

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JUNE 14, 1887.

Editorial Notes.

The great Indian sun dance is over. No atrocities were committed, proceedings having been cut short by the want of permission.—The Government stopped supplies.

The Patriot is pleased, and says "every Canadian must be pleased" that the Government has decided to publish monthly statements of the Debt Account in the Canada Gazette. It is pleasing to know that the Patriot is pleased at last. Pleasing, very!

The Halifax Herald's Montreal correspondent writes:—

"It is rumored to day in railway circles that the German syndicate who are after the Intercolonial and North Shore, have a much bigger scheme in contemplation, and that they have at eye to controlling the business from the east over the C. P. R. and that the North American Lloyd company, purpose placing a line of steamers on the Pacific ocean to cover this route. It seems strange that while the British government is flourishing, and daily daily, the Germans have realized the value of the route and are endeavoring to utilize it."

The people would much sooner have the enterprise in the hands of the Government than made over to a German Syndicate. In a week or so from this, the Island Grit contingent will be on their journey homeward. What benefit have the noble six been to the Island since Parliament opened? None, whatever. Mr. Davies promised in his election card to test the sense of the House by a vote on our claim to a separate share of the Fishery Award. He has not done so, and thus his promise, like many another one of his, remains unfulfilled. He and his humble followers will likely tell us on their return that they could not do anything as they were in opposition. They might have asked at least for grants to some of the much needed public works in this Province. They did not do even this, preferring to take the times easy, and let the Island take care of itself. But a day of reckoning will surely come.

Sir John seems to have made a particularly happy hit in the appointment of Mr. G. P. Davidson, to the Bench of Quebec. The appointment is approved alike by the Liberal Herald, the Independent Star, and the Conservative Gazette. The Herald gives Mr. Justice Davidson a handsome and a most cordial send-off. It says: "Mr. Justice Davidson, although still a young man, has been for many years a prominent figure in the professional, political and athletic life of Montreal. His position in his profession is undisputed. Wise as a counsellor, eloquent as a pleader, urbane in manner, and experienced in his knowledge of human nature, the new judge is admirably equipped for his new position." Judge Davidson is a native of Huntington. He was educated at McGill College. He was admitted to the Bar in 1864, and was created Queen's Counsel in 1879.

The official figures which show the volume and the growth of the travel over the New York and Brooklyn bridge, covering the years since it was opened, have just been prepared, during the fourth anniversary having just passed. During the "rush" hours the bridge has become the greatest thoroughfare in America. Cars follow one another as closely as they can be run in safety. The footpath is densely crowded and the roadway is a moving mass of vehicles. During 1884-5, 8,828,200 passengers passed in the cars; 3,912,700 used the promenade, making a total of 12,740,900. In 1885-6, 13,151,559 people used the cars, 3,757,971 in 1886-7, 24,475,324 traveled on the railroad; 2,961,680 took the promenade, making a total of 27,440,004. This shows an average daily passage of people during the last year (other than those who go in vehicles) of 75,478. The footwalk is exceedingly popular, particularly in fine weather, and when the toll is removed from it, as will be the case next year, the travel across the long, narrow causeway will receive an additional impetus. Even now during the hot nights of the summer it affords a delightful resting place to hundreds and hundreds of poor women from the tenement districts, who may be seen at any hour of the night resting at the towers or strolling across the structure, with their pale faces and hollow eyes in their arms.

Mr. O'Brien's ill-starred visit to America, so far from helping the cause of Ireland is likely to work to its injury. As a consequence of his refusal to attend a meeting of the Socialist-Anarchists people in New York he has been subjected to criticisms of which the following paragraphs are specimens. The Leader, Irish labor organ, says:— "You came in New York, O'Brien, and you had been seen by the Tammanyites, by the Corcorans, by the coffee-vendors, gun-slinging O'Donoghues, and Graces, you were surrounded by the banking Kellys and the employe judges of Hoffman house, reconstruction. These men influenced you, O'Brien, and so you fell a prey to the thieves who plunder the poor, debase society, corrupt political life, degrade the masses so far as they can shoot, 'The land for the people'—in Ireland, 3,000 miles away—but sell us the land for the people in America means confiscation and an invasion on the sacred rights of property."

You have cut off the supplies of your movement, O'Brien. Not for long can the Kellys and O'Donoghues furnish the sinews of war for you, O'Brien. Their united wealth is but as a drop in the ocean when compared with the aggregate of what the masses gave, and would continue to give toward the abolition of landlordism in Ireland. And at the meeting to which Mr. O'Brien was invited, but refused to attend, his assailants did what they could to justify the London Times in its efforts to establish connection between Parnellism and crime, as witness this from the report of the same paper:— "Mr. Peter Ryan said: 'O'Brien's action will result in disaster to the Tammanyites. I am charmed with O'Brien's action, as Eugene Kelly says he is, but mine is from a different standpoint. The man who made the league what it is were the Manchester martyrs, the Clerkenwell men and such men as Joe Bonny, Frank Borne and Tynan, yet these are the very men whom O'Brien considers his friends, and he is being a favorer of society.' Mr. O'Brien's course in inviting American citizens is endorsed only by a narrow fringe in the Irish movement, such as John J. Delany and a few more."

City Council Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the City Council was held last evening. Present, the Mayor, Recorder, Councilors Crabbe, McCarron, Small, T. A. McLean, Byrne, Morris, McKee, Davison, A. A. McLean.

After the usual preliminary proceedings, the Mayor informed the Council of the results of the recent elections in Ward 2, and on motion the usual return was ordered to be published in the Royal Gazette.

Councillor Crabbe moved that the Mayor be authorized to issue a check for $500 in favor of the Jubilee Committee, said amount having been already provided for in the estimates for Jubilee purposes.

Councillor Morris seconded the motion. Councillor Byrne asked if a petition requesting that the $500 go towards a roadway to the Park had not been received by the Council. If so, he would like to have said petition read. (The petition was here read by the clerk.) In the face of such a largely signed petition he said he would have to vote against the resolution. He thought that building the roadway would be a better, and more lasting way of celebrating the Jubilee than the fireworks, etc.

Councillors Crabbe, Morris, T. A. McLean, and others spoke in favor of the resolution. They explained that most of the gentlemen who signed the petition did so under the impression that they were going to get a large money grant, as well as the land from the government, and not because they were opposed to a Jubilee demonstration. They did not get the government grant, however, and they contended that if the money were not paid the Jubilee Committee there would be neither roadway nor demonstration.

Councillor Byrne said that he was not opposed to celebrating the Queen's Jubilee, but thought that it could be celebrated in no better way than by building the roadway. He believed the petition had been signed in good faith, and therefore moved in amendment that the $500 be voted for roadway purposes.

Councillor McCarron seconded the motion. He approved of the roadway as it would be a lasting benefit to our people, and its construction would give employment to a large number of men who would otherwise be idle.

Councillor Byrne's amendment was then put and lost on the following division: Ayes—Byrne, McCarron. Nays—Crabbe, Small, T. A. McLean, A. A. McLean, Davison, McKee, Morris.

Councillor Crabbe's motion was then put and carried, Councilors Byrne and McCarron dissenting.

The Mayor submitted a letter from Mr. A. McNeill, asking if the Council had taken any action on the plank tender sent in, by him on behalf of Mr. Wm. McNairn, of Bouchette. Councillor Crabbe explained that all the plank the city required had been purchased from Messrs. Poole & Lewis, and their tender was considered the lowest.

The Mayor here explained that it was necessary for the Council to decide as soon as possible as to the amount and nature of the security required by the water commissioners, as they could not act until the matter was settled.

Councillor Horne arrived at this juncture and took his seat.

Councilor Crabbe moved that the amount of security to be furnished by each commissioner be $10,000.

Councillor Small seconded the resolution which was carried unanimously.

Councillor A. A. McLean moved that the Council accept the personal bonds of sureties of not less than $2,000 each, to be justified before a Judge of the Supreme Court.

Councillor Crabbe seconded the motion. Councillor Crabbe moved in amendment that the security be a policy from a legal guaranty company.

Councillor Small seconded the resolution. The amendment was then put and lost on the following division: Ayes—Crabbe, Small, Horne, Nays—Morris, Byrne, McKee, Davison, A. A. McLean, T. A. McLean, McCarron, Councillor A. A. McLean's motion was then carried, Councilors Crabbe, Small and Horne dissenting.

The Mayor presented resolutions passed at a recent meeting of the Jubilee committee, and forwarded him by the Secretary, with reference to laying the corner stone of the new city building.

Councillor Morris moved that the request of the Jubilee Committee, viz: that the Masonic fraternity be invited to lay the corner stone of the new city building, be complied with.

Councillor McKee seconded the motion. Councillor Byrne thought that the Mayor, as Chief Magistrate of the City, should lay the corner stone. He moved that Councilor Morris have leave to withdraw his motion.

Councillor McCarron seconded the motion. Councillor Byrne's motion on being put was lost on the following division: Ayes—Byrne, McCarron, Davison, Nays—Small, Crabbe, T. A. McLean, A. A. McLean, McKee, Horne, Morris.

Councillor Morris' resolution was then carried, Councilors Byrne, McCarron, and Davison dissenting.

The Mayor submitted a notice from Charles Harvey—a prisoner in Queen's County jail for an alleged breach of the Scott Act—threatening an action for illegal imprisonment.

The Mayor presented a letter from Mr. E. J. Hodgson, complaining of the reckless conduct of the Scott Act prosecutor in the matter of summoning witnesses, and holding the Council responsible for his acts.

Councillor A. A. McLean submitted a petition from the Marshal and police, asking that each member of the force be presented with new coat and pants in order that they might be enabled to look their best on Jubilee days. He moved that the prayer of the petition be granted, and that each member be presented with the sum of $13 for the purchase of the clothes.

Councillor T. A. McLean seconded the motion, which was carried unanimously.

The Mayor presented a petition from Mr. H. B. Smith, City Surveyor, asking for an increase of salary, attached to which was a numerously signed recommendation in favor of the petition.

Councillor T. A. McLean moved that the prayer of the petition be granted, and that the salary of the Surveyor be $500, dating from the 1st of June inst.

Councillor Crabbe seconded the motion which was carried on the following division: Ayes—Crabbe, McCarron, Small, T. A.

McLean, A. A. McLean, Byrne, Morris, Davison.

Nays—McRae, Horne. The Mayor presented a petition from Robert Van dersteyn, Janitor, asking for an increase of salary in consequence of extra duties being imposed upon him since his appointment.

Councillor Davison moved that Mr. Van dersteyn be given an increase of $50. Councillor Morris seconded the resolution and it was carried.

Councillor Byrne moved that the salary of Mr. A. F. Tomlins, Clerk of the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court, be $6000 dating from the 1st of June inst.

Councillor Crabbe seconded the motion, which, after some discussion, was carried. Councillor Horne gave notice that at the next meeting of Council he would resign his positions on the Finance and Street Committees.

Councillor Byrne was then elected a member of the Street and Market Committees; Councillor McCarron was elected as a member of the Tender and Public Property Committees, also of the Carriage and Track Committee.

The tender of Mr. John Bolger, offering to lay a box drain along Water Street, near the Railway Station, for the sum of $297, was referred to the Street Committee. Mr. Bolger delivered a brief explanatory speech in support of his tender. On motion, the Council adjourned.

The above is a portrait of Clara Scott who will appear as Pauline, in Bulwer's beautiful romantic drama, 'The Lady of Lyons,' in aid of Queen Square Gardens at the Lyceum, June 21st. The Montreal correspondent to the New York Mirror of March 7th, 1887, says: "The past week Miss Clara Scott, a young English actress, has been playing at the Academy of Music in a round of legitimate characters. Though having but poor support, she made a deep impression upon those who can appreciate an intelligent and capable actress. Miss Scott is a great actress and will, ere long, astonish this Continent."

Supreme Court—Prince County.

The June term of the Supreme Court met at Summerside to day. His Lordship Chief Justice, Palmer presiding. The following gentlemen compose the grand jury, viz: Alexander E. Holland, foreman, Hubert Compton, John M. Montgouery, Edward Berrell, William T. Ellis, Neil Sinclair, Amie Richard, William T. Burrows, William Wickham, Robert Ramsay, Donald S. Hunt, Richard B. Reid, Albert Craig, Felix Gaudet, John T. McLellan, John T. Murphy, John Henderson, James G. Wiggins, Daniel H. McDonald, Gilbert DesRoches and Thomas Kelly.

His Lordship shortly charged the Grand Jury. He congratulated them on the absence of any serious crime in the County, there being but one criminal case to be laid before them, which was of a serious nature. There are four indictments for larceny and one stabbing affair to go before the Jury. The civil list comprises twelve cases.

Mr. D. A. McKinnon, a student in the office of Palmer & McLeod, made application to the Court for an order to be examined previous to being admitted as an attorney.

The following legal gentlemen are here: Attorney-General Sullivan, Mr. Hodgson, Q. C., Mr. McLean and Mr. Warburton.

THE PEOPLE SAY

—That the children of the public schools are delighted with the part they are to take in the jubilee demonstration. —That is time our horsemen were moving in the matter of a meeting at Upton. —That every good word spoken and every dollar donated helps along the jubilee demonstration. —That the young man and the alarm clock failed to connect. —That as a result the young man got left.

—That it is not the first time the same thing has occurred. —That THE EXAMINER is an excellent advertising medium. —That those who try it once always try again.

—That the strawberry crop will be large this year. —That the young ladies are now looking up the "ice cream" young man. —That he makes an agreeable companion in warm weather. —That the greatest trouble with our amateur fishermen is that the fish won't bite sometimes.

—That this was the case with some tyros who sailed forth on Saturday. —That the young man who spends more than he earns is treading on a dangerous ground.

—That it's time the Jubilee decorations were being made ready. —That private citizens should be moving in the matter of illuminating their houses. —That the 24-o'clock system is used by some.

—That the flag stones lying opposite Zion Church should be removed. —That the same remark applies to the old safes distributed on some of our squares and streets.

—That the flag staff on the Old Bank will take a tumble some of these days. —That the watering cart should sprinkle all the streets. —That it's time the Jubilee fares on steamboats and trains were advertised.

—That the steamer St. Lawrence made a good trip from Picton last evening. —That the Vatican authorities at Rome have received $500,000 with which to celebrate the Pop's jubilee.
