

THE CIVIC ELECTIONS.

It is now certain that the question of severance will not be in the issue. The promoters of the scheme have apparently arrived at the conclusion that its submission to the ratepayers at the present time would be "too previous."

Steps are only now beginning to be taken towards the nomination of candidates. We have heard some talk about the Mayoralty, but nothing yet about the councillors.

Dr. Tobin, of Halifax, has been appointed to represent Canada at the International Medical Council at Rome, in April next.

Great preparations are being made for the reception of Lieut-Gov. Macintosh at Mossmoan, N. W. T., on the 31st of January and 1st of February.

At the late jubilee in Carlisle in honor of Lalitry, the Catholic priest composed a festival hymn, the Rev. minister wrote the words, and the Jewish synagogue furnished the singers.

The Wilson bill is making good headway through the house of representatives, and there is very little doubt that it will pass the final vote next Monday without any considerable amendment.

Only nine out of twenty-four candidates succeeded in passing the bar examinations which were recently held in Quebec, and in consequence an agitation is being raised against the severity of the examiners.

The British Post Office may be slow, but it is sure. It has just delivered some newspapers that were posted about thirty years ago, and lost in the dust behind some ironworks at the London General Post office.

In a Jersey City Court the other day a man was convicted of having stolen six loaves of bread for his starving family.

The suggestion made by Lord Ripon that the Imperial government give $125,000 a year for ten years as subsidy to the Australian-Canadian service, would if carried out involve an expenditure of about half the cost of a second-class cruiser, or the fifth part of the cost of a first-class battle ship.

BURNS' ANNIVERSARY CONCERT.

The concert in the Masonic Temple last evening, in memory of Scotland's hero, was a success beyond all expectations.

THE QUESTION BOX.

Pertinent questions pertaining to the different departments of the Government, answered satisfactorily by the North Side Farmers' Club, Jan. 19.

What is the best method of making the cheese factories a success? Mr. F. McDonald—Give plenty of green feed, such as green oats, clover, and timothy.

Can corn be grown successfully on this north side? John A. McPhee—I do not think, from my past experience, that corn can be successfully grown on the North Side.

What is the best method of maintaining the fertility of our soils? J. A. Macdonald—The fertility of our soil is gone. What we want to do now is not only to maintain but restore the lost fertility.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER

WARLIKE PREPARATIONS IN ENGLAND.

Troops to be Sent to Egypt.

The Bumptious Khedive to be Humbled.

LONDON, Jan. 26.

A sensation was caused in London yesterday when it became known that the British Government had determined to act energetically in Egypt and send reinforcements of troops to that country immediately.

The comments of the newspapers upon the situation of affairs in Egypt confirm the reports of the London press.

The Times says that the Khedive must be made to understand that Egypt does not exist in order to be his plaything.

Other English newspapers express themselves in a similar manner, and the general sentiment seems to be that the Khedive must be taught a lesson.

CORBETT-MITCHELL FIGHT.

Mitchell Easily Knocked Out.

He Repudiates Reports of Foul Play.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 26.

At 2 o'clock yesterday, Corbett entered the ring, and he was followed by Mitchell at 2:12.

Both men were burned brown and looked like a pair of red herrings.

Corbett's seconds were Prof. John Donaldson, Billy Delaney, Jack Dempsey and Wm. McMillan; time keeper, Ted Foley.

Mitchell's seconds were Jim Hall, Tony Moore, Tom Allen, St. Louis, and Steve O'Donnell; time keeper, Bat Masterson.

Snapper Garrison, the famous jockey, took time for the club.

J. A. Macdonald called to the centre at 2:20 p.m., and instructed by the referee. As they faced each other they did not shake hands.

The referee called upon the men to do so, but Corbett refused.

Round 1—Corbett, at the call of time, sprang to the centre of the ring, with his man just emerging from his corner.

The Englishman was forced to the south ropes by his opponent.

They came together in a clinch. Mitchell then got in with his left jab on Corbett's stomach, Corbett countingering with his right on the ear.

Mitchell twice led for Corbett's ribs, landing his left hand in each instance. Corbett continued nursing his man around the sides of the ring, and landed lightly with his left on another leg of Mitchell, who was being penned against the ropes and thus forced to lead.

Mitchell avoided it by ducking. Just as time was called the Englishman led for Corbett's head, landing rightly.

Round 2—Corbett, in the first round, got the stage corner and kept Mitchell up against the ropes throughout the round.

Corbett led with his left, reaching forward with his right hand, and with a shocking uppercut the latter with a short left arm swing. Mitchell ran in on Corbett after this. Corbett rushed Mitchell off, and getting him in close quarters a second later sent a right hand upper cut to the heart of the alien.

Another Despatch.

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 26.

Corbett and Mitchell were arrested after the fight by Sheriff Broward on the charge of a breach of the peace. They gave bonds.

Mitchell said, after the fight: "I met a man my superior in weight and height, and I now freely acknowledge he is my superior in science. He stopped me in three rounds. Does not that tell the story?"

When asked as to the question of foul play, Mitchell indignantly said no friend of his would make that kind of talk.
