THIS WEEK IN SPORTS

by CIMN Travelling News

"Sue Clark the Player to Watch"

As the end of the semester is quickly coming to a close, mid-terms, papers, and quizzes are keeping us all very busy. Take a break from your hard-pressed studies and get involved in physical activity. Every week for women there are team intramurals. Winter sports include Co-Ed Volleyball, basketball, and broomball.

Just to recap a few scores from last week, Bernie 2 and Daze Students really went to the wire: 0-0 was the final score. Outstanding skill and confidence was displayed by Sue Clark. Broomball intramurals are very exciting to watch and many of the broomball intramural players are excellent contenders for the varsity team.

Bernie 1 edged Blanchard Hall 3-1 in Broomball as well. The score could have been even tougher but since only one Blanchard player showed up, Bernie 1 decided to "lend" a few to help out.

Tonight at 7:30 in the gym, Bernie 2 hosts Bernie 1 in Women's Basketball. Due to conditions beyond our control (Vince), varsity players are exempted from playing intramurals, volleyball, basketball, and broomball included.

Participants are reminded that Championship Trophies are presented for all intramural sports, men's and women's.

Player of the week: Kim "Cookie" Cook.

Cookie is a native townie and gives the Daze Students a strong nucleus needed. She has a very lively spirit and does an excellent job rounding up players to take part. Participation salutes you, Cookie!
