Reception Held At The Infirmary

A reception honouring the graduating class of 1956 of Falconwood Hospital and the Provincial Infirmary was held in the auditorium of the Provincial Infirmary, immediately following the graduating exercises on Monday evening.

The room was tastefully decorated with class colours of green and white. The tea table was very attractive with its bouquet of snapdragon and carnations, and green and pink tapers in silver holders.

Mrs. A.J. Murchison and Mrs. J.C. Theriault poured for the graduates and their guests. Members of the nursing staff of Falconwood Hospital and the Provincial Infirmary assisted in serving the guests.

Piano music during the tea hour was supplied by Mrs. Malcolm Beck and was greatly enjoyed by those present.

Among the honoured guests were His Honour, the Lieut-Governor T.W.L. Prowse, accompanied by his Aide de Camp, Col. A.W. Rogers; Hon. A.W. Matheson, Premier; Hon. M.L. Bonnell, Minister of Health and Mrs. Bonnell.

The graduates and their friends were received by Dr. J.C. Theriault, Director of Treatment Services, Falconwood Hospital; Mrs. Laura Kitchen, R.N., Matron, Falconwood Hospital and Mrs. Hilda Keating, R.N., Matron, Provincial Infirmary.
