Retail Price Of Coffee In U. S. Moves Upward

NEW YORK, (CP)—The retail price of coffee in many United States chain stores moved higher Monday with popular grades selling at $1.01 a pound.

The increase follow removal of price controls in the U.S.

Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co. said price increases ranging from two to four cents a pound for its three brands of bag-packed roasted coffee, effective at once, and trade sources said other chains would follow suit.

Safeway Stores Inc. likewise announced price boosts of from two to four cents a pound.

This action by the chain stores followed wholesale price increases for vacuum?packed coffee by major roasters, Maxwell House paved the way with two price increases totalling five cents a pound this month.

A. and P. and Maxwell House are the two largest coffee distributors in the U.S.

GRAIN

WINNIPEG, (CP)—Prices dropped lower, some sharply, in moderately active trade on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange Monday, reflecting declines on U. S. markets.

Commercial demand was limited. Some export buying appeared in barley, but no overseas business was reported. The deferred months of oats received light support from U. S. interests. But U. S. houses also were on the selling side on all grains except flax. Local offerings kept flax down.

Export loadings of Canadian wheat totalled around 900,000 bushels, including 380,000 to the United Kingdom, 160,000 to the Republic of Ireland and 365,000 to Brazil.

Prices for class two and IWA wheat were down three-eighths of a cent from Friday.
