

THE DAILY EXAMINER. MAY 22, 1891.

The Fight in the First District.

The candidature of the non-resident, Mr. A. B. Warburton, of Charlottetown, is a mistake. This fact is now clearly seen by the Crit claquers and office seekers.

The pretence that Mr. Warburton was "called" by the Grits of the First District is altogether too thin. Mr. Warburton would never have been thought of as a representative of New London and Crapaud if the Government Cabal in this city had not, for purposes of its own, required the assistance of another city lawyer.

The men who compose this cabal are now pointing at Dr. MacNeill as "the hero of the smallpox claim." This is, for them, a most unfortunate allusion! What are the facts? Dr. MacNeill inspired his practice, risked the lives of his wife and children, risked his own life, in order that he might save the country from the horrors of a general attack of smallpox.

Dr. MacNeill was successful in his efforts. He saved the lives of his patients. He prevented the spread of the contagion. He performed a notable public service, for which he certainly deserved credit and liberal payment. The late Government thought that he wanted too much. He asked that the question be submitted to a jury of his countrymen in a court of law.

Jobbery and Neglect.

WHILE the Commissioner of Public Works is in Crapaud seeking for jobs to be done in the First District of Queen's County, and also for voters who are open to the influence of the political jobber, public works are being neglected all over the Province.

The First Division.

At the first division of the House of Commons, in 1887 (after the general election of that year) the Government majority was thirty-two. At the first division after the election of 1891, the Government majority was twenty-nine.

Liquor Selling on Sundays.

DECENT people shut their shops on Sundays; a number of the liquor sellers don't. When one of the latter is convicted for a violation of the Lord's Day Act the only punishment inflicted under the law is a paltry fine of $1.62.

THE MARKS.—The market to-day was well attended, and for a while business was quite brisk. Eggs were in good supply at 9-10 cents per dozen.

Election in the First District. NOMINATIONS TO-DAY.

Roderick McNeill, of Stanley Bridge, Physician, was proposed by the Hon. William Campbell, Park Corner; seconded by D. P. McLeod, Bradalbane; Thomas Reid, Clifton; John McLeod, Rose Valley, Lot 67; James Smith, Clifton; O. B. Wadman, Crapaud; John Bradley, Kelley's Cross; Malcolm MacDonald, Bradalbane; John McNeill, Bonshaw; Patrick Reid, Hope River; Albert Simpson, French River.

Alexander B. Warburton, of Charlottetown, Barrister-at-Law, proposed by Matthew Smith, Hampton, Lot 29; seconded by George McKenzie, Clifton; Neil MacDonald, Hampton; Donald McKenzie, Rose Valley; John McKinnon, DeSable; Samuel Beaton, Bonshaw; Peter P. McGuigan, Hope River; John McPhail, Argyle Shore; John McGuigan, Hope River; James J. Bethune, Rose Valley; Robert Sutherland, New London; Donald F. Nicholson, Springton.

Movements of the Fish.

(Fisheries Intelligence Bureau.) HALIFAX, May 20.—The herring fishery is reported good to-day at Perce, Que., and fair at Grand River and Paspébiac. Herring are reported very scarce on the north coast of New Brunswick and the north coast of P. E. Island, but plentiful at Georgetown. A few herring are being taken at White Head, N. S., and they are reported striking in at Yarmouth.

Personal.

His Worship the Mayor is out again. Mr. Gladstone has almost recovered his usual health. Senator Macdonald left for Ottawa this morning.

Mr. Rennie Laird, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Halifax, is visiting the Island. Mr. B. Rattenbury, of Charlottetown, was registered at the Queen Hotel, Halifax, on Wednesday.

At the Osborne yesterday were Jas. F. Lacroix, Uxg; Daniel Macdonald, Vernon River Bridge; W. Mutch, K. R. Morrison, Eldon; G. Atwood, Truro, L. D. deGuerin, Quebec; registered this morning.

The arrivals at the Davies yesterday included R. Rogers, Montreal; Chas. F. Richards, Berlin, Ont.; John Parkhurst, Montreal; Daniel McDonald, Pictou; William Campbell, Melville; Robert Sutherland, New London; Captain Finlayson, S. S. Stanley; James Ross, Mount Stewart. C. A. Seney, Montreal; J. N. Sutherland, Morell, registered this forenoon.

Miss Maggie Large and Miss Bessie Fraser returned by the Coban this morning, having spent a very pleasant winter in Montreal. Rev. Sylvère J. Arsenault, of St. Joseph's College, Memramcook, arrived here last Friday evening, on a visit to his parents and friends at Egmont Bay. He returned to Memramcook Monday morning.—Journal.

Mr. J. A. McPhail, B. A., M.D., arrived in Charlottetown, from Montreal, last night. He leaves for Quebec on Monday, and will sail by the Lake Ontario for Europe. After a month on the continent. He will join the C. P. R. Steamship Empress of China at Naples, Italy, and complete the journey round the world, remaining a month in Japan and returning to Montreal in the autumn. He is making the journey to write a series of articles for a syndicate of American papers at the head of which is the New York Times.

Good Music.

Gorton's Minstrels will arrive from Summerside on the 10.15 a. m. train, and at 11.45 the Gold Band will render some choice concert selections on Market Square. This Band is an exceptionally good one, and should be heard by every lover of first-class music. Immediately after the concert, the Minstrels will make a grand uniformed street parade of all the principal streets.

The Butte, Mont., Daily Miner says:—A full house greeted Gorton's Minstrels at Maguire's Opera House last evening for their opening performance. The troupe is small in numbers, but made up of the best material that can possibly be collected together in the minstrel line.

SIR EDWARD KENNY'S WILL.—The will of the late Sir Edward Kenny, who died at Halifax recently, has been filed. It leaves $400 each to the following institutions: St. Vincent de Paul, Charitable Irish Society, the Roman Catholic Orphanage Asylum, the Poor School of the Convent of the Sacred Heart, the deaf and dumb institution, the asylum for the blind, and the Sisters of Charity to assist in building a church on Bedford Basin. To the Archbishop $1,600 to assist in completing St. Mary's cathedral. To be distributed among charitable institutions, $500; to each of his sons who are in holy orders, $8,000; to Lady Kenny, $20,000, in addition to the interest of $80,000.
