LARGE ICEBERGS.—A Boston despatch says; The steamer Rathon, from Liverpool, reports on March 28, in lat. 42.48, long. 49.23, passed an iceberg apparently 1,000 feet long and 100 feet high. On the same day, in lat. 42.58, long. 49.57, passed another berg about 550 feet long.

NORMAN MCLEOD AND THE OWL.—Mr. Anton tells a good story of Norman McLeod entering a room in which was a cage containing a magnificent owl. He stood surveying the bird for a long time without making a single remark. The owl sat unmoved, placid, and erect. His mein was dignified, his horns impressive, his eyes cold and observant, his countenance sagacious and critical. At length Norman broke silence: "Man, ye wad make a splendid Moderator."

AFTER THE TORNADO.—The total number killed by the tornado at Louisville, Ky., on Thursday night last, is 92. So far about 150 badly injured have been discovered. The majority of those who were the most hurt are at the hospitals, and several are not expected to live. Advices from Henderson say the total killed in Webster county is 40, and of the wounded 80. A coat was found near Henderson, which contained papers showing that it had been blown from Paducah, over 100 miles away.

Letter from Mr. McKay.

SIR,—In looking over the evidence of Maggie Stewart, yesterday, I notice you place the name "McKay" as the person whom she understood was to drive her away from McKenna's. In her evidence she distinctly said "McCabe," not McKay.

It is particularly noticeable that the leading Counsel in this case uses all means to implicate my name, and you will do me the justice of making the correction and an explanation in your next issue.

Yours truly,
W. D. McKAY.

Personal.

Mr. J. P. Wickham, Principal of Queen Square School, will resume work, after a month's leave of absence, owing to ill health, on Tuesday next. Mr. Curran acted as Principal during Mr. Wickham's absence.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

Summary of Proceedings.

OTTAWA, April 2.

In answer to Mr. Jones, of Halifax,—Sir John Macdonald said the rate of freight charged over the Intercolonial Railway on pig iron from Londonderry to Montreal, 598 miles, is $2.46 per ton.

Hon. Mr. Foster gave notice that he would move the House into Committee of the Whole to consider the resolution that it is expedient to provide by a law that a bounty of two dollars per ton be paid on all pig iron manufactured in Canada from Canadian ore betweeen the first day of July 1892 and the thirteenth day of June, 1897, inclusive.

Sir Richard Cartwright objected that this was virtually an extension of the bounty for seven years and that it was not right for Parliament to tie up its successors in this manner.

Mr. Jones, of Halifax, resumed the debate on the budget.

The debate was continued until 1.45 when the House adjourned.

Attempted Train Wrecking.

PICTOU, April 2.

A most diabolical attempt to wreck the Halifax accommodation, on the Pictou Town branch, was made last night. Two pieces of logs, about four inches square, were laid (one across either rail) near the middle of Lorne Brook Bridge, which at that point is nearly ninety feet high. Fortunately the cow-catcher was low enough to strike and throw off the obstructions—which, had they been an inch less in thickness, must have passed under the wheels. An unusually large number of passengers were on board the train. No clue to the scoundrel has been obtained, but every effort is being put forth to trace him.

The French School Question.

TORONTO, April 2.

Premier Mowatt announced in the Legislature this morning that the French school question would be taken up to-morrow night, and a vote taken before the House rose. A warm debate and an all-night session are expected. The Legislature is hurrying through business to try and adjourn on Friday.

Donations to McGill College.

MONTREAL, April 2.

W. C. McDonald, a director of the Bank of Montreal, and well-known tobacco manufacturer, has donated $160,000 to McGill Law Faculty. It is also expected that Sir Donald Smith contemplates in the near future to add to his already fine gifts to the University.

Prorogation.

QUEBEC, April 2.

The House was formally prorogued this afternoon, and dissolution will immediately follow. The elections will probably take place the end of May. The Opposition will make a stubborn fight all over.

Meeting of Millers.

TORONTO, April 2.

A mass meeting of Dominion millers was held here yesterday, at which a resolution endorsing the action of the Government in increasing the duty on flour was carried with applause.

Meeting of Stove-Founders.

HALIFAX, April 2.

The maritime stove-founders have been in session here for two days. Matters connected with the trade were generally discussed, and it was agreed to advance the price of stoves 7½ per cent.

Overdue.

HALIFAX, April 2.

The Dominion Line steamer Sarnia, with the weekly mail from England, has not yet arrived.

Weather Bulletin.

TORONTO, April 3.—10 a. m.
