Let Us Send You the COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE THREE months, FREE

Three months' free trial for merely sending your name. No money, no letter, nothing but your address on the attached coupon. If, after three months' trial, you wish to have the magazine stopped, merely tell us, and the copies received will cost you nothing. You are to be the exclusive judge. And there'll be no questions, no quibbling, nothing. We'll leave the decision all to you. If, after three months' test you find you need the COSMOPOLITAN, let us send you the the magazine for the full year.

Remember, though, that in reading the COSMOPOLITAN, you are reading one of the oldest high-class magazines published to day in America. Such eminent and great men have in the past contributed to the reputation of the COSMOPOLITAN as President Roosevelt, Mark Twain, President Eliot, John Wannamaker, Count Tolstoi, Henry Watterson, Jas Whitcomb Riley, etc, etc.

The following list of eminent contributors—taken from among a hundred others—will indicate the remarkably high standard that will be maintained by the COSMOPOLITAN 1906—FICTION: Sir Gilbert Parker, Alfred Henry Lewis, Booth Tarkington, ART: Frederic Remington, Henri Lanois, Frank Verbeck, SPECIAL: Henry Watterson, Edwin Markham, Elbert Hubbard. No finer array of talent could possibly be offered than the list of world specialists named above.

"Home" magazine is the key note to the COSMOPOLITAN. In no sense is the COSMOPOLITAN a small, cheap, 16-page mail-order monthly. It is, to the contrary, a great 240-page illustrated home magazine. Its editorial policy aims at every phase of clean, wholesome home life. An abundance of bright stories, full of fun, life and action, will interest every member of the family. Topics of the day are treated sanely, by experts of international repute—political reform, international affairs, economics, social problems, and a hundred other timely topics of which every intelligent man or woman must be informed. The COSMOPOLITAN also affords unusual advantages for the refining and educative value of art,—Remington, Lanois, Fogarty, Terbeck, are only a few of the masters represented. The COSMOPOLITAN, furthermore has just begun one of the most remarkable exposés ever attempted by a contemporary magazine,—"The Treason of the Senate," by David Graham Phillips. It will be strictly impossible, during this series, for us to insure newspaper purchasers a copy of the magazine, but, We do guaranteed that all readers who have, under this special offer, applied direct to the office for copies, will receive regularly the magazine during this brilliant series of articles. Be sure to read this most scathing of all political exposures. We thoroughly believe that every intelligent reader will not only take but actually want the COSMOPOLITAN, should he once see the magazine itself. And that's why we offer a three months' free trial at our expense. We leave the decision entirely upon the merit of the monthly. If you don't like the three months received, you may stop the paper, and the copies received won't cost you a cent. The offer is clear, plain, straightforward. You are to be the only judge. We are going to leave it all to your decision. Could anything be more fair? Fill out to-day the coupon below—place in an envelope—re-mail to us—and receive three months' test free. But mail the coupon to-day—tomorrow will never come. COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE 1789 BROADWAY, NEW YORK

I accept your liberal offer of three months' free trial subscription to the COSMOPOLITAN, as advertised in the L'IMPARTIAL Tignish, P. E. Island. If at the end of the three months I do not like the magazine, I will let you know and have the paper discontinued, under which conditions, it is understood that the copies received shall cost me nothing. Otherwise you may send me the COSMOPOLITAN for a full year and bill me at the regular subscription price of only one dollar. Write plainly. Name..... Street..... City..... State.....

WAITING FOR DEATH, BUT NOT WITHOUT HOPE. "There is a poor woman in this parish apparently just waiting for death to come through consumption. She has not the means to go to a Sanatorium, or she would probably be at one before this. She is still comparatively strong, walks about quite a lot—drives sometimes, too—but every day, of course, is growing worse. Would there be any possibility of her being taken into your Home for Consumptives? It would be a mercy if she could be permitted to enter it. I would much appreciate an early reply, as every day means so much."—REV. HAROLD SUTTON, Incumbent, Belmont, Ont.

LOST TWO DAUGHTERS. "I am advised by Dr. J. D. Wilson to write you concerning how soon I could get my wife admitted to Consumptive Hospital at Gravenhurst, also please send me pamphlet re terms while there. I have been told that it is free, so please let me hear from you soon as possible. I have lost two daughters, and my wife contracted the disease from our eldest one, who died ten months ago. I am a working man and not able to pay a high rate, but still anxious to do what I can."—A. CAMPBELL, London, Ont.

The above are typical of scores, indeed hundreds, of appeals constantly coming before the trustees of the

Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives

No effort is being spared to meet every call. Not a single applicant has ever been refused admission to the Free Hospital because of his or her poverty, and the anxiety of the trustees to keep none waiting is shown in the decision reached a few weeks ago to increase the accommodation by twenty-five beds.

NEW PATIENTS ON WAY TO HOSPITAL

This increase in patients will add heavily to the burden of maintenance and can only be covered by increased generosity on the part of friends in all parts of Canada. Patients have been admitted from every Province in the Dominion, and it is with confidence in the response to our appeals, that the trustees believe will come from Canadians everywhere, that these additional burdens have been assumed.

Where a cause more urgent? Where a greater call to help suffering Canadians? Where will your money do more good?
