RODDICK-SANDESON—A quiet wedding was solemnized at the United Church manse, Bass River, at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, when Rev. W. Harry Rackham officiated in marriage Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sandeson, Lower Truro, to George Roddick. The bride was attractively attired in a dress of Queen Elizabeth blue, with white coat and accessories. She was attended by Miss Anna McKay, who also wore a blue dress with white accessories. The groom was attended by Delmer Lynds. Immediately after the ceremony, the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to Prince Edward Island. Prior to her marriage, the bride was a valued employee of the News Publishing Co. Ltd. and later of the Truro Printing & Publishing Co. Ltd. She has recently been elevated at several social functions. The groom holds a responsible position in the Full Fashioned Hosiery Department of Lewis Limited. On their return they will reside on Wood Street. (Truro News.)

Mrs. Clarence MacKenzie of South Pineville and three children, Hazel, Jean and John have arrived home from Sydney, C.B., where she visited for a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John MacAulay.

Owing to the heavy rain on Saturday the field day at the Daley Farm, Iona, had to be postponed. The program for the ladies at these meetings adds very greatly to them this year. The joint yearly meeting of the five W.M.S. auxiliaries of St. John's Presbyterian Church, Eidon, was held in the Sunday School room on Wednesday evening, August 2nd at 8 o'clock with the Melville and Garfield auxiliaries in charge. Mrs. A. K. MacRae presided and Mrs. Pearle Dobson acted as secretary for the evening. Meeting opened by singing a hymn to "The Nations." The Scripture lesson was Matthew Chapter 28 and was read responsively. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Dan MacLeod, Flat River auxiliary. The members of the last joint meeting were read by the secretary. The minutes of the July meeting of the different auxiliaries were read as follows: Eidon, Mrs. Frank MacDonald; Flat River, Mrs. Dan MacLeod; Newtown and Orwell Cove, Mrs. Mont MacEachern; Pineville, Mrs. Mabel MacEachern; Melville and Garfield, Mrs. Pearle Dobson; Good Hope Mission Band, Eleanor Ross. The roll call of the different auxiliaries

In Memoriam

MR. ROBERT McCARRON

The death occurred at his home St. Mary's Road, of Robert McCarron, on the 27th of July, 1939 in his 73rd year. He was ailing for the past two years and was frequently visited by his pastor who administered the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church. Mr. McCarron was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Brian McCarron, oldest residents and always took an active part in the school and also a faithful member of St. Paul's Catholic Church and always attended to his church duties. His life was simple, but charity, he possessed and had a number of friends. Mr. McCarron was married first to Helen McGulgan in Lowell, Mass., in the year 1898. She died seven years after, leaving three daughters, Annie, Mrs. Philip Ahearn, Roxbury, Mass., Marion, Mrs. George Power, Charlottetown, and Catherine, Mrs. Stanley Hagarty, Miami, Florida. His second marriage to Catherine Mae Gormley was in 1905 and took place in Sturgeon. She had eight children, Al, of South Boston; Cordelia, Mrs. John Doyle, Brookline, Mass.; Rosella, Mrs. Vincent Gallant, Charlottetown; Jerome, Celina, Brian and Alphonse at home. Winnie predeceased him eleven years ago. He has six brothers, Thomas, Connecticut; George, in Augusta, Me.; Peter, in Waterville, Maine; Frank of Montague, Edward, of St. Mary's Road and Michael E. in Pittsfield, Mass., and two sisters, Rose, Mrs. Frank Conners, Pittsfield, and Bridget, Mrs. John Willit, Pittsfield, who died one year ago, besides a number of nieces and nephews and seventeen grandchildren. His wife and family deeply mourn the loss of a loving husband and father, but they have the consolation to think he had a happy death and was well prepared. He received many mass cards and spiritual bouquets. His funeral was largely attended to St. Paul's cemetery, prayers at the grave were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Finlay Mullally who also celebrated Requiem High Mass. The pallbearers were Messrs. Chas-
