The guests were received by the sister of the bride-to-be, Mrs. John Haslam. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with white wedding bells and white streamers. The dining room table with its lace cloth, centered with silver baskets of white gladioli and tall white tapers, which were lighted at the tea hour, was a picture of daintiness.

Mrs. George Sharp replenished, and assisting the hostesses in serving were Mrs. Harold Coggins, Mrs. Earle Sawyer, Mrs. Everett MacLeod and Mrs. Heath Gordon. Mrs. Earl Sawyer had charge of the guest book.

A daintily decorated basket of personal articles for the bride-to-be was presented to her by Mrs. Heath Gordon and Mrs. S. Jardine and Mrs. J. Myers assisted in opening the gifts.
