over the rich cream sauce which covers the onions, boiled whole or sliced; and instead of serving the usual mashed turnip you can hollow out small slices of turnip to form small individual cups and when they are cooked fill them with green peas or beans. Another suggestion is to fill the turnip cups with creamed onions, garnishing with chopped parsley. Turnips are attractive too if cut in thin latticed pieces using a vegetable cutter, cooked until just tender then coated with butter. For the green vegetable there is a wide choice of both canned and frozen—peas, beans, brussels sprouts, and broccoli to name the most popular. Beets are another vegetable which should not be overlooked for Christmas dinner. One nice way to serve them is in a glistening sauce with a border of green peas or beans. Last but not least there is the potato and with that rich turkey gravy what better way to serve potatoes than mashed and whipped until light and fluffy with a little cream or hot milk and butter.

WHAT VEGETABLES TO SERVE?

In many homes it is traditional to serve certain vegetables with roast turkey. Creamed onions and turnips being two of them. Both these vegetables go well with turkey and for this special occasion they can be easily dressed up a little. Chopped pimiento, green pepper or parsley can be sprinkled as a garnish. The decorating should be done just before the turkey is taken to the table but the parsley can be kept fresh and all ready to use in a glass sealer or plastic bag in the refrigerator. Bright green watercress makes an equally effective garnish and green pepper can also be used to add an extra note of colour to the turkey. Cranberry sauce, jelly or relish is considered a perfect accompaniment for roast turkey, but these bright red berries can be used as a garnish too. Threaded to make a chain they look most attractive gracefully draped over the well browned turkey.

Special New Medication GIVES SPECIAL KIND OF RELIEF FROM COUGHS of colds

Here's a cough syrup that does more than just relieve coughs of colds. It works with a "relief action" all its own—and doesn't upset stomach or appetite.

Vicks Medi-trating Cough Syrup is different—a combination of a new penetrating ingredient with a medicating formula. The penetrating inredient carries the medicine to irritated crevices of the throat, where the medicating ingredient can go right to work. That's why it's named Vicks Medi-trating Cough Syrup. It medicates as it penetrates.

Everybody likes the flavor! Try new Vicks Medi-trating Cough Syrup.

Haynes-Sherman Wedding

Principals at Haynes-Sherman wedding in Salvation Army Citadel on December 9. (Left) Lieut. Bruce Robertson, Brigadier C. Knaap, Lieut. Allison Haynes, Mrs. Allison Haynes, flower girl Carol Ann Haynes, Lieut. Joan Vaughan, bridesmaid, Lieut. Earle Birt, best man, Lieut. Ralph Stanley.

The local Salvation Army Citadel was the scene of an unusually pretty wedding solemnized in traditional surroundings on Tuesday evening, Dec. 9, 1954, when Lieutenant Rosalind Jean Sherman, daughter of Mrs. Edna Sherman, Montreal, was united in marriage to Lieutenant William Allison Haynes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Haynes, Charlottetown.

The Salvation Army marriage ceremony was performed by Brigadier C. Knaap, Divisional Commander, New Brunswick, and P. E. Island Division. The Citadel was decorated in silver and white effect, the guest seating being marked by rosetted silver bells and red roses. The bride who was escorted down the carpeted aisle to the decorated arch by Lieutenant Ralph Stanley of Moncton, N. B., was attired in the full uniform of a lieutenant of the Salvation Army. She carried a bouquet of red American Beauty roses and white carnations. She was preceded by Carol Ann Haynes of Newcastle, N. B., niece of the groom, as flower girl who wore a pale green nylon dress and carried a basket of mixed flowers.

The bridesmaid, Lieut. Joan Vaughan of Newcastle, N. B., was attired in full Salvation Army uniform and carried a bouquet of yellow and white chrysanthemums. Lieutenant Earle Birt of Digby, N. S., brother-in-law of the groom, was best man and was also attired in the full uniform of a lieutenant of the Salvation Army.

The wedding music was in charge of Sr. Major Irene Henderson, Matron of Sunset Lodge, who played the piano prelude to the wedding march and during the interlude of signing the register. Lieut. Bruce Robertson of Saint John, N. B. sang "Wedding prayer" and prayer was offered by Major Stanley, officer in charge of the local corps. Scripture reading by Brigadier Knaap was followed by the wedding ceremony which he performed.

The congregation singing at appropriate intervals consisted of "We Pray Thee Lord Thy Blessing Send" and "Spirit Divine". The mother of the bride was unfortunately unable to be present. The mother of the groom wore the full Salvation Army uniform with a corsage of white carnations. The ushers were Mr. Sterling Barrett and Mr. Dave Birt, both of Charlottetown.

A reception was held in the junior hall following the ceremony and was nicely arranged for by the ladies of the Home League. The crescent shaped bride's table was daintily decorated with cut flowers and silver birds and clustered silver bells, and was cut in the traditional manner by the bride and groom. Mrs. Sterling Barrett poured and members of the Junior Corps assisted in serving.

Brief remarks were made by Brigadier Knaap, Major Stanley and Lt. Vaughan which were replied to by the bride and groom. The closing prayer was offered by Mrs. Brigadier Knaap.

During the reception congratulatory telegrams were read from Col. Wiseman, Field Secretary, Toronto; Lieut. Hanks, Hamilton, Bermuda; The Gibson Family, Hamilton, Bermuda; Ruth Locke, Newmarket, Ont.; Albert and Ruth Benjamin, Hamilton, Bermuda; Major Hutchinson, St. John's, Nfld.; Muriel and Doug Hanks, Saint John, N.B.; Col. and Mrs. Davidson, Toronto; Phyllis and Roger Henderson, Woodstock; Lieut. Geraldine Fordyce, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Haynes and Elaine, Saint John, N.B.

Out-of-town guests were: Brigadier and Mrs. C. Knaap, Saint John; Lieut. and Mrs. Earle Birt, Digby, N.S.; Lieut. Joan Vaughan, Newcastle, N.B.; Lieut. Bruce Robertson, Saint John; Lieut. Agnew MacLean, Sackville; Mrs. Eric Haynes and daughter Carol, Saint John; Lieut. Ralph Stanley, Moncton, N.B.

Following their honeymoon Lieut. and Mrs. Haynes will take on duty as Salvation Army Officers in the Corps at West Saint John.
