BEDEQUE

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dunnell and Miss Doris Campbell of Belmont, Mass., have been spending some time touring Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island. While on P.E.I. they were at Stanhope Beach for some time, and in Bedeque village they were guests of Mr. Dunnell's cousin, Mrs. Walter Leard and Mr. Leard.

Mr. Kenneth Bruce Stewart, this village, recently had a visit from his brother, Mr. Hugh Ronald Stewart, Ottawa. The brothers had not met for several years. They are great grandsons of the late Honorable Joseph Pope, ship-builder and statesman of Bedeque.

The Department of Public Works is doing considerable work in the Lower Bedeque area. Besides ditching the road some straightening of the road is being done. People in this village are wondering when the job undertaken last fall here is going to be finished.

It is high time that some one in authority took a hand in checking speeding through the village of Bedeque. There are speed limit signs, but some speeders take no notice of them.

Mr. Donald (Donnie) MacFarlane, Fernwood, had the misfortune to meet with a painful accident recently. He was working with his hay baler and while cranking the machine the crank slipped, striking him in the mouth, cutting his lip and shattering some of his teeth. Medical aid was necessary.

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Myers, Thursday evening, July 19th, a large number of relatives and friends gathered from Bedeque, Fernwood and Carleton Place, to celebrate the wedding of their daughter, Miss Sandra Myers, to Mr. James Heber Myers, Carleton Place. The bride and groom were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Heber Myers, Carleton Place.

A bingo under the auspices of the St. Thomas Society was held at the home of Jerry Gallant on Tuesday, July 2. A good crowd attended and a nice sum of money was made for the funds.

The annual meeting of the St. Thomas Aquinas Society is to be held on Tuesday night, July 10, at the home of Mrs. Jerry Arsenault sec'y. Every one is expected to be present for the appointment of delegates to the annual convention in Miscouche on July 29.

Fortune Cove, spent the Sunday evening, July 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Gallant, Woodstock.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Gallant their son and three daughters of Berlin, New Hampshire, arrived in Howlan on Tuesday, July 3rd to spend a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones and sons and Mrs. Frank Gallant and daughters, motored to Summerside on Tuesday, July 3rd.

All events held the interest of the large crowd throughout the afternoon. Of particular interest and value were the demonstrations of life saving presented by representatives of the Red Cross.

Much credit is due Earle Atkinson, chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements, and all who helped in carrying out the many preparations necessary for the success of such an extensive program. It is anticipated that next year will see an even more ambitious program. Appreciation is due Alberton Boy Scouts who supervised the parking of cars and to Mr. Silas Rayner who provided parking space.

Refreshments booths and supper tables were well patronized and added to the enjoyment of the afternoon.

LOCKE ROAD

The funeral of the late Mrs. Firming Perry of Howlan was held on Tuesday morning, June 26th. After being home to attend the mother's funeral, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Perry returned to their home in Saint John, N.B. on Wednesday, June 27th.

Mr. Jimmie DesRoches of Fort-Croix, spent four days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston Collicutt of Knutsford.

After being home to attend their mother's funeral Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perry returned to their home in Charlottetown on Wednesday, June 27th.

Francis Collicutt of the Reserve Road was in O'Leary on Thursday, June 28th.
