

You Ask Me How I Live.

Living friendly, feeling friendly, Acting fairly to all men, Seeking to do that to others They may do to me again;

Harsh condemning, fierce contemning, Is of little Christian use, One soft word of kindly peace Is worth a torrent of abuse;

I have felt and know how bitter Human coldness makes the world, Every bosom round me frozen, Not an eye with pity pearl'd;

Ah! be kind—life hath no secret For our happiness like this; Kindly hearts are seldom sad ones, Blessing ever bringeth bliss;

Man is man, through all gradations, Little reck it where he stands, How divided into nations, Scattered over many lands;

Newman and Disraeli.

A remarkable paragraph is published in one of the Anglo-Roman papers respecting the new Cardinal and the present Premier of England. It reads as follows:—On most Saturday afternoons in the last year of the first decade of the present century, two boys, aged respectively nine and five, might have been seen playing in the grounds of Bloomsbury Square, London.

Sixty-years have passed since then, and nothing more wonderful than that the handsome little Jew boy should become a Christian and Prime Minister of Protestant England, and the Puritan lad a Catholic and a Cardinal of the Holy Roman Church.—New York Herald.

The Need For Reform.

There is evidently need for the most searching reform in the Lower Provinces. The papers announce that there has been a serious escape of convicts from the New Brunswick penitentiary. The cause was carelessness. The wardens of this penitentiary, as papers brought down this past session show, was reported to the late Government by Mr. Moylan, the inspector, as being unfit for his position for a variety of reasons.

Now that George M. Dutcher, says the Sun, has fallen from the ranks of temperance men, the numerous temperance clubs which called themselves after him, must find the name anything but convenient. In the situation created by Dutcher's backsliding we have another illustration of the evils of the adherents of a great principle becoming too closely identified with the fallible advocates of the principle.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present. It is an undisputed fact that over half of the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters.

CATARRH. Constitutional Catarrh Remedy CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy. T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.—Dear Sir—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long, I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite cured of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head. A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper. Yours truly, W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister. Port Elgin, Ont., Aug. 24, 1878.

Ask for Littlefield's Constitutional Catarrh Remedy and take no other. T. J. B. HARDING, Dominion Agent, Brockville, Ont. For sale by all Druggists at only one Dollar per bottle.
