WESTERN GUARDIAN

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL.—Mr. Gerald McQuaid, B.A., of Kensington, has been appointed principal of Tryon Consolidated School. Mr. McQuaid is a graduate of St. Dunstan's University. Many will remember Mr. McQuaid as the general life guard at Cavendish National Park beach during the bathing season. Mr. McQuaid is also a hockey and baseball player of no mean ability.—K. CARD PARTY.—A very enjoyable card party, sponsored by the Indian River Women's Institute, was held on Tuesday, March 4th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McLellan. Six tables of auction were in play and prizes were won by Mrs. L. G. Ramsay and Miss Donald MacDonald for the ladies, while Mr. Louis Rogers and Mr. Tom Turner were the winners for the gentlemen. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by several members of the Institute.—K. KEEPING BUSY.—Mr. Elton Woodside, Clinton, had a busy time with his plane in the Bedouin area carrying passengers between Bedouin and Summerside. On Monday, March 3rd, the Bedouin Chick Hatcher chartered his plane to take a shipment of day-old chicks to Summerside. Mr. J. S. Wright, Manager of the Dunk River Dairymen Co., went out to Bedouin with him and Miss Leona Hooper went in to Summerside on the return trip. On Tuesday morning he flew Mr. Sakamoto, of the Poultry Division, Dept. of Agriculture, to the Bedouin Chick Hatchery, then he made three trips to Summerside taking in George Doull, Leslie Hooper and Davis Murray.—H. PERSONALS.—Mr. Malchias Callaghan, Charlottetown, was a recent visitor to Kensington on business.—K. —Mr. Sydney Green, Central Bedouin, spent the weekend of March 2nd, at Long River, travelling by plane.—H. —Mr. Alyn Gallant, Central Bedouin, attended the funeral of his stepfather Phillip S. Arsenault, Abram's Village, on Saturday, March 1st.—H. —Miss Helen McDonald and Miss Annie McNeill, teachers of Kensington School are the latest victims of the epidemic of mumps prevalent in Kensington. World Day Of Prayer In Kensington

The World Day of Prayer was observed in the Kensington Presbyterian Church by the women of Kensington Presbyterian, United and Anglican Churches and the Margate United Church. Following a few words of welcome by Mrs. Brewer Linkletter, leader of the Presbyterian group, Mrs. Haslam of the Margate United Church read the Call to Worship. Mrs. Linkletter led in "Adoration" and "Penitence"; Mrs. Lloyd Howard of St. Mark's Anglican Church in "Assurance"; Mrs. S. Haslam of Margate United Church in "Intercession"; and Mrs. J. Y. MacFadyen of Kensington United, in "Dedication." Prayers were offered by Mrs. Keith Warren, Margate United, Mrs. Kenneth Pidgeon, St. Mark's Anglican, Miss Mary MacNutt, Kensington United, Mrs. L. M. Murray, Kensington United, Mrs. Horace Paynter and Mrs. Alexander Hiltz, Kensington Presbyterian. An address by Miss Mae Walker dealt with the Day of Prayer around the world and the purposes for which the offering is used. The offering was received by Mrs. Horace Heckbert and Mrs. Henry Staver. A happy feature of the meeting was the incorporation of the Service of Worship for girls conducted by Margaret Crozier and Myrna Cousins of Kensington United Church, Eleanor Bernard of the Presbyterian Church and Erna Gill of St. Mark's Anglican, with Mrs. Robert Carruthers as leader. The teen age girls of all the churches were present on the invitation of the committee in charge, and under the auspices of the C. G. I. T. Bur. given the Crapaud Library to help cover running expenses. New lunch committee was appointed as follows: Lorna Nicholson, Vera Rogerson, Aletha Harvey and Miriam Harvey. A very interesting paper on Citizenship was read by Clara Simmone, who invited all members to attend "Open House" in the Crapaud School on Wednesday afternoon as a special feature of Education Week. The concert committee reported that a suitable programme had been lined up for a St. Patrick's Concert and the meeting closed with the National Anthem, after which lunch was served.

His numerous friends will be glad to hear that Mr. James Sheen, Kensington, has recovered from a slight indisposition resulting from being overcome by shovelling snow on Saturday.—K. —Mrs. Katherine Creamer of Charlottetown has been in Kensington this past week in connection with a periodic Dominion-wide Government survey which she conducts in this area.—K. —Mrs. Peter Hickey of Indian River is quite ill with the flu. Her daughter Anna came home to care for her. She has the best wishes of many friends for an early recovery.—K. —The many friends of Mrs. Keith Mann of Indian River, will be pleased to hear she is recovering from a bad case of influenza and threatened pneumonia.—K. —The Misses Emma McMahon and Frances Pendergast, students at Kinkora Convent visited their homes in Kensington during a recent week end. They were accompanied by Miss Mary Petrus of Tignish Run.—K. —Mr. George Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oyvile Clark, Kensington, has returned from a six week course in the Vocational School at Charlottetown.—K. CRAPAUD W. I. The March meeting was held in the Institute Room with the President in charge and "Collect" was repeated in unison. Amy Howatt was acting secretary and minutes were read and approved, and roll call responded to by 20 members. Response to roll call next month is to be a spring decorating hint. School committee reported pencil sharpeners repaired, and it was decided to buy "dustbane". New school committee is Blanche Judson and Florence Myers. Sick committee reported one call and two treats and this committee of Aletha Simmons and Aletha Harvey was re-appointed. Correspondence was then read by the secretary and included letters regarding the Canadian Association of Consumers, the Red Cross, and the T. B. League. Lolita MacVittie and Ruth MacDonald were appointed as Liaison Officers of the C. A. C. It was voted that $5.00 be sent to the T. B. Fund, and Ruth MacDonald was then appointed Press Secretary. It was also voted that $25.00 be TINY COPTER—Almost dwarfed by a jeep is the Army's new vestibule helicopter, the XH-26. The "midget" copter, which weighs less than 300 pounds, was designed so that it can be dropped from larger planes, unpacked by two men and put into the air in 20 minutes. It will be used for observation, air evacuation of wounded, or transportation of light supplies.

Crapaud School Holds Open House

A very interesting programme was presented by the teachers of the Crapaud School on Wednesday afternoon, March 5th as a special feature of Education Week. Miss Coles, the Primary Teacher presented lessons in Literature. The Principal, Miss Clara Simmone, had a very educational programme and several of her pupils presented a debate on the resolution, "The airplane is a better means of transportation than boat." All participants showed excellent training and preparation in their debating skills. Following the debate a lively session of "Twenty Questions Quiz" was held. Many of the parents and other interested W.I. members attended this "Open House."

Generous Donation To Crapaud Library

The Crapaud Library recently received the generous donation of $100 from the Crapaud W. I. with the request that this sum be put on the debt. Again at the March meeting $25 was voted towards the running expenses. The Library was generously subsidized by the Government, being under the Department of Education and has received the same support as a new school. However, a debt still remains on it. The people of Crapaud and surrounding communities realize the privilege of having this cultural and educational service at their disposal and are making every effort to support it.

Combine For World Day Of Prayer Service

Twenty-seven women of the Long River United and Presbyterian Churches and the Burlington Anglican Church met to observe the World Day of Prayer at the home of Mrs. Ellis Proffitt on Saturday, March 1st, one day late, due to road conditions. A special feature of this service was a memorial to the late King, who passed away since the program was prepared. This was conducted most effectively by the Presbyterian leader, Mrs. Allan A. Campbell, who gave a brief but comprehensive talk on the life of the late King, remembering his heroic conduct in his youthful days as a sailor prince. Remembering too his heroism of a different nature, but none the less significant, in overcoming a serious speech defect. His faith and trust in a higher Power through the years of terrible stress and strain

Cape Traverse United Day Of Prayer

The World Day of Prayer Service which was held by the W. M. S. Auxiliary of Cape Traverse United Church and members of sister churches joining on Tuesday, March 4th at the home of Mrs. Harry C. Muttart of Carleton. There were about twenty present which showed a keen interest as the roads were almost impassable. The theme was "Christ Our Hope" and the call to worship was given by the president, Miss M. Muttart. Hymn 17, "Praise My Soul", was sung. The program leaflet was followed and the following headings were used: Adoration, leader Miss Muttart; Penitence, leader Mrs. Sawyer; Assurance, Mrs. McCallum. Hymn 862, "Oh God Our Help in Ages Past" was then sung. Intercession was led by Mrs. Haslam, followed by special prayers by Mrs. Reeves, Mrs. McCaul, Mrs. J. Howe, Mrs. Crawwell. Dedication was led by Miss Muttart and hymn 86 "When I Survey The Wondrous Cross", was sung, after which the speaker for the afternoon, Rev. J. W. Howe, gave a very impressive address, taking as his text the theme "Christ Our Hope." A duet was then enjoyed, sung by Mrs. Haslam and Mrs. McCaul, accompanied by Miss Muttart in the absence of Mrs. Harper due to illness. Offering was taken and presented by president, Miss Muttart. A short business period followed and Mrs. Boyd Lowther, secretary, read the minutes and called the roll. A short report was given on the progress of the Mission Band which is held once a month and Miss Mary Muttart was delegated to supply the treat for next meeting. Some material was sold to W. M. S. members by Mission Band leaders as a means of raising funds to carry on their splendid work. Next W. M. S. meeting is to be held in April at the home of Mrs. Harry Muttart. Hymn 568, "The Day Thou Gavest Lord is Ended", was sung after which Rev. J. W. Howe pronounced the benediction and a bounteous lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by committee in charge.

of war, and the happy home life shared by the Royal family, were commented on by the speaker, who also led in prayer for the new Queen and other members of the Royal family, after which a period of silence was observed. The other leaders were Mrs. Murdoch MacLeod, of the United Church and Mrs. Leigh Paynter of Stephen's Anglican. Prayers were offered by Miss Christy B. Johnstone, Mrs. Eustace Paynter, Mrs. Archie Paynter, and Mrs. George MacLeod. A brief talk on the value of prayer as a real force in daily living, was given by Mrs. E. Proffitt. The offering was received by Mrs. Hedley Paynter and amounted to $6.20. Mrs. Murdoch MacLeod was organist for the afternoon. Tea was served by the ladies of the Anglican Church. Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. MacLeod expressed their appreciation to the entertaining group and to all who had helped in carrying out the beautiful service, as well as to the hostess, who replied briefly.—Bur.
