Gov't To Pour Many Millions Into Construction This Year

OTTAWA (CP)—Solicitor-General Balcer said Monday in the Commons additional "hundreds of millions" will be poured into housing this year to stimulate employment. He said the construction drive will continue without letup. At another point, Mr. Balcer said the government wants to give a "more general" support to construction, both in the field of public housing and in industrial building.

Red Cross Will Not Adopt Direct Breath Respiration

TORONTO (CP)—The Canadian Red Cross Society announced Monday it will not encourage the method of applying artificial respiration by breathing directly into a victim's mouth. "It has advantages," conceded Dr. F. C. Monkhouse, University of Toronto professor of physiology and a spokesman at a Red Cross press conference, but the disadvantages outweighed the advantages for an organization such as the Red Cross, trying to train laymen in an understandable and practical respiration technique at its first aid classes.

Poison Emblem Bill Is Killed

PIERRE, S.D. (AP) — South Dakota's House of Representatives Saturday killed without debate a bill which would have put a skull-and-crossbones emblem on cigarette packages sold in the state. The bill had previously cleared the Senate by an 18-to-16 vote after a debate in which one opponent said South Dakota was making itself vulnerable to reprisals from other states.
