Designation Service Held At Presbyterian Church

St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Montague, was filled to capacity last evening when a very impressive service of designation was held for Miss Anne MacEachern, graduate deaconess of the Presbyterian Missionary and Deaconess Training School, Toronto. The service was conducted by Rev. F. N. Young, minister of the church and acting moderator of the P. E. I. Presbytery and Rev. T. H. B. Somers, minister of the Kirk of St. James, Charlottetown, preached the sermon using for his text the words of Jeremiah, "Wilt thou I unto me as a deceitful brook, as waters that fail." The Old Testament lesson was read by Rev. Lee McNaughton, Marshfield, and the New Testament lesson by Rev. Carl Currie, Murray Harbour North. Mrs. F. Young presented Miss MacEachern with a deaconess pin and also on behalf of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, (W.M.S.), Mrs. Young made the presentation of a beautifully bound Bible. Two vocal selections by the Brookline trio were effectively rendered and appropriate hymns were sung by the large choir. Mrs. Elsie Waterworth presided at the organ. Following the service, a reception for approximately one hundred friends was held in the church hall. On behalf of the Y. P. S. Miss Thelma Larter presented Miss MacEachern with a Kodak camera, and a purse of money from the W. M. S. was presented by Mrs. H. E. Nelson, and the address was read by Mrs. J. M. MacKenzie. Miss MacEachern is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William MacEachern, Montague. Out-of-town guests present at the service were Miss Mary Nichol, nursing superintendent of Joest Hospital in Central India; Miss Mary MacKenzie, deaconess at North Tryon; Miss Roma Rodd, Charlottetown, graduate deaconess; Miss Joan Large, Charlottetown, student deaconess, and Miss Iris Ford, Bermuda, student deaconess.

Guest At Special Function In Cardigan

Miss Frances Murphy, daughter of Mrs. Murphy and the late Peter Murphy, Cardigan, and niece of Monsignor J. A. Murphy, was guest at a special function held at her home Tuesday night. A large number of her friends had gathered to honor her on the eve of her departure to enter the religious life as a member of the Sisters of Martha, Charlottetown. An address was read by Miss Marie Sullivan, while a much appreciated gift was presented by Miss Stella Sullivan. After this the balance of the evening was spent in an enjoyable sing song as refreshments were served by Miss Murphy's many friends who were present. Following is the address: Dear Frances: Your friends of this community take this opportunity of expressing our good wishes to you on the occasion of your departure to enter religious life. "In bidding you 'Godspeed' any regrets we may experience will be far overshadowed by the joy of your being singled out for such a noble vocation. Of course, we will miss the ready smile, the quiet wit and the genuine spirit of friendship which was always so evident in your daily life among us. We will miss the splendid work that you have done in public school, Sunday school, and in all community efforts. However, we have the pleasure of knowing that your entering the Convent in Charlottetown will not mean a complete separation from us. "It is also gratifying to join with your family on this occasion of pride and joy — and particularly with your good mother who has fostered the seed of your vocation in always exemplifying to such a high degree the virtues of a Christian home. To whom much is given, much is expected and you can be assured that our prayers and thoughts will be with you. "As a souvenir of the affectionate regard in which you are held by your many friends we ask you to accept this small token offering."

Georgetown and Vicinity

*Mrs. Ian Stirling and sons, Glen and David left September 7, by car on return to their home in Ottawa, Ont., after a visit spent in Georgetown as the guest of Mrs. Stirling's father, Captain J. J. Fitzgerald. Enroute home Mrs. Stirling visited her mother-in-law, Mrs. John Stirling of Summerside.

Mr. John Renton, Superintendent of Foundries at the Dominion Steel and Coal Company in Sydney, N. S., and Mr. Frank Moore, also of Sydney, who have been guests of Mr. Renton's brother, Mr. Thomas Renton, and his sisters, the Misses Mae and Ethel Renton, left early in the week on return to Sydney, N. S.

The Misses Gertrude Fitzgerald, Peggy Johnson and Verma Martell left September 7 for Charlottetown where they entered Notre Dame Academy.

Master Donnie Burke and Master Gary Burke, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burke of Charlottetown are visiting in Georgetown, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gotell.

A number of the members of the Georgetown Branch No. 16, Canadian Legion, B. E. S. L., attended the 22nd Annual Convention of the Canadian Legion, which was held at Miscouche on Labour Day. Comrade J. B. Scully, Branch Treasurer, was the official delegate from the Branch. Others attending were Branch President, Marcellus Gotell, Branch Secretary, Adolphus Scully, Comrades John D. Gotell, Walter Walker, Raymond Lavandier and Michael Burke, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Chisholm and family who have been visiting in Georgetown as guests at the home of Mr. Henry Hemphill, left by car on return to their home in Somerville, Mass., on Sept. 8. On their return they were accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Gotell and two children, Juanita and Richard, who will visit with relatives in Boston, Mass.

Friends of Miss Mae Refton are sorry to hear that she had the misfortune of being forced off the steps of her home, when the wind at the height of Monday's storm, caught the door as it was being opened. In the fall Miss Refton sustained a broken wrist and entered the Kings County Memorial Hospital in Montague for treatment. —AC
