Visit To Moscow.

LONDON (AP)—French diplomats said here President de Gaulle hopes on his visit to the Soviet Union to look into prospects for a German settlement that would leave a united Germany neutral and prohibited from having nuclear weapons.

Hees Comments On Elections

REGINA (CP)—Elections in Quebec and Prince Edward Island indicate voters can no longer be taken for granted by politicians, says George Hees. Mr. Hees, former Conservative minister, said in an interview that voters today are more intelligent than were their fathers and grandfathers in that they do not vote as they did. "This type of thing (the Quebec election) has upset the confidence of people like myself who think we have our ears to the ground and know the way voters are thinking."
Mr. Hees said he was surprised at the defeat of the Liberals in Quebec, but I've known Daniel Johnson for many years and I'm sure he'll make a good premier."
Mr. Hees said politicians are gradually becoming aware that voters are making increasingly accurate assessments of governments. There is a disenchantment with politicians and voters feel too much time is being spent on personalities instead of government business.
