SOLOMON SLOW'S ADVICE

What I Would Do, or Have Done, if I Were Boss.

I would have the City School Board use all pupils alike.

I would have the School Board use the widow's children the same as those of a government official.

I would have fair play and no favors in the Board of School Trustees.

I would keep our watering cart at work.

Oh, city men, relieve us from the dust!

I would build a loop line of the Southern Railway to suit every man in the district.

SOLOMON SLOW.

OBITUARY.

The death of Mrs. Daniel McPherson at Darlington has called forth much sympathy in the community. Last winter her medical adviser decided that an operation was necessary, and she was taken to the P. E. Island Hospital. But the best skill failed. The very large assembly of friends who attended the funeral to the cemetery at Brookfield was a feeling testimony of the esteem in which she was held. She leaves a husband and six children to mourn. Our sincere sympathy is extended.

WEDDED TO-DAY.

Nuptials of Miss Lillian Dodd and Mr. Harry Mahon.

An exceedingly pretty wedding was celebrated this afternoon at St. Paul's Church, when the rector, Rev. Leo Williams, assisted by the Rev. W. H. Sampson, of St. John, N. B., united in marriage Miss Lillian Hammond Dodd, daughter of Hon. Thomas W. Dodd, to Mr. Harry E. Mahon, barrister-at-law of Halifax, son of the late Edward T. Mahon. The ceremony was witnessed by a large congregation.

The church was tastefully decorated by the bride's friends with palms and golden rod set off by the bright colours of autumn leaves.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attended by Miss Winifred Cotton as maid of honor, while Miss Annie Mahon, sister of the groom, and Miss Ethel Davies, daughter of Sir Louis Davies, were bridesmaids.

The groom was supported by his cousin Mr. Fitzroy Elliot of Halifax, while Fred L. Hazard, M. D., and N. Maris Mille, attorney-at-law, fulfilled the duties of ushers.

The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white mousseline de soie over ivory satin, a dainty fichu of chiffon and lace being clasped with a diamond and pearl pendant, the gift of the groom. The bridal veil was becomingly fastened with tiny clusters of orange blossoms and lily of the valley, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern.

The maid of honor wore pale green organdie prettily trimmed with insertion of valenciennes lace with a dainty fichu.

The bridesmaids wore white organdie over pink, designed in the same fashion, and picture hats of chiffon. They all wore initial clasps studded with pearls, the gift of the groom, and carried shower bouquets of pink carnations.

Professor Earle presided at the organ during the ceremony.

A luncheon was served after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents to immediate relatives and a few intimate friends.

A great many handsome and valuable presents were received by the bride on the interesting occasion.

The bride's going away gown is a handsome tailor made one of dark grey. On their return from their wedding tour the happy couple will reside at 49 Inglis Street, Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahon have the best wishes of a wide circle of friends, in which THE EXAMINER joins most heartily.

MARRIAGE AT WEST RIVER.

At the home of the bride's parents, West River, this evening, Dr. J. H. Ayers, of Charlottetown, will be united in marriage with Miss Eva M. Hyde, daughter of Mr. Henry Hyde. The ceremony will be performed under an arch of exquisite flowers, the officiating clergymen being Messrs. W. B. Thomas and J. W. McConnell. Miss Blanche Hyde, sister of the bride, will attend the bride, and the groom will be supported by his brother, Mr. Geo. Ayers.

The bride will be gowned in pearl grey henrietta with white silk and pearl trimmings, and will carry a handsome bouquet. The bridesmaid will wear white muslin and will carry a dainty bouquet. The popularity of the contracting parties is well attested by the large number of wedding presents received.

Dr. and Mrs. Ayers will reside on Bayfield Street, and will drive to the city during the evening.

THE EXAMINER joins in the congratulations.
