

DR. ARSENAULT GIVES VIEWS

Piracy Waste Charges Made Against Sealers

By JACK BOND
Guardian-Patriot Staff Writer Charges of piracy and the plague and wild destruction of seals were made last night by Dr. Marc Arsenault, against the hunting parties operating from sealing ships in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, Dr. Arsenault, of Grandmead, Magdalen Islands, is the leader of the airborne seal hunting party now operating out of St. Peter's.

He said that the position of these piles of skins is carefully checked at night and in the morning, using navigation gear which brings the helicopters to within 25 feet of any given navigation point, pilots are unable to find the skins.

On one occasion, one of his copters "shot down" any helicopter pilot who failed to pick up a load of pelts, only to be shot down himself.
