APHORISMS.

Next to excellence is the appreciation of it.—Thackeray.
The secret of success is constancy of purpose.—Disraeli.
A good conscience is a continual Christmas.—Franklin.
The best teachers of humanity are the lives of great men.—Fowler.
Life is not so short but there is always time for courtesy.—Emerson.
Poverty wants some things, luxury many, avarice all things.—Cowley.
The future destiny of the child is always the work of the mother.—Bonaparte.
The secret of making oneself tireless is not to know when to stop.—Voltaire.
The readiest and surest way to get rid of censure is to correct ourselves.—Demosthenes.
All false practices and affectations are more odious than any want or defect of knowledge can be.—Sprat.
You have not fulfilled every duty unless you have fulfilled that of being cheerful and pleasant.—C. Buxton.

NOVELTIES.

Silk and satin bags mounted in silver, after the fashion of leather ones, are an approved fashion.
Hats set with mock jewels are worn in great numbers, as many as five and six pins being employed on one hat.
Among incoming fashions is the wearing of a short chain over the high dress collar, with a locket depending therefrom.
A novelty in crystal glass is a creme de menthe set. The new feature consists in the introduction of menthe green color in the stems and stands of the glasses and the stopple of the bottle.
Elephant's hide, monkey skin, fine calfskin and other leathers, employed in the making of women's purses, bags and cardcases, are dyed in all the fashionable shades to match the costume.—Jewelers' Circular.

HORSE TIPS.

Azote has seven more winning race heats in 2:10 and better than any other trotter.
But one mile has been trotted in 2:10 and better in all the Canadian and maritime provinces.
Will Hutchings will be the manager of Saugus again in 1898. The old track is practically deserted this winter.
Nellie Sharper, 2:16½; Jimmy Mac, 2:12¾, and Little Cliff, 2:17¾, are in training at Ottawa for the ice races.
A rubber instead of a tan bark runway is one of the innovations that Allen Lowe has introduced in his new Boston sale mart.
The fastest pacer bred in New Hampshire, Jubilee Wilkes, 2:11½, is now doing service as a road horse for a physician at Somerville, N. J.
Alley, the dam of Wilton, 2:19¾, has no record, but trotted close to 2:20 and is said to be one of the most perfect daughters of Hambletonian.
The old campaigner, Bert Sheldon, 2:16¾, has won nearly half of all the races in which he has started, which number something over 150.
The dam of Bert Oliver and Sally Toler, each having the same record, 2:08¾, was a pacer and might have been given a standard record.
Billy Hamilton, the clever center fielder of the Boston ball team, is an admirer of the trotter and owns quite a stable of good ones. Two of his horses went under the hammer at the Hicks sale in Boston.
Frank Sargent is driving George A., 2:12½, the 7-year-old grandson of Alcantara, on the road at Tilton, N. H. This horse cut nearly six seconds from his record last year and is expected to get below the 2:10 line the coming season.—Horseman.

CHARLOTTETOWN Business College Writing Academy

Let the searchlight of practice illuminate the dark places of Theory.
A THOROUGHLY Progressive Practical Institution, in which young men and women are not only taught Book-keeping (in all its applications to commerce) both by single and double entry, but are trained how to do business, by actual business transactions. The students act as buyers, sellers, lenders, bankers, book-keepers and accountants, in actual business operations, and the currency issued by the College Bank and the prices issued in the Emporium, are used in bona fide business transactions, just the same as in mercantile and banking houses. Book-keeping in itself may be learned at home, but a knowledge of how to transact business, cannot be thus acquired. That our course system of training is eminently practical write for testimonials from business men, and from students who are now holding lucrative and responsible positions.

SUBJECTS:
Book-keeping by single and double entry (theoretical and practical), Actual Business Practice, Business Penmanship, Business Correspondence, Commercial Arithmetic, Commercial Law, Railroading, Steamboating, Banking, (actual practice in the College Bank), Typewriting, Shorthand and Navigation.

FACULTY:
L. B. Miller, Principal, Teacher of Book-keeping, Arithmetic, Business Practice, Business Correspondence, Typewriting and Navigation.
J. W. Conison, (Vice Principal), Teacher of Railroading, Steamboating, Banking, Accounting and Actual Business Practice.
J. Harry Williams, Teacher of Business Penmanship.
Wm. Moran (licensed), Teacher of Shorthand.
George S. Inman Esq. (Law Firm McDonald & Inman) Lecturer on Commercial Law.
