MELANCHOLY AFFAIR.—We learn from J. W. Burke Esq., of Ingonish, the particulars of a sudden death which occurred recently in his neighborhood. It would appear that on Friday night, the 13th ult., Mrs. Mary Brown, wife of Mr. John Brown, of Ingonish, accompanied by her son Donald, and Mr. Samuel Gwinn, her son-in-law, left that place for Cape North, to visit her sick daughter there. On the road the party was overtaken by a violent snow storm, and when about fifteen miles from the Cape, at a point called Black Brook, Mrs. Brown, overcome by fatigue and exposure, lost all power to continue the journey, and died suddenly in the presence of her two wearied companions. This is another evidence of the need of a house of refuge on the lonely, diurnal road that the traveller follows on his way from Ingonish to Cape North.—C. B. News.

A BEAR STORY.—Amos Cormea, of Bouchouche, Kent, returning from chopping last week, came upon a bear in his den, attacked and cut him several times about the head and neck with an axe. The axe handle broke, and Cormea retreated. The bear also retreated.—Both in their eagerness to escape each other met in the path in the woods. The bear now attacked the man, knocked him down, scratched him, bit through his hand, and would have killed him, had not Cormea's little dog diverted the bear's attention by biting him on the heels. The man now ran home crying "a bear," "a bear." A man and boy chopping near by heard the shouts. They came to the rescue, had a gun with them, met the bear and shot it. Weighed 300 lbs., three inches of fat on the ribs, which weighed 16 lbs. when melted down.—St. John's Globe.

We learn from the Chronicle that a young man named Wm. Forsythe, 20 years of age, was crushed to death at the Lawrence town Gold Diggings, on Tuesday, while excavating in a sand bank. It appears that while filling his barrow, some distance within the narrow tunnel, the arch or top suddenly gave way and precipitated about twenty tons of sand immediately upon him. Prompt assistance was on hand, but three quarters of an hour had elapsed before the body could be extricated, and life was extinct. He was a Scotchman by birth, and nephew of Mr. Woods, of Lawrencetown.—Hs. Colonist.

DREADFUL MURDER AT MONTREAL.—At half-past eight on Thursday evening, George Wilson, a reduced Lance Sergeant of the 100th Royal Canadian Regiment, shot a Lance Corporal of the same regiment, named James Campbell, killing him instantly. The murder took place in one of the rooms of the Victoria Barracks, and appears to have been committed while the parties were under the influence of liquor. Campbell was shot in the back, the ball passing entirely through the body and burying itself in a wall. Wilson was quite cool and collected when arrested, and voluntarily held out his hands for the handcuffs.

The Portland Press says a curious team from Canada made its appearance in the streets of Portland on Saturday. It consisted of a cart about four feet long and two feet wide filled with all the worldly possessions of a Canadian family. On the top of the goods sat the lame father. Four children were huddled in the cart, being yoked into the cart, and the mother was behind pushing. They were bound for Halifax. They lodged in the police office one night, and the next day the Overseers of the poor sent them to the Almshouse.

IRELAND.—The London Times says "We hear on all sides that the next session of Parliament is to be devoted to the affairs of Ireland. The whole genius of the legislature, free from the shackles of reform and no longer distracted by remote objects of Abyssinia, is to be turned, whole and undivided, on this arduous and intricate subject. The mists of error are to be swept aside by the logical application of a few sound well selected principles, and this standing disgrace of British politics is to be removed forever."

In the Island of St. Thomas a popular vote has been taken to ascertain the sentiments of the people on the transfer of the island to the United States. A despatch by the Cuba cable informs us that the vote has resulted in favor of annexation. In Cuba, as our correspondent informs us, the purchase of the Spanish Island by the United States is creating considerable excitement. The whole of the native population begins to be tired of Spanish rule, and the idea of an incorporation with the United States is very popular.

In a lecture on newspapers, delivered in Philadelphia by Rev. Dewitt Talmadge, he said: "I now declare that I consider the news paper to be the grand agency by which the gospel is preached, ignorance cast out, oppression destroyed, crime extirpated, the world raised, Heaven rejoiced, and glorified. In the clanking of the printing press, as sheets fly out, I hear the Lord Almighty proclaiming to all the dead nations of the earth, 'Lazarus come forth,' and to the retreating surges of darkness, 'let there be light!'"

A singular spectacle was witnessed on Christmas day. Great numbers of balls, varying in size from that of a man's fist to that of the largest cannon-ball, lay in groups about the fields—a phenomena said never before to have been witnessed by the residents of this city or the suburbs. The balls were miniature avalanches having evidently been formed by the rolling up of the snow in consequence of some peculiarity of the wind, there being a track in the wake of each of them.—St. John News.

A horrible scaffold scene recently took place in Prussia. A woman and her son were to be executed for the murder of the husband and father. The woman refused to walk, and was carried to the scaffold, her son waiting below. Owing to the shortness of her neck the executioner could not fasten her securely to the block, and only the second blow severed her head from her trunk. The son fainted, and had to be revived before being brought to the block, still reeking with his mother's warm blood.

In Mexico there is great excitement over the withdrawal of the British Embassy, which, it is supposed, will be followed by the withdrawal of the representatives of all European Powers, and the American Minister will be left alone in his glory. The British Government will hold the Mexicans responsible for the protection of all British subjects who are still foolish enough to live in that Heaven forsaken land. Insurrection and murder prevail throughout Mexico.

A Detroit paper draws attention to the growing scarcity of barley in the American market, and the unusually high prices which it commands in consequence. The crop of barley throughout Canada and the United States seems to have been considerably lighter than in former years, and the greater part of the barley in the West has already been bought up and shipped to the Eastern markets. Barley is now worth $3 to $3 25 per bushel in Detroit.

It is now stated that nearly all the wharves at St. Thomas are held under long leases, by British, French, and other Foreign shipping houses, whose rights cannot be interfered with. If that is the case the possession of the island will not be of so great commercial value to the United States at present, and Senators are hesitating about the treaty.

An English army officer writes from Abyssinia to his friends at home, that campaigning in the dominions of Theodora is not so pleasant. The thermometer gets up to 100 deg., regularly; sleepers in the tents, roused by hissing noises, find snakes under their beds; and when the men put on their boots they find scorpions in occupation.

There have been eleven deaths in the vicinity of Canning since Sunday, the 22d December last, a space of ten days—six were buried in the Congregational Churchyard, near Canning, within the space of six days. This is the greatest mortality known in these parts.—Wolfeville Acadian.

We learn from the Truro Mirror that on Wednesday afternoon last a young lady named Crowell was killed in that town by a runaway horse. The breast of the animal struck her in the head, and buried her with such force against the ground that she was killed almost instantly.

Mosses, Burke, Casey, Shaw and Milroy, who were arrested at Birmingham on the charge of buying arms there for the Brotherhood, were brought up at Bow Street for trial. Bail was offered, but not accepted, and the prisoners were sent to Birmingham for trial for treason and felony. The van containing the prisoners in its transit to and from Bow Street, was guarded by a strong escort of military and several platoons of police all under arms with drawn cutlasses. These extraordinary precautions were deemed necessary, as the authorities had received information of a threatened rescue. There was no disturbance whatever.

Holloway's Pills—There can be little doubt that man is less sensible of the most perfect health than he is of the least sickness, for by this means his kind Nature furnished him to guard against the impending malady. Were these alternative, aperient, and purifying Pills had recourse to when the first departure from ease proclaims the approach of disease, how many tortures would be spared—how much misery would be avoided. Holloway's Pills need no comments here on the good services they render in resisting or remedying complaints at their outset, which, through injudicious delay, will run their rapid course to danger in defiance of the deepest medical skill and the most indefatigable nursing.
