

Counselling On Pharmacy Is Added

It is expected that counselling on pharmacy as a career will be added to the career counselling service to be offered grade 12 students in Kings and Queens counties, by the Charlottetown branch of the Unemployment Insurance Commission. J. B. Murley, manager of the city branch said yesterday.

The program will be held in Charlottetown, Friday, April 13, and not this coming Friday as announced in yesterday's paper, Mr. Murley said.

Students in the two counties will be advised this week of the addition of pharmacy to the list of professions to be examined.

Fire Quelled in Kitchen

City firemen were called to Seaman's Beverages Ltd. plant on Water Street about 10:15 yesterday, when a slight fire broke out in an apartment over the bottling works.

The fire caught on a shelf over the kitchen stove and scorched the woodwork. Firemen quelled the blaze in a few minutes. Little damage was reported.
