Grain

WINNIPEG, May 22 - (CP) - Most closing prices of coarse grain futures showed a firmer trend today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. Buying was stimulated by dry weather in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and the United States sprouting wheat belt. Upturns on American markets were reflected on prices. Commercial demand was limited with some shipping orders in oats and barley. There were American purchases in rye and industrial interest in flax. Trading was moderately active with light offerings. Overnight shipments of Canadian wheat for export included 1,000,000 bushels for the United Kingdom, Germany 4,000,000, Netherlands 11,000,000, Japan 335,000.
