to throw off any disorder of the fluids of the body that may have been imbibed, and which, if not attended to, will result in the Yellow water, Heaves, Worms, Botts, &c. All of which will be prevented by giving one of these powders, and will at any time, cure when any symptoms of disease appear, if used in time. They purify the blood, remove all inflammation and fever, loosen the skin, cleanse the water, and invigorate the whole body, enabling them to do more work with the same feed. The action of these powders is direct upon all the secretive glands, and therefore has the same effect upon the Horse, the Ox, the Ass, and all Herbivorous animals—all diseases arising from or producing a bad state of the blood, are speedily cured by them.

Remember and ask for CARLTON'S CONDITION POWDERS, and take no others.

CARLTON'S NERVE AND BONE LINIMENT FOR HORSES, and for the cure of all diseases of man or beast that require external application, and for contracted cords and muscles, strengthens weak limbs, and is also used for sprains, bruises, saddle galls, swelled legs, sores of all kinds on horses.

Carlton's articles for Horses and Cattle are prepared from the recipe of a very celebrated English Farrier, and will cure in ninety-nine cases out of one hundred of any of the above complaints. They have been used by Farmers, livery-men, stage proprietors and others with the most marked and decided success.

Caution.—None can be genuine unless you find the name of J. Carlton Comstock, on the Wrapper of each article.

COMSTOCK'S VERMIFUGE.

This is the most extraordinary remedy for Worms ever used; it effectually eradicates Worms from both Adults and Children. It cannot harm the most delicate infant or strongest Adult, and never fails to completely root out and destroy all kinds of Worms. The cost, 25 cents per bottle, puts it within reach of all, and all parents who are without it, are wantonly exposing the lives of their children to those fell destroyers of youth, "Worms." Look for the name of Comstock & Brother, proprietors, on the Wrapper of each bottle.

To the Old and Young!! Ho! ye Red Heads and Grey!!

PHENOMENON IN CHEMISTRY!!!!

EAST INDIA HAIR DYE.

COLORS THE HAIR, AND WILL NOT THE SKIN.

This dye may be applied to the hair over night, the first night turning the lightest Red or Grey Hair to a dark brown, and by repeating a second night, to a bright jet black. Any person may, therefore, with the least possible trouble keep his hair any dark shade or perfect black; with a positive assurance that the dye, if applied to the skin will not colour it. By an occasional application, a person turning grey will never be known to have a grey hair. Directions complete with the article. There is no colouring in this statement, as one can easily test.

These facts are warranted by the gentleman who manufactures it, who is the celebrated Chemist, Dr. Comstock, author of Comstock's Chemistry, Philosophy. and other works, and School Books, well known and widely celebrated by the public.

Deafness.

Use Dr. Larzette's Acoustic Oil, for the cure of Deafness Also, all those disagreable noises, like the buzzing of insects, falling of water, whizzing of steam, which are symptoms of approaching deafness. Many persons who have been deaf for ten, fifteen or twenty years, and were subject to use ear trumpets, have after using one or two bottles, thrown aside these trumpets, being made perfectly well. It has cured cases of ten, fifteen, and even thirty years standing of deafness.

HAY'S LINIMENT FOR THE PILES.

The worst attacks of the Piles are effectually and permanently cured in a short time by the use of the genuine Hay's Liniment. Hundreds of our first citizens throughout the country have used this liniment with complete success.

Caution—Never buy it unless you find the name of Comstock & Co., upon the wrapper, proprietors of the genuine article.

Caution.—All of the abovenamed articles are sold only in New York, by Comstock & Brother, No. 9 John Street, five doors from Broadway.

Sold in Charlottetown, P. E. Island, by T. DESBRISAY, W. R. WATSON, JAMES GILLIGAN, M. W. SKINNER Druggists. In Pictou, at the Drug Stores; also by one Storekeeper in every Town on the Island. Enquire for Comstock's Almanac for 1851, which will be given to all gratis.

HERE IS YOUR REMEDY!
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A MOST MIRACULOUS CURE OF BAD LEGS, AFTER 43 YEARS' SUFFERING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Galpin, of 70, Saint Mary's Street, Weymouth, dated May 15, 1851.

To Professor Holloway,

Sir,—At the age of 18 my wife (who is now 61) caught a violent cold, which settled in her legs, and ever since that time they have been more or less sore, and greatly inflamed. Her agonies were distracting, and for months together she was deprived entirely of rest and sleep. Every remedy that medical men advised, was tried, but without effect; her health suffered severely, and the state of her legs was terrible. I had often read your Advertisements, and advised her to try your Pills and Ointment; and, as a last resource, after every other remedy had proved useless, she consented to do so. She commenced six weeks ago, and, strange to relate, is now in good health. Her legs are painless, without seam or scar, and her sleep sound and undisturbed. Could you have witnessed the sufferings of my wife during the last 43 years, and contrast them with her present enjoyment of health, you would indeed feel delighted in having been the means of so greatly alleviating the sufferings of a fellow creature.

(Signed) WILLIAM GALPIN.

A PERSON 70 YEARS OF AGE CURED OF A BAD LEG, OF THIRTY YEARS' STANDING

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Wm. Abbs, Builder of Gas Ovens, of Rushcliffe, near Huddersfield, dated May 31, 1851.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I suffered for a period of thirty years from a bad leg, the result of two or three different accidents at Gas Works; accompanied by scorbutic symptoms. I had recourse to a variety of medical advice, without deriving any benefit, and was even told that the leg must be amputated; yet, in opposition to that opinion, your Pills and Ointment have effected a complete cure in so short a time, that few who had not witnessed it would credit the fact.

(Signed) WILLIAM ABBS.

The truth of this statement can be verified by Mr. W. P. England Chemist, 13, Market Street, Huddersfield.

A DREADFUL BAD BREAST CURED IN ONE MONTH.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Frederick Turner, of Penshurst, Kent, dated December 13, 1850.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir,—My wife had suffered from Bad Breasts for more than six months, and during the whole period had the best medical attendance, but all to no use. Having before healed an awful wound in my own leg by your unrivalled medicine, I determined again to use your Pills and Ointment, and therefore gave them a trial in her case, and fortunate it was, I did so, for in less than a month a perfect cure was effected, and the benefit that various other branches of my family have derived from their use is really astonishing. I now strongly recommend them to all my friends.

(Signed) FREDRICK TURNER.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF A DANGEROUS SWELLING OF THE KNEE.

Copy of a letter from John Forfar, an Agriculturist, residing at Newborough, near Hexham, dated May 15, 1850.

To Professor Holloway,

Sir,—I was afflicted with a swelling on each side of the leg, rather above the knee, for nearly two years, which increased to a great size. I had the advice of three eminent Surgeons here, and was an inmate of the Newcastle infimary for four weeks. After various modes of treatment had been tried, I was discharged as incurable. Having heard so much of your Pills and Ointment, I determined to try them, and in less than a month, I was completely cured. What is more remarkable I was engaged twelve hours a day in the Hay Harvest, and although I have followed my laborious occupation throughout the winter, I have had no return whatever of my complaint.

(Signed) JOHN FORFAR.

AN INFLAMMATION IN THE SIDE PERFECTLY CURED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Francis Arnot, of Breahouse, Lothian Road, Edinbro', dated April 29th, 1851.

To Professor Holloway,

Sir,—For more than twenty years my wife has been subject, from time to time, to attacks of inflammation in the side, for which she was bled and blistered to a great extent; still the pain could not be removed. About four years ago, she saw in the papers, the wonderful cures effected by your Pills and Ointment, and thought she would give them a trial. To her great astonishment and delight, she got immediate relief from their use, and after persevering for three weeks, the pain in her side was completely cured, and she has enjoyed the best of health for the last four years.

(Signed) FRANCIS ARNOT.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—
