Local and Other Items.

FROM BOSTON.—The steamer State of Indiana will arrive here about 7 o'clock this evening.

YOUNG LADIES' JOURNAL.—This popular magazine for August, is at the Diamond Bookstore.

PICNIC.—St James' Church Sabbath School will hold their annual picnic at Shaw's Wharf on Monday, 3rd August.

NEW CELERY.—Mr. McKinnon, of Charlottetown Royalty, had some fine roots of new celery in market to-day.

VERY PLEASANT.—The Second Methodist church Sunday School moonlight excursion in the Southport last night was well attended and was greatly enjoyed.

I. O. O. F.—Representatives to the Grand Lodge to be held at Yarmouth, N. S., on Wednesday, 12th of August, were elected at St. Lawrence Lodge last evening.

WHITE WINGS.—In the yacht race on Halifax harbor on Saturday for the Lansdowne cup and squadron prizes the cutter Youla was the winner with the Lenore second.

FOR ST. JOHN'S.—The steamer Bonavista sailed for St. John's via Sydney about four o'clock yesterday afternoon, with a cargo including 69 sheep, 3 cows and 1 horse.

MEETING.—The officers and teachers of Zion Church Sunday School will meet this (Tuesday) evening at 8 sharp. A full attendance requested, as important business will come up.

HER SIGHT RESTORED.—A pilgrimage of 800 persons from Shefford County, Que., visited La Bonne Ste. Anne last week. One of the party, a blind girl, is said to have miraculously recovered her sight.

ADDRESS.—Mr. Timothy McDonald, teacher, was recently presented with a very flattering address on the occasion of his severing his connection with the school at Narrows Creek. He made a suitable reply.

STEREOPTICON ENTERTAINMENT.—As a whole the entertainment of last evening was excellent. We agree with the man who said that "the practical and verbal temperance lessons are alone worth more than the fee."

MR. FRANK DINGWELL has kindly consented to allow the First Methodist Sunday School to hold their annual picnic on his beautiful grounds at Marie, fronting on the St. Peter's Bay, on July 29th. Read the advertisement in to-day's paper.

MEDICAL.—The first regular meeting of the Maritime Medical Association will be held at Oddfellows Hall, St. John, N. B., to-morrow and the following day. Drs. McLeod, S. R. Jenkins and H. D. Johnson left this morning to take part in the proceedings.

ANOTHER DIRECTORY.—The St. John papers report that the Messrs. McAlpine are publishing a gazetter and guide of the Maritime Provinces, giving all towns and villages in the three provinces, with distance, fare, population, and whether express, telephone, telegraph or banking town or village.

POLICE COURT.—Two drunks were disposed of this morning, one for $1 or 4 days and the other for $2 or 8 days. The latter, who is an old offender, was told that if he did not leave the city within 24 hours after his release from jail he would be given three months' imprisonment.

PICNIC.—The members of the boys' branch of the League of the Cross intend holding their annual picnic, on Monday, the 27th inst., at Red Point. The site selected offers many inducements to parties wishing to spend a pleasant day. The steamer Southport will make two trips to the grounds, one at 9 30 a. m., and the other at 2 o'clock, p. m. An enjoyable day may be expected.

Men who are suffering from nervous debility, overwork, early indiscretions, or any of the numerous causes that break down the system, should use Dr Williams' Pink Pills. A certain blood builder and nerve restorer. They never fail. Try them. Sold by all dealers, or post paid on receipt of price (50c a box), Address Dr. Williams Med. Co., Brockville. Ont. 1w

TEA AT ST. PETER'S.—Don't forget that the big tea at the Head St. Peter's Bay takes place to-morrow. The tea is in aid of the Roman Catholic Church at that place. It promises to be a great success. The committee in charge of the arrangements have done everything in their power to ensure a pleasant time. All the amusements usual at such gatherings will be provided. The fares by rail have been placed at a specially low rate. The scenery in and about St. Peter's is unexcelled. By all means go and have a good time.

A BLACKMAILER IN TROUBLE.—Quebec detectives have arrested a young man named Lauzier, residing in St. Rochs, on a charge of attempting to blackmail a number of respectable young ladies by writing to them anonymous and immoral letters, accusing them of offences and threatening exposure unless the writer's demand for hush money to be left in a certain designated place at a certain hour was complied with. A trap was laid for the writer, and he was caught in the act of appropriating a decoy letter left for him on the stairway of the leading gallery of St. Rochs' Church. Lauzier admitted the offence, but did not appear to think he had done anything very wrong.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

LIES ABOUT THE DEAD.

Sir John Macdonald's C. P. Railway Stock.

A Lawsuit Threatened.

OTTAWA, July 21.

The Globe's Ottawa liar has made several false statements regarding Sir John Macdonald's stock in the Canadian Pacific Railway; and the Ottawa Free Press added to the Globe's remarks that Sir John Macdonald owned some railway bonds as well as C. P. R. shares, held in trust by other persons. Hugh John Macdonald denounces this last statement of the Free Press as utterly false. No such shares were held in trust. The amount of forty-one thousand dollars described as "bank shares and other stocks and securities" is made up of bank stock, stock in four or five loan societies and C. P. R. stock. How much C. P. R. stock his father owned Hugh John Macdonald could not say, at present. But whatever there is, was bought in the open market in eighteen eighty-eight. It is possible that legal proceedings will be instituted against the Globe and other offending papers.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Grits at Sixes and at Sevens.

PASSAGE OF FOUR DIVORCE BILLS.

OTTAWA, July 21.

In the House of Commons yesterday was private members day. The discussion on Clark Wallace's anti-combinsrers bill discovered members of the Opposition in consistent attitudes upon the policy of protection. While some stated that combines were the result of protection, others were decidedly unfavorable to the removal of duty upon specific lines, arguing, as did Lister, that no one industry should be selected for subjection to the chilly influences of unrestricted competition, unless all were treated alike. The bill stands for a third reading. The government have given notice they intend to take Monday for public business.

Four divorce bills passed on division, all the Catholic members voting against them.

Autograph Letter From the Queen.

Sympathy With Baroness Macdonald.

OTTAWA, July 21.

Baroness Macdonald has received an autograph letter from the Queen conveying her Majesty's personal sympathy, and an expression of her sense of the great loss sustained by Canada and the Empire generally in Sir John Macdonald's death.

Parliamentary Investigations.

OTTAWA, July 21.

The report was current yesterday that the Tarte-McGreevy inquiry will finish on Friday next. Robert McGreevy will be examined this morning.

The proceedings before the Public Accounts committee yesterday were uninteresting. The committee was occupied chiefly in examining Mr. Schreiber regarding the I. C. R. expenditure.

Memorial to Sir John Macdonald.

LONDON, July 21.

At a meeeting in London, Lord Dufferin presiding, it was resolved to invite a public subscription to erect a memorial to Sir John Macdonald in St. Paul's Cathedral.

Fishery Bulletin.

(Fisheries Intelligence Bureau Report.)

HALIFAX, July 21.—No fishing of any kind reported on the shores of Anticosti, and very poor in Quebec, excepting at Perce, where there was a good catch of herring. The Caraquet bankers returned home yesterday and report codfishing fair on banks, mackerel schooling off Maisonett and fair catches at Escuminac. All fisheries are poor in P. E. Island. The codfishery is still reported poor at all points, but mackerel hooking fair on the north side. The fisheries are still dull in Cape Breton, excepting at Launching and Arichat, where the cod and herring fisheries are fair. Mackerel and herring fishing reported fair at Canso and good at Liverpool, N. S. Cod and herring fair at Port Medway, and cod at Digby good Signs of squid at Lunenburg, but all other fishery poor. On Friday and Saturday there were very large catches of hake and haddock at Digby. Trawling still good at Campbell's, and line fishing fair.

Weather Bulletin.

TORONTO. July 12.—10 a. m.

Moderate winds, fair; no decided change in temperature.

MONTREAL, July 19.—It is rumored in political circles that in view of the movement in certain circles in favor of imperial federation Mr. Mercier will make an open declaration pronouncing himself in favor of independence, as the time has now come to choose between the two. It is also stated, in view of the existing war between the allied powers in Europe, the next agitation here would be to secure for Canada complete neutrality in case of any conflict, the same as exists for Belgium in Europe.
