

Think ahead to winter . . . Why store it? Sell it with a Want Ad.

Would "extra" money make your summer vacation "extra" special? Then here's how to get it: make up a list of articles around your home which you no longer need. Outgrown children's playthings, for instance, or perhaps that old washing machine, an idle bike, sports equipment, or just about anything that others can use.

Next, Dial 8506 and describe what you have to offer in a fast acting Guardian-Patriot Want Ad!

P. E. I. folks are always on the lookout for second-hand articles in good condition. And because the Guardian-Patriot carries many of these in Want Ads they turn to its classified columns to fill their needs. If you have what they are after, they'll make quick contact and offer cash.

So get busy now rounding up articles around the cellar and attic which you no longer need and offer them to thousands in these widely read columns. Here you'll reach many many local prospects

IN MEMORIAM

McLEAN—In fond and loving memory of my dear father, John D. McLean of Milo, P. E. I. who passed away Sept. 12, 1957.

Father as we look around this world, And cannot find you there, We look back upon our home—stead

Where you adjusted all trouble and care; Then as we stood to ponder, Over all the good you've done, Our thoughts of you are in Heaven now, And the crown that you have won, Lovingly remembered by daughter, Annie.

MCGAUGHEY—In sad and loving memory of my dear husband who God called to Heaven on Sept. 7, 1940, and my dear son, Jimmie on July 14, 1952.

There is still a heartache in my heart today, That countless years can't take away. A place in my heart that nothing can fill, I miss you dear and always will. People often think I am happy when they sometime see me smile. But they do not know the heartache that lies with me all the while.

Sadly missed, lovingly remembered by Wife and Mother, Mrs. Agnes McGaughey, Midgell, P. E. I.

CHING—In loving memory of Clarence Ching, who passed away on Sept. 12th 1957.

He left a beautiful memory And a sorrow too great to be told. But to us who loved and lost him, His memory will never grow old.

Ever remembered by wife and family.

MacRAE—In loving memory of my beloved husband, John A. MacRae who was killed in a truck and train accident, Sept. 12, 1956.

My heart still aches with sadness, And secret tears still flow, What it meant to lose you No one will ever know. When I'm sad and lonely And everything goes wrong I seem to hear you whisper Cheer up and carry on.

Each time I see your photo You seem to smile and say Don't cry, I am only sleeping We will meet again some day.

Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by his loving wife Ida.

MacRAE—In loving memory of my dear father, John A. MacRae, who was killed in a truck and train accident, Sept. 12, 1956.

Dearest to me than words can tell The Dad I lost and loved so well. I do not forget and never intend I think of him dearly, and will go to the end.

Wherever I am Whatever I do, Always dear dad I think of you.

No more to see his smiling face Or hear him say hello It was a shock, a hard and bitter blow Happy and smiling always content Loved and respected wherever he went. Always thoughtful and kind These are the memories he left behind.

Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by his daughter Hazel.

MacLEAN—In loving memory of John D. MacLean, who passed away September 12, 1957.

God knew that he was suffering That the hills were hard to climb, So he closed his weary eyelids And whispered, "Peace Be Thine" ory of my brother, John R. MacCannell, who passed away September 12, 1954.

Inserted by daughters, Margaret and Loretta.

He would not wish for sorrow, He would not wish for tears But just to be remembered Throughout the passing years.

Silently the years roll by But thoughts of you will never die For in God's garden now you sleep And he will keep you till we meet There will be no more sorrow there, Sadly missed by sister Janie.

MacRAE—In fond and loving memory of our brother Johnny MacRae, who died two years ago today.

This day we do remember A loving thought we give, To one no longer with us, But in our hearts still live. Always remembered and sadly missed by Alex, Frances and Children.
