Cleartone HEARING AID

Here is the ultimate in hearing aid design and engineering. The Cleartone "700" is the closest approach yet to hearing aid perfection. It is the smallest hearing aid ever produced to capture the power of a 22½ volt battery. You'll be amazed to see how very small it is—smaller than ever before thought possible. You will appreciate the clearness and extra power designed to aid the most difficult cases. Now you can hear sounds more clearly . . . without distortion . . . without strain. Now you can wear your hearing aid hour after hour easily, comfortably . . . without fatigue. Match the Cleartone "700" with any hearing aid available today. Put them all to the same tests. You'll agree that the Cleartone "700" outperforms them all.

We carry most all sizes of Batteries and repair most aids. Please send make of Aid and number of Battery when ordering.

Mr. J. M. Davison Passes Away in Kensington

The passing of Mr. Joseph M. Davison, which occurred at his home in Kensington on March 12th, touched the residents of that town and the surrounding district, with a feeling of sincere loss.

Mr. Davison had reached the age of 83 years, and was well known and highly respected as one who took a keen and intelligent interest in community and Provincial affairs.

A profound reader and observer of the trend of the times, he consistently associated himself with the activities of the Liberal party, and in this capacity, his ability in debate was a recognized power to the party.

Born at Burlington, P.E.I., in 1868, Mr. Davison was the son of the late Frederick and Annie Davison. He resided in Malpeque for 16 years and moved to Kensington in 1925.

Enjoying the friendship of a great many people, he became a familiar figure in Queen's and Prince County, especially distinguished through his association with the Fox Breeder's Association.

Mr. Davison possessed to a marked degree, the faculty to make people welcome, and his hospitable manner, kind disposition and ready knowledge of current events as well as local folklore, made his home a place of enjoyment to visitors at all times.

In 1946, Mr. and Mrs. Davison, surrounded by their family and friends, celebrated their Golden Wedding as an unforgettable milestone in a long and happy life.

The late Mr. Davison leaves to mourn, his wife, the former Laura Crozier, Malpeque, one son, Waldemar, at home, three daughters, Lily, Mrs. Roy Cudmore, Charlottetown, Ruby, Mrs. Gordon Warren, Charlottetown, and Ruth, Mrs. Horace Glover, Kensington. Also surviving is a sister, Mrs. Maude Howatt, Cobleskill, N. Y. A son, Earl, a Divinity student at Mount Allison University, enlisted and killed in action during the First World War.

The funeral was held on March 15th, with a short service at the home, followed by service in Kensington United Church, of which Mr. Davison was a member. The services were conducted by Rev. L. M. Murray, interment was in the Kensington Cemetery.

The pall bearers were: Mayor W. H. Darrach, Capt. E. MacDonald, Everett Donald, Ernest Houston, Justin Woodside and Frank MacEwen.

"STORM WARNING" AT CAPITOL

—A highly moving story of murder by a band of tough hoodlums with overtones of violent love and brute strength provides the background for "Storm Warning," the Warner Bros. drama at the Capitol Theatre today.

Starring Ginger Rogers, Ronald Reagan, Doris Day and Steve Cochran, "Storm Warning," heralded in advance as one of the top film entertainments of the year, tells of a girl who gets in the way of an underworld killing, of the brutish and lecherous inclinations of one of its members and of the girl's fears in attempting to aid an intrepid prosecutor trying to corral evidence against the killers.

Ginger Rogers, stopping off one night in a "friendly" little town to visit her newly-married sister, played by Doris Day, accidentally witnesses a murder. Later she learns that her brother-in-law, Steve Cochran, was one of the killers. From that point it is the battle between her sense of justice and loyalty to her sister which restrains her from giving testimony.

Ronald Reagan is the prosecutor who combats the town's fear of the hoodlums to make his case, while Steve Cochran plays the role of a man who makes love to his wife's sister and whose actions bring the violence of the story to a climax.

spirits, extracts, etc., seized under the Temperance and Excise Acts in 1951 was approximately 1488 gallons compared with 1611 gallons in 1950 and 1656 gallons in 1949.

No evidence of a renewal of smuggling activities was observed during the year. One automobile was seized under the Temperance Act—the first since the Act came into force. Investigations under the Act resulted in an imposition of $18,520 in fines, of which amount $13,820 was paid. Fines totalling $1,590 were still owing at the end of the year by 43 persons who had been convicted and allowed time to pay by the courts.

Twenty-two convictions were registered under the Game Act and two under the Migratory Birds Convention Act.

Criminal Code

One murder was investigated in 1951, and the case is now before the courts. Few other serious crimes were reported. There were 581 investigations under the Criminal Code, resulting in 248 convictions. Prosecutions numbered three for motor manslaughter, 17 for failing to stop at the scene of an accident; 21 for drunken driving; 30 for driving while ability was impaired by alcohol, and 24 for reckless driving.

Under Provincial Statutes, 1990 cases were investigated and 1095 convictions registered. This compares with 3116 investigations and 903 convictions registered in 1949.

In addition, assistance was rendered to the Provincial departments in 79 cases, to other Police forces in 47 cases, and to the general public in 380 cases.

Highway Traffic

"Although exact figures are not immediately available," says the report, "it is certain that the traffic on the highways of the Province was considerably heavier in 1951 than in any previous year. More cars entered the Province by ferry, and motor vehicle registrations for the year show an increase of upwards of 1500 over 1950 registrations."

Regular highway patrols were maintained throughout the year by all detachments in addition to the special patrol that operated from Charlottetown. 430 accidents were reported, 512 prosecutions entered, and 491 convictions registered. The figures which do not include cases under the Criminal Code represent a marked increase over the preceding years.

On Dec. 31, the active strength of the Division was 41 members, all ranks. In addition there were three civil servants and one employed civilian.

do so at a time when help is plentiful. They also advise people who have larger jobs of a build-up nature in view, to get started without delay. Local tradesmen if given work early, will probably remain on the job until it is concluded. Contractors and builders, therefore, who commence operations early, are likely to be assured of help throughout the season.

Heavy Expenses

It is pointed out by the Employment Offices also that the winter has been long and severe, and that tradesmen and labourers who depend on seasonal employment, have had to contend with unusually heavy expenses since December. The winter has been so rough that even casual or occasional jobs have been very infrequent, and meantime, household expenses, especially heating costs, have been expensively and prolonged. Every man on a payroll, is a consumer of goods—he is an asset to the community a going concern. An idle man is a liability.

The "Back To Work" Campaign, will have the endorsement of the City Council of Charlottetown, the Town Council of Summerside, the Boards of Trade, the Canadian Legion and other organizations. It will be supported by a vigorous newspaper campaign.

Besides the competition for Island workmen developing in Labrador, there will be an urgent call for men to accept work in defence plants in Upper Canada, and it is a distinct possibility that this Province will experience an acute shortage of help, such as the farmers have been experiencing in the Province for the past number of years. Other branches of trade and business hitherto little affected, may have very great difficulty in filling vacancies before mid summer.

The National Employment Offices in Summerside and Charlottetown, therefore, consider it timely to inform the public of the unusual employment situation which appears to be unfolding in the year 1952.

This is one of the reasons that the "Back To Work" Campaign is being undertaken, and why it is to be given such wide-spread publicity.
