SPECIAL PRIZES FOR DILIGENCE. Fannie Roberts, William Owen.

"The EXAMINER says that Savage Island was not purchased from Mr. Percy Pope and that the land bought by the Dominion government for the site of the Cascapoe Marine Hospital was never in the possession of Mr. J. C. Pope. Our contemporary is altogether wrong in stating that the Toronto Globe was led astray by the Patriot. We merely repeated what the correspondent of the Toronto Globe—whom we had good reason to believe had received his information from a reliable and conservative source—wrote about the matter."—Patriot.

If we have done wrong, in attributing the false and scandalous report about the sale of Savage Island, to the Patriot, we regret it. But the Patriot propagated the report when its editor knew, or ought to have known, that it was without foundation. There is some excuse for the error of the Globe, for it is published a thousand miles away; but none for the Patriot, which could have known the facts by sending a reporter across the street.

OUR obituary column to-day contains a notice of the death of Mrs. William Ross, the wife of William Ross, Esq., of New London. She was indeed a most estimable woman in every relation of life. She bore her long and grievous sufferings with a patience and a cheerfulness that were wonderful to witness. She leaves behind her a long record of good deeds unpretendingly performed. We deeply sympathize with her husband and other relatives in their great loss.—Pat.

THE Lewis-Potosky Folies Dramatiques, who appear at Market Hall next week, are highly spoken of by the press of New York and Boston.

THE appearance of the wheat crop in France and England is all that could be desired, and if the promised yield is realized, it is computed that competition with the United States will reduce the price £1 per quarter. This means a saving to England and France together of £20,000,000 sterling.

This Company introduces a new feature at the opening of the Second Act, which is acknowledged by all to be a very great addition to the Opera. One of the fine effects is the Solo by the Middy (Master Willie) and Chorus by the full Company, receiving encore after encore every evening.

The following is what the "Western Chronicle," of Kentville, says: "We may boldly assert that the Louise Leighton Opera Co., of New York, played to the largest audience and with the best performance ever seen in Kentville. Our greatest anticipations were more than realized."

The Opera will be given with all the realistic effects ever seen in any New York Theatre, with the following carefully selected casts, headed by Miss LOUISE LEIGHTON, who, having sung the role of Josephine some three hundred times in all the principal cities of the United States and Canada, is the accepted star in that part; and Mr. T. Wilmot Eckert, who made his debut at the same time, has achieved universal favor. Mr. Eckert is the original Ralph Rackstraw in this country; the singing and acting of Mr. Pyke, as Captain Corcoran, has not been excelled. The Company altogether forming one of the strongest Opera Companies now travelling.
