ing or a failure is simply behind the times. Still no thoughtful person can fail to see that the conscience of the church, as a whole, is not yet sufficiently roused in regard to this matter. There seems to be one special need which, when supplied, will naturally apply the two great truths of which we have thought to all mission work. That need is the need of knowledge, — knowledge on the part of those at home, knowledge on the part of those whom we send into the mission field. We are often asked to pray for missions and to contribute towards their support. But how can we pray intelligently and give cheerfully unless all know the nature of the need. People at home should be taught, and inasmuch as the whole field is far too vast for any one person with other occupations to know, it would be a great boon if in every diocese there could be a little band of men each one of whom would undertake to learn all that there was to be learned about one particular part and to give the benefit of his studies to his fellow churchmen as opportunity arose; and also, no man ought to be allowed to go into the foreign mission field without having made what has been called a scientific study of missions, at least so far as regards the particular region to which he is going.

Much harm has been done in the past by purely destructive criticism of ancient faiths. We have taken away the idols of the heathen so roughly that we have sometimes destroyed the faculty of faith. We have proved so conclusively the falsity of their religion that they have too often concluded that all religion is equally untrue. Whereas we ought to have shown them that however much truth there was in their ancient faith—and some of the ancient faiths contain a great deal—yet the religion of the incarnate, crucified, risen and ascended Christ infinitely surpasses even the truest of them all.

In many parts and in many ways,—and yet always Jesus Christ, the same, the one, Mediator between God and Man. For the religion which is to be the universal religion, must be the religion of Christ, and not something else. We heard, some time ago, a good deal about the "Church of the Future," which is to be so comprehensive as to include even Atheists and Positivists and Buddhists—men with any kind or no kind of belief. It is quite possible that some such society may one day be formed. But it is strange that those who talked so hope fully about it should not have seen that, at any rate, no Christian could ever belong to it. Such dreams may be, some day, in some measure, realized,—there is no limit to human folly. But they have nothing to do with Jesus Christ. What we, His followers, have to do is, not to break down the great and high wall of the city, which lieth four-square with her twelve gates, so that the boundaries which the King Himself has set become obliterated. Our task is not this, but something different: to keep the wall of the city strong and firm upon its twelve foundations and to bring the glory and honour of the nations into it by the gates which are never closed to any who would enter in.

ENQUIRE AT THE POLICE COURT.

Sir,—Amidst the confusion of law enunciated by THE EXAMINER, The Guardian and The Patriot, but one fact appears clear and that is that the Scott Act is not yet repealed. The three newspapers agree on that one fact. New taking that for granted what is the reason no prosecutors have taken place for the last two or three months and why is it that every Tom Dick and Harry is to sell liquor at all times and places. Would the EXAMINER please.

INQUIRY (Our correspondent had better make inquiry at the Police Court. He should be able to get the information there, if not, we cannot help him.—EDITOR)

AN EXPLANATION WANTED.

Sir,—It would be of much interest to the amateur sporting fraternity of this city to know how the Wanderers of Halifax secured the highest number of points during the sports at Halifax a few days since. It was understood that the C. A. A. of this city were two points in the lead but it now turns out that they are four points behind. Surely there were some persons from Charlottetown present to look after its interests. An explanation on this point would be timely just now.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

THE WEATHER.—Light to moderate winds over eastward, showery today, strong northwesterly winds tomorrow. QUITE A JUBILEE.—The hotel board bill for the eleven colonial premiers during the jubilee was $35,000. The gentlemen must have enjoyed themselves.—Boston Herald. FROM HALIFAX.—The steamer Fastnet arrived from Halifax last evening about six o'clock with a general cargo. She sailed on return at one this afternoon, with a cargo of cheese, oats, pork, etc. There were four passengers. SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—Orient Division will meet this evening at 8 o'clock, in Masonic Temple, when steps will likely be taken to have the Scott Act muddle made right. SAFE ROBBED.—The safe of T. A. Rawkine & Sons, biscuit manufacturers, St. John, was robbed of $300 in cash and papers to the value of $15,000. The robbery was committed on Wednesday night. The safe had been accidentally left unlocked. CITY TAXES.—All parties leaving City Taxes unpaid, are requested to settle same before the Defaulters List is prepared for publication. Poll Tax Executions are being issued. Pay up at once and save expenses. 2173 in. SPECIAL TRIP.—Through the kindness of the C. T. W. a special trip will be made by the "Hillsborough," leaving Charlottetown side at 11.30 o'clock and Southport about 12, thus affording people from the city to take in the Exhibition and return to their respective domiciles the same night. A NARROW ESCAPE.—A hasty Paris undertaker came near burying a man alive recently. A man died in a room in which his paralytic brother also slept and was measured for his coffin. For convenience the family engaged the undertaker, and the undertaker's men put the paralytic in the coffin intended for his brother. When the time for the funeral came they luckily discovered the real corpse. SCOTT ACT AT SPRINGHILL.—A Springhill correspondent writes: We are having a revival in Scott act circles' but so far the results are rather discouraging to the prospector, Martin Black. The witnesses in almost every instance deny taking anything stronger than hop beer from the persons accused of selling intoxicating liquors, and at the same time swear that hop beer will not intoxicate them.—Press.

PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION.—The ladies of St. Dunstan's congregation are making extensive preparations for the catering at the Provincial Exhibition and are determined that the fullest satisfaction shall be given all who patronize them. The ladies of the committee who are doing the collecting are meeting with every encouragement, the collectors for South Shore being especially well received by the good people of that place.

THE GALE CHOIR met in the Y. M. C. A. last night and had a good practice. Mrs. S. R. Stumbles, presided at the organ. Many of the pieces are entirely new and very pretty. The choir will meet again on Tuesday night next at 8 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. Hall. A most cordial invitation to the practice is extended to all who can sing and are willing to assist the Young Men's Christian Association in the coming series of Evangelistic services to be conducted by Evangelist Gale in Oct. next.

THE DRAMA.—The Halifax Dramatic Co. of Halifax promise three entertainments for next week, which as regards scenery, electrical effects, and general appointments will be the best ever seen in Charlottetown. "June" is one of the most successful plays ever presented in the United States; and those who have seen it predict a rare treat for Opera House, goes on the 20th. The Saw-Mill Scene shows a real saw, with the hero bound on the bench beneath; just as the teeth of the Saw touches his clothes the heroine bursts open the door, stops the machinery and eases her lover. Then the Wintry Band, with its comical drum major, the specialties etc, offer so many attractions that it is difficult to say which is the greatest. Give the Class a warm welcome on Monday evening, and you will not regret it.
