Lennox Island Dramatic Society Scores Hits

The Lennox Island Dramatic Society, an all Indian cast of players, under the direction of Rev. E. W. MacInnis, principal of the school, has presented, during the past week, to capacity audiences at Mont Carmel, Egmont Bay and Tyne Valley, three comedies entitled "With the Help of the Family", "A Terrible Catastrophe" and "Wanted, A Housekeeper".

The fine performances of the actors and actresses coupled with the humor of the plays delighted the audiences. The climax of the humor was reached with the appearance on the stage of Joe (Lou Costello) Scully who kept the audience in a continuous state of laughter. Gerald Gallant, with his rendition of "Shortenin' Bread", received much applause. John D. Scully, with his fine exhibition of step dancing received a great ovation.

Between the plays there was instrumental music and singing. A special feature of the entertainment was the singing and guitar playing of Nelson Gallant, who delighted all with his rendition of western songs and music. Little Marily Francis won everyone's heart with her recitation entitled "Easy". Due to the splendid performances given by this company they have received many requests to present their plays in other places.

Members of the cast are as follows: John D. Scully, Raymond Sark, Joseph Scully, Tom Broderick, Basil Francis, Mrs. Peter D. Peters, Mrs. Annie Paul, Gerald Gallant, Shirley Peters, Hazel Peters, Peter D. Peters, Joseph Jaded, Marilyn Francis, Mary Ann Labobe, Nelson Gallant and Peter Sark.—S.
