Miscellaneous News.

A colossal marble statue to the memory of Andrew Johnson is to be erected in Tennessee.

The cost to Maryland of supporting 1,500 troops for 21 days, during the labor riots, was but $3,861.76.

Boston's next excitement is to be a baby-show in the Music Hall. Three sets of triplets and 16 twins have already been promised for the exhibition.

The great French historian and statesman, Thiers, died rich. The property which he left, besides his library and objects of art, which are bequeathed to the state, is estimated at about $2 700,000.

There is just one thing about it. The lady who insists on carrying a good share of her dress in her hand has got to keep her shoes tied up or let everybody know that she left home in a hurry.

A destructive fire broke out in Providence, R. I., on the evening of the 27th ult., in the centre of the business portion of the city. It was burning two hours before it was got under control, and caused losses to the amount of $750,000.

Times are so hard that gentlemen with large families scatter the girls around different summer resorts; so, after having worn all their dresses once they can exchange duds by express and thus keep up appearances.

The best time on record in the matrimonial race can be conceded to Anthony Keough and a Miss Rivers, of Cohoes, N.Y. At three in the afternoon they met, became acquainted, and before four in the evening were married. The bride is sixteen and the groom nineteen years of age.

A Wabash editor returns thanks for a centipede sent him by mail from Texas, being the first cent of any kind he had seen for months.

While Dr. Mary Walker was lecturing lately in one of the rural towns, it is said that a youth cried out: "Are you the Mary that had a little lamb?" "No," was the sharp reply, "but your mother had a little jackass!"

Miss MacMahon, of Stowe, Vermont, who is 101 years of age, was discovered the other day at the tub doing her weekly washing. This comes of living a life of single blessedness. If Miss MacMahon had married some kind, loving heart when she was in her twenties, she might have worked herself to death before reaching the age of fifty years, and thus escaped hard labor at the wash tub in her old age.

"No, pa," she said tearfully, "I renounced Theodore forever, and I will never marry him. I saw him in the regatta when he had no shirt on, and I'll never marry a man with a wart on his back."

A singular case of mistaken identity has occurred at Grantchester, near Cambridge. An inquest was recently held upon the body of a man found drowned at Grantchester. It was supposed to be the body of a man named Dazeley, but at the inquest two witnesses identified it as the body of John Adams, of Chesterton, and the jury rendered a verdict accordingly. Upon inquiries being made at Chesterton, Dazaley was found alive in the workhouse, and Adams at home with his wife. The body has not yet been identified.

An Englishman who has made a bet of $250,000 that he will in six years walk through France, Germany, North Russia and Siberia to China, has started from Calais on his journeying. His bet obliges him to return through India, Persia and Southern Russia, and from there over Greece and Italy to France. He must be in Liverpool by the 1st of July, 1883.

The New Westminster, B. C., Guardian says: A canoe arrived at Granville the other day bringing news of a murder committed at the Squawmish Indian village, the result of a potlatch which took place there last week. It appears that a young man, rendered temporarily insane by drinking the vile stuff known as Indian whisky, seized his mother, and absolutely twisted her head till he broke her neck. These potlatches have become a disgrace to the Province, and call for some immediate remedy.

An immense cave has been discovered in Josephine County, Oregon. It has been found to be over five miles in extent, and the exploration is not yet completed. The stalactite formation overhead is said to be unique,—not similar to that in other caves of which more is known. A party will shortly make a thorough investigation of the mammoth cave.

There is considerable excitement in English prize ring circles over the coming fight between Tompkins Gilbert, champion of England, and Tom Allen, champion of America. All the stakes, £100, have been posted, and the contest is to take place in London district on October 29. Gilbert is over six feet in height and weighs over eleven stone —154 pounds. The conditions are catch weight, and the battle is to be fought according to the new rules of the London prize ring. Allen is in training for the contest under Donnelly, an American who went over with him. Jim Stewart the Scotch giant, has challenged the winner to fight under the same conditions for £100 or £200 a side.

Danbury makes an agitated young man attempt to pop the question to a very pretty and self-possessed girl. He stutters and blunders, and she remarks: "Thomas, wait for your second wind." Which Thomas does.

The war correspondent of the London News says that at the battle near Kazelevo, where the Russians were defeated, "a Russian officer, who was observed gallantly endeavoring to rally the men, was killed, and the body, when subsequently discovered, proved to be that of a woman. She She was buried where she fell."

The city of Paris owes a debt that might put New York or any other American city to shame. On the first of January last it was $380,000,000, consisting of nine separate loans, five of which, amounting to $200,000,000, were negotiated under the Imperial regime, the remaining $180,000,000 having been contracted since the German war. The payments for interest and into the sinking fund that the debt calls for are $21,000,000 per annum, and the total taxes collected from the people are $54,000,000 a year.

CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

WHILE taking this opportunity of thanking our numerous customers for the liberal manner in which they have patronized

OUR NEW STUDIO,

we would inform them that we have now increased facilities for the production of first-class work, and are prepared to make PHOTOGRAPHS of a Style and Quality that has never been before attempted in this City.

We have on exhibition, at our Rooms, a large number of Photograps of every variety, including the

the most beautiful style of Photograph known, possessing a softness and delicacy of coloring that has never been equalled. This elegant picture has become deservedly popular elsewhere, and cannot fail to become so here.

Though the finish of our Photographs cannot be excelled, we would direct attention to the beautiful which we make. They possess a highly enamelled surface, and are practically indestructible, and will retain their freshness and beauty for any length of time. If they become soiled they can easily be cleaned, as they will not lose any of their beauty by being wet. This valuable quality, combined with their remarkable elegance, make them very suitable for presents; while the difficulty of their production will prevent them ever becoming so common as to lessen their value. Our patrons can have one or all of their Photos finished in this style—an advantage which cannot be obtained elsewhere.

We give special attention to making Groups of Families, Societies, Schools, &c.

Our pictures of children are sufficient evidence of our success in this difficult branch of our art.

Our ENLARGEMENTS, finished in India Ink, Pastel, Crayon, Oil and Water Colors, have made a favorable reputation for themselves throughout the Lower Provinces.

Parties intending to have Photographs made will find it to their advantage to sit early, as the number of our customers makes some delay in the delivery of the Photos unavoidable. We prefer to have our sitters come by appointment.

Photographs can be obtained for less money elsewhere; but in this case we ask that quality be given the preference; assuring the public that they will find our charges very moderate.
