

Margery Daw.

I'm in love, but I've never told her, Never told the maiden I love; I lie in the long green grass and behold her, As she sways all day in the bows above, I'm a student with toil o'er laden, And a student ever should books prefer, But she's such a darling dainty maiden, My thoughts go swinging away with her.

See saw!

Margery Daw! Up in the apple tree Margery swings; And I, lying under, Watch her and wonder What is the ditty that Margery sings.

And she goes swinging, and I go slaving, Turning the leaves of a musty book— But surely that was her white hand waving, And surely that was my darlings look, A perfect fortress of books I sit in— Ethics, economy, politics, law,— But all the pages I vow were written By that little philosopher, Margery Daw.

See saw!

Margery Daw! Up in the apple tree Margery swings, And I, lying under, Watch her and wonder What is the ditty that Margery sings.

The light is fading, the day grows older, And now the westerling sun is gone, And Margery, I no more behold her; In the deep cool grass I lie alone. For Margery was a sunbeam only, And I was a fool for all my pains; But whenever I'm sad and whenever I'm lonely.

Back comes Margery, back again.

See saw!

Margery Daw! Up in the apple tree Margery swings, For "Life's a dream, And love's a shadow!" And that is the ditty Margery sings.

A Flea for Horses.

A Stratford (Conn.) woman, who is a member for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, accuses local Christians of going to church to hear of the glories of another world and beat down Satan under their feet, all the while having horses outside fighting 1,000 devils in the shape of flies and mosquitoes.—Exchange.

Vanderbilt and Gould.

There is something wonderful alike in the manner of Vanderbilt and Gould, in spite of the fact that one is large in physique, and the other small; and I presume that it arises from their distrust of mankind, based on the supposition that everybody who approaches is reaching for their purse. They are visibly nervous, their speech is similar jerky, and they instinctively avoid looking anybody in the eyes.—N. Y. Cor. Inter-Ocean.

Reflecting on a Future State.

A Pontiac little five-year-old son of Col. S. S. Matthews was told at Sunday-school that when he died he would leave his body here. After his return home he was much troubled in regard to it, and questioned his parents. His mother explained by saying: "You will take all the good with you, but leave all that's naughty here below." He thought a moment, and looking up, said: "Well, I guess I'll be awful thin when I get there."—Detroit Post.

The Prima Donna's Share.

Payment to singers has sometimes taken an odd form. When Mlle. Zeile, a vocalist from the Theatre Lyrique at Paris, was making a professional tour round the world some years ago, she gave a concert in the Society Islands. She agreed to sing an air from "Norma" and a few other songs, and was to get a third of the receipts. When counted, the prima donna's share was found to consist of three pigs, twenty-three turkeys, forty-four chickens, 5,000 coconuts, besides a quantity of bananas, lemons and oranges.—Chicago Herald.

To Play Postoffice.

For a Postoffice—any good-sized card-board box will do for this purpose. The lid should be fastened to it, so that when it is stood up it will open up like a cupboard door; it must be closed by means of a button and a loop of elastic. In the top of the box, as it stands up, and in the upper end of the door, a slit must be cut out about an inch wide and from five to six inches long, so as to allow of the small parcels, but yet not large enough to admit of a child's hand, while on the door of the postoffice should be written the times of the post. Most children are fond of writing letters to one another, and this will, of course, give rise to a grand manufacture of note paper, envelopes and postal cards, and they will call forth all their ingenuity in designing and coloring monograms and crests for their note paper and envelopes. An envelope must be taken carefully to pieces to form a flat pattern; then those cut from it have to be folded, gummed together, and a touch of gum put on the tip of the flap; a monogram to correspond with the note paper must be drawn on it, and finally, they must be done up in neat packets, say a half dozen in each. It is wonderful what occupation this postbox will afford where there is a large party of children; of course, a postman must be chosen, and a bag must be made for the letters, and so on.

NOTICE

To Our Numerous Customers.

On account of the tobacco crop of 1883 being so poor, we did not buy much, and selected only the best of it, as we always wish to keep our "T. & B. Myrtle" brand up to the standard; and therefore there may be a scarcity of "T. & B. Myrtle" Plug for a short time. If such is the case there will be a full supply on the market by the end of October. The tobacco we are now about to manufacture is the finest we have ever had, and we know it will please our numerous customers.

Yours respectfully,

GEO. E. TUCKETT & SON.

OUR GRAND DISPLAY OF SPRING CLOTHING AND FURNISHINGS IS VERY TEMPTING.

The Custom Tailoring Department is full of Neat, Nobby, and Reliable Goods.

The Men's Department is loaded with an immense display of New Spring Suits. The Hat Department—well, everybody understands that our Hat Department has advantages over the smaller establishments that place it at the head, and secures for it the bulk of the trade. We are displaying the largest variety of Spring Styles of Hats ever shown, and include all the popular shapes.

The Boys' Department is unquestionably the best and most attractive in the city. The Furnishing Goods Department is not only well stocked with all that is solid and staple, but contains much that is choice and novel.

No doubt about it. Ours is the largest and best selected stock ever seen in this city,—not only largest in quantity, but largest in variety of shapes,—largest in variety of materials,—largest in correct styles,—largest in every way. What more could we say, unless it be that OUR PRICES ARE RIGHT,—RELIABLE, HONEST.

New and Original Departure in Coal Cooking Stoves COMBINING DURABILITY, HEAT AND ECONOMY.

THE above Stove I invented and patented in 1876, and at the present time HUNDREDS ARE IN USE, giving perfect satisfaction. A large number have been in constant use for eight years, and the repairs have been very trifling, in many instances none have been required. This valuable experience should be sufficient evidence of their durability, which is accounted for in the following:—It has, instead of a Lined Fire Box, two heavy Curved Cylinders, which obviate the expense connected with all Square Cooking Stoves of being compelled to renew Linings and Grates, at least once or twice every year. The heat being radiated from the Cylinders to the floor, where most needed, overcomes a serious objection to all kinds of ordinary Coal Cooking Stoves. The Cylinders are situated directly under the cover holes, and a fire may be made in one or both, thus adapting it for use either in winter or summer, with equal satisfaction, besides effecting a great saving in fuel. I have also attached the PATENT TELESCOPE OVEN to all my Elevated Oven Wood Stoves, such as the Waterloo, Niagara, Star, &c., causing the thousands using them to exclaim—My Stoves are worth TEN DOLLARS MORE than the same kind made by other foundries. The trade and retail purchasers will please bear in mind the fact that although a great advantage is claimed for my own Oven above all others, they cost no more, and being the sole manufacturer and patentee, no other factory can supply. Enquire for Fawcett's Patent Telescope Oven, and if your dealer has none on hand send direct to the Sackville Stove Foundry.

I am adding several new and handsome Patterns this season, which, with my former large variety of One Hundred Different Patterns and Sizes of Cooking, Parlor, Office and Hall Stoves, also Farmers Boilers, Hollowware, Ploughs, Stove Pipes and Tiuware, comprise the most complete assortment offered by any manufacturer in the Lower Provinces. Terms and prices will be found as favorable as can be obtained elsewhere.
