

RYDE, ISLE OF WIGHT, Oct. 2.—Yesterday the Rev. R. Waldo Sibthorp received the Holy Communion at the parish church at St. Helen's, near this town. We presume this is a virtual return to the bosom of the Anglican Church. It is stated in the Mining Journal, that fourteen hundred lives are annually sacrificed by what are termed "mine accidents."

DUELING.—Cologne, Sept. 22.—Lient. Pelzer, who lately, in consequence of a dispute at a ball, fought a duel with M. Hain, a bookseller, and shot him, was sentenced by a court martial to be beheaded. The King has commuted this sentence to 15 years' imprisonment in a fortress. Lient. Pelzer has accordingly been conveyed to-day to the fortress of Ehrenbreitstein, as well as the two seconds, who are condemned to 10 years' imprisonment. The other two persons implicated in the duel are said to be sentenced to five and two years' imprisonment. No doubt is entertained that the imprisonment of the two seconds at least will be considerably abridged.

MADAME LAFFARGE.—The sale of the furniture, &c., of the too celebrated chateau of Glandier has just taken place. The most trifling articles seen in the late abode of Madame Laffarge have fetched the highest prices. The wedding dress of Madlle. Marie Capelle sold for 800 francs; the prayer-book she used at her wedding yielded fifty francs; some little albums, a few soiled pages of verses addressed to her, and other trifles, have attracted a crowd to the Glandier for a whole fortnight.

THE COLONIAL HERALD is regularly filed in London by Mr. P. L. SIMMONDS, Agent for the American and Canadian Newspapers, British and Foreign Newspaper and Advertising Agency Office, 18 Cornhill (opposite the Royal Exchange), where advertisements will be received.

The following gentlemen have been appointed Agents for the COLONIAL HERALD, and are duly authorised to receive payments and grant receipts for the same, and to any of whom those who stand indebted to us are respectfully requested to make immediate payment:—Mr. W. SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1843.

The Royal Mail Steamship BRITANNIA arrived at Halifax, from Liverpool, on the 3d inst, after a passage of 14 days. The Mail only reached us on Thursday last—just a week after its arrival at Halifax—when the St. GEORGE returned from Pictou with it and the usual American and Colonial Mails on board.

Our latest London dates are to the 18th, and Liverpool to the 19th ult. A brief but comprehensive summary of the news—which is of considerable importance—furnished by our attentive London correspondent, will be found below. Further extracts from late English papers will also be found in other parts of this day's paper—the whole of which will, we doubt not, be perused with interest by our readers.

LONDON, Oct. 18th, 1843.

The movement of the Ministry in Ireland, the City election, the Scotch riots, and the Welsh Special Commission, have given a sudden interest to politics—Ireland being foremost in all thoughts, since it is there that the most formidable struggle is in progress. You will find that Government have, at last, resorted to the strong arm of the law to quell the conspiracy. Opinion here is generally favourable to the resolution of the Government in prohibiting the assemblage at Clontarf, but parties are unanimous in condemning the manner in which it was done, with so short a notice, and when the chances of collision were so vastly increased. Indeed, it is a miracle that the influence of O'Connell should have succeeded in preserving the peace. Such an assemblage would not have been so dispersed in England without a row. A heavy responsibility rests upon the Government for its dilatoriness, for I acquit them of any such design as an endeavour to precipitate a convulsion, for the purpose of a general massacre of an unarmed multitude. It is not they, but the influence of O'Connell, that has preserved the peace. The Government are following their measures now with determined energy. Daniel O'Connell, his son John, Mr. Ray, Secretary of the Repeal Association, the Rev. Mr. Tierney, K. C. Priest, the Rev. Mr. Tyrell, do., Mr. Tom Steele, Head Pacifator, Mr. Duffy, editor of the Nation, Mr. Barrett, editor of the Pilot, and Dr. Gray, editor of the Freeman's Journal, have all been admitted to bail, to stand their trial for sedition and conspiracy. Government have taken suitable precautions against any outbreak, more than 34,000 troops being quartered in Ireland, and others being hourly shipped. The King of Hanover has offered to send over 20,000 or 30,000 staunch German troops, if required.

Mr. Baron Parke, Mr. Baron Gurney, and Mr. Justice Cresswell, are the Judges appointed to try the prisoners in South Wales. The trials will take place at Cardiff, in Glamorgan, it having been considered advisable to try the prisoners at a distance from the country which has been the chief scene of the disturbances. The day named for the Commission to meet is the 21st inst. This Special Commission is looked upon as a prudent measure, especially as it is accompanied with a commission to enquire into the grievances of their land; thus they will get something by their agitation.

The Times fears more real danger and difficulty from the Scotch disturbances than from either of the others, and with reason, for the spirit of the covenanters is roused in that resolute people, and history tells us that they fear neither danger nor death for the sake of their religion. Some violence have already taken place in Scotland, caused by State Ministers being inducted into churches which the ministers of the Free Church had conscientiously abandoned, rather than become Erastians.

I can tell you little about the City election which takes place on Saturday, although I am located in the very heart of the contest. Gold will be spent pretty freely on both sides. The anti-corn-league are making great exertions in favour of their candidate, Pattison, but Burings have a good purse to meet them. There will be a severe struggle—but the odds are even in favor of the candidates, and it is hard to say who will win. There are two other seats vacant by the death of their respective members, Kendal and Kilkenny. The League will, I dare say, have a try for these seats too. They certainly spare neither money nor exertion to carry their object.

The convulsion in the Church still proceeds. The Bishop of Rochester has published a pro-Puseyite charge, and the congregations in many places have resolved at public meetings to quit the churches whenever one of the Tractarian doctrines is preached or a rite practised. The Anti-State-Church Convention scheme seems to be taken up with spirit by a section of the Dissenters. The Rev. Mr. Newman has given his friends, and it is believed his diocesan, to understand, that he has relinquished all connexion with periodical controversial literature. Mr. Newman was induced, it is said, to resign his living by the remonstrances of the Lord Bishop of Oxford against the ultra-Puseyite doctrines promulgated by this leading Tractarian in the pulpit of St. Mary's.

The Revenue Accounts for the year ending Oct. 10, have been published. The net increase upon the year amounts to more than four millions sterling; and the increase upon the last quarter is one million five hundred and sixty-five thousand nine hundred and thirty-one pounds. This increase is all progressive, as the difference of ratio between the year and quarter sufficiently proves. It is derived from constant and not casual sources, and it anticipates nothing from the future income of the country.

We have news of the Ratification of the Treaty with China, which has given an impetus to trade, which will be highly beneficial. It has especially improved the cotton market. The Grand Duke Michel, brother of the Emperor of Russia, is over here on a visit. The Duc de Bourdeaux and the Duke and Duchess of Nemours, are expected, so that it seems as if we shall never lack distinguished foreigners from "le grand nation," to give additional eclat to our elevated circles.

PUBLIC MEETING.

A Public Meeting of the Inhabitants of Cavendish was held on the 1st of Nov. inst., when the following Address to the Rev. James Waddell was adopted. The Chairman and Mr. James Simpson, sen., were appointed a deputation to transmit the same. The Rev. Mr. Waddell having come unexpectedly to the Settlement, it was presented on the spot. WILLIAM MACNEILL, Chairman.

TO THE REV. JAMES WADDELL, LATE ONE OF THE MASTERS OF THE CENTRAL ACADEMY, CHARLOTTETOWN.

REV. SIR—We, Inhabitants of Cavendish and vicinity, in public meeting assembled, beg leave to express our deep sense of the many obligations conferred on this Community by the zeal you have at all times manifested for its moral and intellectual improvement, during the period we have experienced the pleasure of your acquaintance; and also to express our unfeigned regret, that your dismissal from the important and responsible situation you have held in the Central Academy will, in all probability, deprive us, and many of our fellow Colonists, of those benefits, in future which we so highly appreciate.

Should you be induced, by circumstances alluded to, to leave the Island, we cannot but consider your departure as a public loss; and we hope and trust that Divine Providence will appoint your sphere of action where you will be enabled to effect greater amount of good to the social and eternal interests of mankind; a circumstance which, we are fully assured, will be the most congenial to your desires.

That health and happiness may ever attend you, your amiable Lady and Family, is the sincere prayer of this assembly.

Signed, by order of the Meeting, WILLIAM MACNEILL, Chairman. Cavendish, P. E. I., 1st Nov., 1843.

[REV. MR. WADDELL'S REPLY.]

GENTLEMEN—I thank you most sincerely for your kind Address. In the exercise of the "zeal," for which you so generously give me credit, the obligation has not rested all on you. I have been proud to be the channel of your bounty to the great moral and religious enterprises in which we have been mutually engaged; and when relaxation from public duty has sometimes placed a little leisure at my disposal, I have visited you occasionally, with both pleasure and profit.

Could I suppose that my "dismissal from the important situation which I have held in the Central Academy" would place me beyond the reach of co-operating with those who have at heart the promotion of the glory of God and the best interests of men, I should consider that "dismissal" a much greater "loss" than it is ever likely to prove.

But, while it is cheering to labour with those whom we personally respect and esteem, and painful to be compelled to "depart" from among those who appreciate our exertions, it is duty to be willing, in any place, and under any circumstances, to be made instruments of "good to the social and eternal interests of mankind." In endeavouring to cherish this disposition, and in maintaining a readiness to occupy such "sphere of action as Divine Providence may appoint" me, I am cheered by your friendship, and encouraged by your "prayer;" and while I gratefully acknowledge the kind interest which you manifest in my personal and domestic happiness, I beg to assure you that your prayer is not more sincere than that in which I implore the richest blessings of Heaven upon yourselves and your families, and commend to the God of all grace your "social and eternal interests."

I am, Gentlemen, with much respect, Yours most sincerely, J. WADDELL.

Cavendish, 6th Nov., 1843. To the Deputation appointed to present the Address passed at the Public Meeting held on the 1st Nov., inst.

SUPREME COURT.—On Monday, the 9th inst. Mr. Philip F. Little underwent the usual examinations, and having been duly sworn, was admitted to be a practising Attorney of this Court.

MUSICAL SOIREE.—On Tuesday evening last, Mr. Lobban's Band of Instrumental Performers, entertained a highly respectable party of Ladies and Gentlemen, by the masterly performance of many delightful airs, in the Masonic Hall, Macdonald's Building. Great credit is due to Mr. Lobban and the other individuals composing his band, for the zeal with which they have studied—and we may say with much success—to render themselves proficient on their several instruments. And there is, besides, about them, an air of respectability, which is scarcely less gratifying than their skill. We are certain their Tuesday-evening's auditors were highly delighted by their several performances, and would be happy in an opportunity of expressing their thanks for the pleasure thereby afforded them. It ought to be understood that this Band is entirely of independent origin; and is, in no way, indebted to the handsome subscriptions raised, some time ago, for the formation of a Public Band. Mr. Lobban himself has, we believe, expended about £30 in the purchasing of music and musical instruments. When it is found that his Band is so capable of affording a musical treat, and is, in every other way, so worthy of patronage, we are sure that in the taste, spirit, and liberality of Charlottetown, there will, at least, be found a ready and sufficient guarantee against loss.—Islander.

HORTICULTURE.—We have often had reason to remark, that the capabilities of our soil have never been fairly tested: its productiveness, under superior management and care is very great, and, by the judicious application of simulant manures, may yet be considerably increased. In the garden of the Hon. T. H. Haviland—a piece of ground not long redeemed from its wild state—a vine of Hamburg Grapes has been cultivated with success. One bunch of that most delicious fruit, being last week gathered, weighing 2lbs. This, we wish to be understood, is not a stoved or forced plant, but cultivated in the open air, though, of course, every care necessary has been bestowed upon it. We saw, in the same plot of ground, during the season, some Ne plus ultra Gooseberries, of a large size, one indeed measuring 4½ inches in circumference. Strangers and transient visitors are always highly delighted with the comparative perfection to which Mr. Haviland has been enabled to bring his flower garden, which for Dahlias and other choice specimens is here unrivalled.—Gaz.

HINT TO LANDLORDS.—In this licentious age, when sinister motives are attributed to the most deserving individuals, when every exercise of a legal right is considered an act of tyranny, and when, to gratify a depraved and vitiated taste it is almost necessary to dip one's pen in gall, it gives us pleasure to notice the following fact which has come to our knowledge.—It will be recollected that many of the farmers on Winsloe, Brackley Point, and Union Roads, lost a great portion of their grain crops by the falling of preternaturally large hail on the 4th Aug. last. The gentleman who acts as agent for the Townships on which the said settlements are situated has in consideration of this severe casualty remitted in full to the sufferers, their present year's Rent. We do not mention this for the purpose of laudation; the gentleman alluded to stands too high in the deserved estimation of his numerous tenants to be in need of our panegyric. But we mention it that other agents and proprietors may be induced to sympathise with their poorer brethren, in the present difficult commercial crisis, and where circumstances admit, make matters as easy as possible.—Id.

PERSONAL ORNAMENT.—A highly-interesting work might be composed on the various and dissimilar modes of Personal Embellishment practised among different nations, and the chapter devoted to the Teeth could not but prove one of the most attractive in the volume. Among many savage nations, the practice is well known to prevail of dyeing the teeth black, which is esteemed a high degree of ornament; while, on the contrary, our Fair Beauties, relying on nature for their attractions, seek only to preserve the charms which she has so richly bestowed on them, and endeavour simply to preserve the white and pearly character of the Teeth. Among the various means suggested for this object, we would select the celebrated "opono," prepared by Messrs ROWLAND, of London, as the most admirable and perfect Dentifrice yet submitted to the Public.—See Advertisement.

SUMMARY OF AFFIDAVIT.

Wm. Brooke, Messenger, of 2, Union-street, Southwark, London, maketh oath and saith, that he (this deponent) was afflicted with FIFTEEN RUNNING ULCERS on his left arm, and ulcerated sores and wounds on both legs, for which deponent was admitted an out-door patient at the Metropolitan Hospital, in April, 1841, where he continued for nearly four weeks. Unable to receive a cure there, the deponent sought relief at the three following hospitals:—King's College Hospital in May, for three weeks;—at Guy's Hospital in July, for six weeks;—and at Charing Cross Hospital at the end of August, for some weeks more; which deponent left being in a far worse condition than when he quitted Guy's, where Sir BRANSBY COOPER, and other medical officers of the establishment had told deponent that the only chance of saving his life was to LOSE HIS ARM! The deponent thereupon called upon Dr. BRIGHT, chief physician of Guy's, who, on viewing the deponent's condition, kindly and liberally said, "I am utterly at a loss what to do for you! but here is half-a-sovereign: go to Mr. HOLLOWAY, and try what effect his Pills and Ointment will have, as I have frequently witnessed the wonderful effects they have in desperate cases. You can let me see you again." This unprejudiced advice was followed by the deponent, and a perfect cure effected in three weeks, by the use alone of HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and OINTMENT, after four Hospitals had failed!!! When Dr. Bright was shown by the deponent the result of his advice and charity, he said, "I am both astonished and delighted, for I thought that if I ever saw you again alive, it would be without your arm; I can only compare this Cure to a Charm!!!" Sworn at the Mansion-house of the City } Wm. BROOKE. of London this 8th day of March 1842. } Before me, JOHN PIRIE, MAYOR.

IN ALL DISEASES of the Skin, Bad Legs, Old Wounds and Ulcers, Bad Breasts, Sore Nipples, Stoney and Ulcerated Cancers, Tumours, Swellings, Gout, Rheumatism, and Lumbago, likewise in cases of Piles; the Pills, in all the above cases, ought to be used with the Ointment; as by this means cures will be effected with a much greater certainty, and in half the time that it would require by using the Ointment alone. The Ointment is proved to be a certain remedy for the bite of mosquitoes, Sand-flies, Chiego-foot, Yaws, and Coco-hay. Burns, Scalds, Childblains, Chapped Hands and Lips, also Bunions and Soft Corns, will be immediately cured by the use of the Ointment.

THE PILLS are not only the finest remedy known when used with the Ointment, but as a General Medicine there is nothing equal to them. In nervous affections they will be found of the greatest service. These Pills are, without exception, the finest Purifier of the Blood ever discovered, and OUGHT to be USED BY ALL!!!

THE BRITISH AND FOREIGN REVIEW.

THIS Periodical has existed for nearly Eight Years, during which time it has maintained a leading character among the English Quarterly publications for independence, a high and enlightened tone of criticism, and a consistent advocacy of liberal principles, unfettered by mere party interests. In carrying out these views, the BRITISH AND FOREIGN REVIEW has devoted a large share of attention to promulgate and enforce such a liberal system of policy as would tend to draw the interests of England and her Colonies into still closer connexion, and thus promote their mutual interests. All the great questions of importance, both in Great Britain and abroad, are treated of in a consistent spirit of liberality and justice, maintaining the position that all good government must be founded upon these principles. The literature of England, of Europe generally, and of America, has a full share of attention paid to its reviewal, and subjects of the greatest interest in all departments are carefully selected for notice in the pages of this Work. WHEREAS a report has been set afloat, by a few wicked, malicious and evil-disposed persons, to the effect, that I am deeply involved in debt, and that all my property has been seized by the Sheriff, to discharge the same; and that I had been endeavouring to conceal some part of my property, to prevent its being seized; and whereas the above wicked and false report has been industriously circulated by some persons who knew it had no foundation in truth, and after they had heard it contradicted, such a report having a tendency to do me (being extensively engaged in business), a serious injury, I have thought proper, for the satisfaction of those residing at a distance from Town, and who have on many previous occasions placed confidence in me, publicly to contradict, in toto, every part of the said report,—there being nothing whatever to ground such a report upon; and further, that no part of my property has ever been seized, or was even in danger of being seized; that I have never been sued for a debt, or even threatened with any coercive measures whatever for the recovery of a debt; that I am not involved, nor ever was involved; and that no person whatever is bound for me for the payment of any debt, nor has been for the last ten years; nor have I, during that time, solicited any one to become bound for me for the payment of any debt whatever; that I am happy, through the blessing of Divine Providence on my humble endeavours, to be enabled to say, that my circumstances are as comfortable as those of almost any tradesman in Charlottetown, although in common with every one engaged in business, I find cash very scarce, and frequently experience considerable difficulty in fulfilling my engagements: Now, I hereby caution those evil-disposed persons who are so industriously keeping the said report in circulation, that unless they immediately desist, I will either prosecute them, or publish their names in the same manner as I have published this, as being persons of an envious disposition, influenced by the Devil, taking pleasure in doing their neighbour an injury, and in circulating base and malicious falsehood, and as dangerous members of the community.
