Tougher Chinese Bargaining
Is Expected in Wheat Sales

By ARCH MACKENZIE
OTTAWA (CP)—The Liberal government has underlined its policy of support for the Canadian Wheat Board carry by the ball on grain export sales. But the wheat is to China under the expiring 2½-year agreement may require direct government intervention.
There are signs that Chinese bargaining terms, if a few more weeks of current deal was considered, would be tougher than ever. The current contract—historically the best deal in good intervention—should be agreed by June 30 and negotiations for the tougher should begin any time now.
One reason for anticipation of tougher bargaining by China lies in reports from a Canadian described by one Canadian Wheat Board official as only rumour—that better cross have reduced Chinese plans to purchase grain from Canada, Australia and France.

It is learned on good authority here that the former Progressive Conservative cabinet had actually approved the admission of about $350,000 worth of textiles to China in return for reducing the trade imbalance between the two countries. This approval became void after the April 8 election victory by the Liberals.
The textile imports would have raised opposition from the Canadian industry and Japan.
Special measures were approved to satisfy Japan, which has accepted voluntary quotas on many textiles sold to this country.

Since Japan is a substantial wheat purchaser itself, the former cabinet is understood to have sanctioned an increase in the Japanese textile quotas to equal the amount of Chinese textiles to be admitted.
If Chinese pressure is exerted again to boost sales after being negotiated soon after being sworn in by the Canadian Wheat Board, Crown agency selling prairie oats, rye and barley, would be responsible for export sales in full. He said it didn't think it would be necessary for him to leave the country on such missions.
Former agriculture minister

CHANGED PRACTICE
When Yugoslavia recently bought 7,200,000 bushels of wheat on credit, the board made the announcement from Winnipeg—a contract to the Conservative practice of having the agriculture minister make such statements. This practice will be continued, it is understood.
The long-term agreement with China covered purchase of 186, 700,000 bushels of wheat, 67,700, 000 bushels of barley and all the flour, which China has declined to take at Canadian prices.

Opening lead — four of hearts.
It stands to reason that when you have a way of playing a hand that guarantees the contract, it would be foolish to attempt any other method of play that would jeopardize it.
The principle is self-evident, but its application is an entirely different matter. The declarer sometimes overlooks the sure line of play, and occasionally has to pay the piper for his oversight.

He does this by setting it in the stance for an endplay. He wins the ace of hearts, draws two rounds of trumps, cashes the king and ace of spades, and ruff a spade. He then leads a diamond to the ace and plays a heart from dummy.
At this point it does not matter to him how the diamonds are divided. First, not a what happens in the actual case. If East wins the trick, he is bound to ruff and declare a ruff and discard the contract. If West
