Epps's Cocoa.

BREAKFAST—SUPPER.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided for our breakfast and supper a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified by pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

THE HOUSEHOLD

HOME-MADE CANDY.

Full and Explicit Directions for Making Some Toothsome Kinds.

To say nothing of the really expensive fancy candies, good candy of a plainer quality is often beyond the purse of the mothers of large families of little children, who are desirous of giving them a liberal supply at holidays, and as it can be made in the home kitchen at a very small cost, the art should be learned by all housekeepers.

While French candies and bonbons can be made at home in perfection, they are troublesome and expensive, and can only be made successfully after much experience. For busy mothers the more simple varieties will be much more satisfactory, quite as pleasing to the little ones, and far more wholesome.

CREAM CANDY.—Put 4 cups of granulated sugar with 2 of water and 1 of thick cream in a kettle; stir until the sugar dissolves; add a table spoonful of butter and a pinch of soda. Let boil until it is brittle. Flavor with vanilla. Pour into buttered plates, and cool quickly. Take up, and pull rapidly and evenly until the mass becomes soft and smooth to the touch. Draw out into flat sticks, and let stand in a dry place until creamy, then drop in wax or butter-papers, and put away in an air tight box.

STICK CANDY.—Put 3 pounds of granulated sugar in a kettle with 2 teacups of water and a teaspoonful of cream of tartar dissolved in a little warm water. ... over the fire until the sugar is dissolved, cover the kettle while the syrup ... Skim carefully. When a ... will harden in cold water, ... from the fire; add the ... flavoring; pour out into ... plates. When cool, pull, ... sticks. If clear candy is ... in the plates when nearly ... it off into squares of flat ... which when cold can be broken ...

—Put 2 pounds of brown sugar, ... a cup of water, in a candy ... oil; add 4 ounces of butter, ... thick (not hard); flavor with ... take from the fire; pour into ... buttered tins, about the eighth of ... inch in thickness. When cool, mark ... into squares; press nearly through ... the bottom. When hard and cold, tap the bottom and sides of the tin to loosen the candy, turn out, and break apart.

OLD-FASHIONED BUTTER-SCOTCH.—Put 3 pounds of yellow sugar in a kettle, with three quarters of a pound of butter. Set over the fire to melt; let boil until thick, stirring all the while to prevent scorching. Take from the fire; pour into buttered tins or trays. When stiff, mark off into squares. When cold, break apart, and wrap each square in wax paper. This candy will keep a long time, and improve with age.

NUT BARS.—Peanuts, almonds, English walnuts, or pecans may be used for this candy. Prepare the nuts by removing the inner covering and chopping them. Grease the bottom and sides of a broad shallow tin pan with fresh butter and put the nuts into it, spreading them evenly. Put a pound of granulated sugar, with half a teacup of water and a pinch of cream of tartar, into a kettle, and boil until thick, but not too brittle. Pour the syrup over the nuts, and set aside to cool. When slightly stiff, mark off into wide bars with a sharp knife, and let stand several days, when it will become soft and delicious.

COCOANUT CREAM BARS.—Boil three pounds of granulated sugar, a teacup of water, and half a teaspoonful of cream of tartar together until thick; flavor; take from the fire, let cool slightly in the kettle, then with a large wooden spoon rub and scrape the mixture against the sides of the kettle until it looks creamy. Add a large grated cocoanut, mix well, but do not let stand too long. Pour into wide shallow tins, covered with buttered paper. When cold lift the paper out, cut the candy into bars, and stand aside a day or two before using. Chocolate, or any nuts desired, may be used in place of the cocoanut.

POP-CORN CANDY.—Put 2 cups of sugar, 2 table-spoonfuls of butter, and a cup of water in a kettle to boil until the syrup threads. Mix in 4 quarts of popped corn, stir, take from the fire, and stir until cool; make into balls or little flat cakes.

CHOCOLATE CARAMELS.—Put a pound of brown sugar into a saucepan with half a pound of grated chocolate, 2 table spoonfuls of molasses, an ounce of butter, half a cup of milk, and a teaspoonful of vanilla; let heat slowly and stir until dissolved; boil until it will harden when dropped in cold water. Take from the fire, turn into a buttered square pan, and mark off into squares with a dull knife. Stand in a cold place, when hard, break apart and wrap in waxed paper.

COCOANUT CARAMELS.—Put 3 pounds of granulated sugar with a table-spoonful of butter, a cup of milk, and 2 teaspoonfuls of extract of lemon in a kettle. Set over the fire and stir until dissolved add one grated cocoanut, boil until stiff, pour into buttered tins, let stand a few minutes, mark off into tiny squares, let cool and break apart. For a variety the cocoanut may be omitted, and the caramels flavored with vanilla, lemon or pine apple. All caramels are better when freshly made.

CREAM CHOCOLATES (made without boiling).—Put the white of 1 egg and an equal quantity of cold water into a bowl, flavor with vanilla, and beat until frothy; sift in sufficient confectioner's XXX sugar to make a stiff paste, work all together until smooth, form into small balls, lay on grooved paper, and set in a cool dry place for two or three hours. Put half a pound of chocolate into a small tin saucepan, and set in warm water to melt. Put one ball at a time on the end of a fork, dip into the melted chocolate until well covered, drain, and slip on to greased paper. Stand in a cool place over night.

CREAM DATES.—Remove the stones from dates, make the cream as above directed; roll into oblong shape, put into the date where the stone was removed, press the two halves together, roll the whole in granulated sugar, and set away.

CREAM WALNUT.—Take large walnut meats from the shells; make the cream out into small round cakes, press the meats into the sides, and roll in granulated sugar.

MARSH MALLOWS.—Dissolve by heating over a slow fire 8 ounces of gum-arabic in 3 gills of water, stir, and TOTALLY ECLIPSED.

A Case More Wonderful than Dr. Rose's —A Lady Dying of Brights' Disease is Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

PORTLAND, Feb. 12.—The people of this neighborhood have not yet finished talking of the remarkable cure of diabetes effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills in the case of Dr. E. A. Rose, of this village. The doctor is authority for the statement that his case is totally eclipsed by that of a lady, a patient of his, whom Brights' disease had brought to the verge of the grave. He prescribed Dodd's Kidney Pills for her, and, thanks to them, she is now cured. These pills are manufactured by Dr. L. A. Smith & Co., Toronto, and are sold by all dealers, or will be mailed on receipt of price; fifty cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50.

The World's Columbian Exposition.

1. The whole civilized world has been interested in the Great Celebration. The crowned heads of Europe, the governments of all the famous nations of the globe, the lands of the Orient and the islands of the sea have all been co-operating to render the Exhibition worthy of the greatest event of modern times. Its magnitude and marvelous character can only be described by saying that it has comprised all the rarest products of land and sea, the most dazzling wonders of nature and the grandest productions of human genius.

2. The Great Fair which celebrates the discovery of America by Columbus has never been equalled. It was larger and more magnificent than any similar exhibition ever held. Over twenty million dollars was expended in its grand spacious buildings, and the result was the most attractive Exhibition the world ever saw.

3. This gorgeous display is vividly portrayed in our PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION. This captivating volume is a brilliant panorama of the Great Fair which has awakened such a world-wide interest.

This wonderful work is a royal octavo volume of over 800 large double-column pages, 10½ inches long by 7½ inches wide. It contains nearly twice the amount of matter in an ordinary quarto book, and is therefore equal to a large volume of 1600 pages.

It contains a complete history of the World-renowned Exposition at Chicago; captivating descriptions of the magnificent Buildings and marvellous Exhibits, such as Works of Art, Textile Fabrics, Machinery, Natural Products, Latest Inventions, Discoveries, etc., with a full description of Chicago, its wonderful Buildings, Parks, etc., by ex-Governor Wm. E. Cameron, of the World's Columbian Exposition History Co., with an introduction by Hon. Thomas W. Palmer, ex-U. S. Senator and ex-Minister to Spain, including a chapter on the Women's Department by Frances E. Willard, President of the World's and National Woman's Christian Temperance Unions.

CONDITIONS.—It is printed from clear, new type, on fine calendered paper, and is embellished with a large number of BEAUTIFUL ENGRAVINGS, which charm everyone who sees them.

This grand work surpasses anything that has yet appeared in this line, and will be sold by subscription only. Wait for it; take no other.
