DOMINION ILLUSTRATED.—Among the illustrations in the Dominion Illustrated, at hand this afternoon, are very good likenesses of Captains McKinnney and Finlayson, and of the steamer Stanley in an ice-field between Pictou and Georgetown.

A UNIQUE ADVERTISEMENT.—According to an exchange the following notice is posted up near Stellarton, N. S.:

"Lost straid and stole left my premises one hot day July 2 brandel Kow, long tale Short horn spot now & then 3 teeth. The finder will be rewarded."

PUBLIC REQUESTS.—The late John P. Mott, of Halifax, did not forget the public institutions of that city when making his will. Here are the bequests he made: Home for the Aged, $39,600; Protestant Orphans' Home, $23,700; Deaf and Dumb Institution, $23,700; School for the Blind, $23,700; Protestant Industrial School, $23,700; Roman Catholic Orphanage, $23,700; Infants' Home, $23,700; and the Y. M. C. A., $23,700.

The question is often asked, why is it that W. P. Colwill can sell so much more crockery and so much cheaper than anyone else on the Island? The question is easily answered, and this is it:—They keep a good class of goods, they keep the largest stock, they buy at the cheapest market, they buy for cash, they advertise in all the papers, so that the people know where to go to get what they want. Always go to the cheapest Crockery Store, which is W. P. Colwill's. dw 4w—feb24

PERISHED IN THE STORM.—St. John, N.B., advices of the 21st are as follows: Mrs. Wilcox, wife of Stephen Wilcox, a Loch Lomond farmer, was frozen to death on Thursday night while going home from the city. A team met her about a mile and a half from home at 5 o'clock that afternoon. A fierce storm was then raging. Yesterday morning she was found dead in her sleigh 150 yards from a house. It is believed she cut the horse loose hoping he would go home and an alarm would be raised. Her hopes were in vain, and she perished in the storm and darkness that fearful night. Mrs. Wilcox was about 60 years old.

BOSTON MARKETS.—From a circular of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, dated Feb. 20, at hand this morning, we learn that, while the potato trade has not been very brisk for the past week, there has been a steady, moderate demand and prices are ruling fully as firm as they were a week ago. Receipts of eggs have been light, with a good demand, and prices gradually advancing. The general condition of the fish trade has not changed to any great extent during the past week, but an improvement is looked for during the Lenten season. Mackerel are in fair demand, and are bringing full prices. Smelts are plenty, but very dull.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. Jan 7 '90.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

Summary of Proceedings.

OTTAWA, Feb. 24.

In the House of Commons to-day—Sir John Macdonald, replying to Mr. Flynn, said that Mr. Tupper, Minister of Marine, had left Ottawa for Washington to-day to represent Canada in the negotiations now pending in respect to the fisheries and Behring Sea questions. No formal commission was issued to Mr. Tupper.

Mr. Foster refused to agree to Mr. Laurier's motion calling for the correspondence in reference to the Atlantic mail service, stating that negotiations were still going on.

In moving that grains and seeds imported for use in the ensilage system of feeding stock be admitted free, Mr. McMillan (Huron) said that the Government, as patrons of young industries, should not refuse to encourage ensilage. He quoted resolutions passed by the Farmers' Institutes in Ontario asking for free corn. Messrs. Armstrong and Rowen supported the resolution.

Mr. Bowell said the matter had been considered by the Government and corn for ensilage could not be placed on the free list without a change in the tariff. It was impossible to say what varieties of corn would not ripen in Canada. The quality of corn imported for ensilage was too small to call for a change of Government policy and therefore he would oppose the motion. The House divided on the resolution, which was defeated by 84 to 59. The House then adjourned.

The World's Fair.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.

The House of Representatives is voting this afternoon on the location of the World's Fair. First vote: Chicago, 115; New York, 72; St. Louis, 61; Washington, 56; Cumberland Gap (Mr. Skinner, of North Carolina) 1. Second vote: Chicago, 121; New York, 78; St. Louis, 57; Washington, 46. Third vote (official): Chicago, 127; New York, 92; St. Louis, 53; Washington, 34. Whole number, 306; majority necessary, 154. The galleries were packed with spectators and the corridors were obstructed by the crowds which gathered to witness the deciding struggle in selecting the location of the World's Fair.

LATER.

On the eight ballot Chicago got the World's Fair. The vote stood—Chicago, 157; New York, 107; St. Louis, 25; Washington, 18; total 307; majority 154. This gave Chicago three more than the choice.

Under Protection.

ST. JOHN, Feb. 24.

Fed A. Walton, the Pacific Express Company embezzler, is still in the police station, and service Detective Grose is not going to get him away as easily as he expected. Grose thought he would be allowed to return to Montreal with him this afternoon, but Walton has engaged Dr. Alward, and proposes to resist any and every attempt at being taken back. The warrant for Walton's arrest was issued in Montreal according to Grose, and he has not got it with him. As it will not arrive until tomorrow afternoon nothing will be done in the meantime.
