SENATOR HOWLAN is in the city. He is enjoying excellent health.

REMEMBER the extensive sale of bankrupt stock at the store of Mr. S. W. McMurray, to-morrow at eleven o'clock.

The barque Unity cleared for Georgetown for Honfleur, France, on Monday, the 9th, with 3,319 bushels oats, and 446 pieces spruce deals.

WE DIRECT the attention of the authorities to the disgraceful acts of a gang of young ruffians who frequent the English burying ground on Sundays. Tombstones are defaced, flower beds are destroyed, railings are pulled down, apparently regardless of consequences. Cannot the prosecution of some of these young vandals be effected for the sake of example?

THE walking match at the Rink will commence at 11 o'clock to-morrow forenoon. The name of John McInnis has been added to the list of entries, and Richard Mitchell has withdrawn, on account of an unavoidable circumstance. He states he will—after the match is decided—challenge the winner. All are looking forward to an interesting match. Betting has already commenced.
