GENERAL ORDER.

Adjutant General's Office,

19th July, 1865.

No. 1.

HIS Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, begs to convey to the Volunteers who assembled yesterday for his inspection, the high gratification he experienced at the soldier-like appearance which they made, not only as soldiers in that respect, but on considering the few opportunities they have of late had for drill and exercise, their performance of the movements predicted by the programme,—some of which were to many of the Volunteers on the Field of a difficult character,—justly entitles them to much credit, indeed much praise.

No. 2.

To Major Pollard, His Excellency begs to express his sense of the indefatigable exertions and interest he manifested in the furtherance of yesterday's proceeding and its satisfactory result.

By Command,

P. D. STEWART, Lieut. Col. & Adj't. General.
